

NEWS OF THE WEST.

A Bandit Arrested Through a Little Girl's Scream.

A GUY DECEIVER CONVICTED.

The Adelante "Pit" at Mexican City.—Desperate Fight With a Savage Bull.

There are four cases of scatological fever in the Virginia (Nev.) hills.

Electric signals are being put up by the members of the stage coaches in the mountains.

A great building movement is developing at Los Angeles City, the new gold camp near Durango.

The construction of new cattle trails will cost the much needed bridge over the Rio Grande at that point if the city will raise $5,000.

The Phoenix and Prescott railway is expected to open in April. A line 11 miles long connecting the two cities.

The salmon season which will open April 1st promises to be more than usually active on the Columbia river.

Seattle, Wash., police who have just arrested a man having in his possession some $300 worth of whisky.

At Chehalis, Wash., says an exchange, there are drinking "Chamomile waters." It is said that the water is made from the roots of the Chamomile plant, with a touch of whisky.

Captains have a scheme to turn their authority to advantage for manufacturing purposes. It is proposed to generate the power in the transom across Knight's Ferry.

Terrell Thompson was badly hurt at Santa Barbara, Cal., by the breaking of a carriage of sulphur salts that he was handling. The fluid was thrown over his face and neck, causing severe burns.

Now that Spokane, Wash., has a new jail, new rules have been made for prisoners. One of these is that no man may be held more than a week. Another provides that no officer or constable shall be allowed.

Reports from the west side of the San Joaquin valley say that the sheep and mutton markets are confronted by over-supply of long continued drought. This is almost as bad, and many of the lambs have died.

Whitecarrying in the Courthouse square at Honolulu, Cal., without hats or coverings, has been prohibited, and those who do it are to be fined $100. This was first proposed by a man who carried his wife across the Pacific by an Indian village.

Thomas Morgan, a Missouri lawyer, went to a Great Basin pensioner, pointing a gun at the pensioner's head, and was to shoot him if he did not give up his money. He was taken to jail, and after trial was sentenced to a fine of $100.

A suit in wages has been made by the Deseret Coal and Iron Company against the company for $1,000, and $100 were awarded. Much complaint is made against the company because of the rule competing employees play at the company's stores.

Onions, the 12-year-old son of A. C. Hansen, of Lincoln, Wis., fell from the rafters in the gymnasium on Wednesday evening, and was found dead in a hall, but her regular exercises. Another recently died at the hands of a fall.

The Pueblo Guards announces that men are at work compiling statistics along the line of the proposed new railroad from Pueblo to Durango via Red Cliff, Harrisonville, Silver Cliff, and Lake City.

Sprinting chewing is claimed to have been invented to help all nations of Chileans and is especially well advanced south of the Andes on the western slope. Exchange from these localities all evidently possess as active and prosperous agricultural seasons.

There is an abundance of water for irrigation in the West, but, although there is a general increase in the demand for water will probably not keep pace, because the farms are learning that less irrigation and more cultivation are required.

In regard to Montana's proposed adoption of a state constitution, the Helena Journal, the state's Capital, did not express a preference for the latter, as seems to be the case. The Lecture, it says, is like a Committee having made a great deal of talking before it is assigned to the task of public service.

Railroads in the basin west of the Colorado River in Washington have absorbed a fund from which a sum of $20,000 will be paid for each wolf killed in the territory. In addition to that amount Fremont County will pay the county commissioners $100 for every wolf killed.

A Mexican citizen, Isaac Tamm, says the Ogres, and held the first permanent, the skirmishes were fifteen events, and where the rash was no forthcoming, obnoxious, coarse, or anything of the value of offense, except that the Mexican army had been captured, was given a different character, and that was given to the probability of his safety.

John Frank, citizen of the Province (Cal.), prison laurel, who was captured by the desperado band of cut-throats led by the notorious George Bent, was shot through the heart on Tuesday night by shooting each other a severe battle, putting to flight a savage band which had kidnapped him and was gazing to death a prisoner who was captured by the Indians.

On Tuesday the seven-year-old daughter of one Lyon was sitting on the porch of the family residence at Salt Lake City, when she noticed a bandit riding a horse, and he took a shot at her. This started the Indian, and he took a shot at the man until she saw him disappear up the narrow back. In the meantime, Mr. Lyon, who was in one of the upper rooms of the house, had determined to ascertain the cause of the shrill screams. A glance at the window showed that the articles had been dislodged, and was held west to the police office. By the time the little girl got the doors and little trouble in reaching the man. Upon this were hung two pieces of cloth, one white and one black, and which were identified. A search at the police station disclosed five small flies, suggesting that he might be a novice at surgery.

E. Lehmann, a swindler, who with the assist of Mrs. Hämmerle, a woman 20 years of age, and accomplice of the notorious F. W. Lehmann, Oct. 1, and she abandoned her home with him, has been sentenced to six months. The woman was a sorghy, in view of the nature of the crime, which was committed by the parties were engaged in, that the sentence was severe, but the law at the time the alleged crime was committed, and therefore a conviction for homicide could not stand. There was no agreement between the parties as to the division of their rights and duties. The court said that the evidence of the complainant witness showed a mutual promise of marriage, after which Lehmann intended her wife to withdraw from society, and to live with him in a quiet life.

The Phoenix and Prescott railway is expected to open in April. It is to be operated by a line holding country along its route.

The salmon season which will open April 1st promises to be more than usually active on the Columbia river.

Seattle, Wash., police who have just arrested a man having in his possession some $300 worth of whisky.

At Chehalis, Wash., says an exchange, there are drinking "Chamomile waters." It is said that the water is made from the roots of the Chamomile plant, with a touch of whisky.

Captains have a scheme to turn their authority to advantage for manufacturing purposes. It is proposed to generate the power in the transom across Knight's Ferry.

Terrell Thompson was badly hurt at Santa Barbara, Cal., by the breaking of a carriage of sulphur salts that he was handling. The fluid was thrown over his face and neck, causing severe burns.

Now that Spokane, Wash., has a new jail, new rules have been made for prisoners. One of these is that no man may be held more than a week. Another provides that no officer or constable shall be allowed.

Reports from the west side of the San Joaquin valley say that the sheep and mutton markets are confronted by over-supply of long continued drought. This is almost as bad, and many of the lambs have died.

Whitecarrying in the Courthouse square at Honolulu, Cal., without hats or coverings, has been prohibited, and those who do it are to be fined $100. This was first proposed by a man who carried his wife across the Pacific by an Indian village.

Thomas Morgan, a Missouri lawyer, went to a Great Basin pensioner, pointing a gun at the pensioner's head, and was to shoot him if he did not give up his money. He was taken to jail, and after trial was sentenced to a fine of $100.

A suit in wages has been made by the Deseret Coal and Iron Company against the company for $1,000, and $100 were awarded. Much complaint is made against the company because of the rule competing employees play at the company's stores.

Onions, the 12-year-old son of A. C. Hansen, of Lincoln, Wis., fell from the rafters in the gymnasium on Wednesday evening, and was found dead in a hall, but her regular exercises. Another recently died at the hands of a fall.

The Pueblo Guards announces that men are at work compiling statistics along the line of the proposed new railroad from Pueblo to Durango via Red Cliff, Harrisonville, Silver Cliff, and Lake City.

Sprinting chewing is claimed to have been invented to help all nations of Chileans and is especially well advanced south of the Andes on the western slope. Exchange from these localities all evidently possess as active and prosperous agricultural seasons.

There is an abundance of water for irrigation in the West, but, although there is a general increase in the demand for water will probably not keep pace, because the farms are learning that less irrigation and more cultivation are required.

In regard to Montana's proposed adoption of a state constitution, the Helena Journal, the state's Capital, did not express a preference for the latter, as seems to be the case. The Lecture, it says, is like a Committee having made a great deal of talking before it is assigned to the task of public service.

Railroads in the basin west of the Colorado River in Washington have absorbed a fund from which a sum of $20,000 will be paid for each wolf killed in the territory. In addition to that amount Fremont County will pay the county commissioners $100 for every wolf killed.

A Mexican citizen, Isaac Tamm, says the Ogres, and held the first permanent, the skirmishes were fifteen events, and where the rash was no forthcoming, obnoxious, coarse, or anything of the value of offense, except that the Mexican army had been captured, was given a different character, and that was given to the probability of his safety.

John Frank, citizen of the Province (Cal.), prison laurel, who was captured by the desperado band of cut-throats led by the notorious George Bent, was shot through the heart on Tuesday night by shooting each other a severe battle, putting to flight a savage band which had kidnapped him and was gazing to death a prisoner who was captured by the Indians.

On Tuesday the seven-year-old daughter of one Lyon was sitting on

TREATED AT HOME,

No. Most Successfully By Dr. Dr. Hogan.

Chief Physician and Surgeon, University Medical Institute, in the Progress Building, South Main St., "The Old Hospital Institute."

2500 daily patients for many years a professor of Pathos, Chirurg. and Phys. has been a house physician to hospitals in San Leandro, Calif., for many years.

He has treated many cases of scatological fever in the Virginia (Nev.) hills.

Electric signals are being put up by the members of the stage coaches in the mountains.

A great building movement is developing at Los Angeles City, the new gold camp near Durango.

The construction of new cattle trails will cost the much needed bridge over the Rio Grande at that point if the city will raise $5,000.

The Phoenix and Prescott railway is expected to open in April. It is to be operated by a line holding country along its route.

The salmon season which will open April 1st promises to be more than usually active on the Columbia river.

Seattle, Wash., police who have just arrested a man having in his possession some $300 worth of whisky.

At Chehalis, Wash., says an exchange, there are drinking "Chamomile waters." It is said that the water is made from the roots of the Chamomile plant, with a touch of whisky.

Captains have a scheme to turn their authority to advantage for manufacturing purposes. It is proposed to generate the power in the transom across Knight's Ferry.

Terrell Thompson was badly hurt at Santa Barbara, Cal., by the breaking of a carriage of sulphur salts that he was handling. The fluid was thrown over his face and neck, causing severe burns.

Now that Spokane, Wash., has a new jail, new rules have been made for prisoners. One of these is that no man may be held more than a week. Another provides that no officer or constable shall be allowed.

Reports from the west side of the San Joaquin valley say that the sheep and mutton markets are confronted by over-supply of long continued drought. This is almost as bad, and many of the lambs have died.

Whitecarrying in the Courthouse square at Honolulu, Cal., without hats or coverings, has been prohibited, and those who do it are to be fined $100. This was first proposed by a man who carried his wife across the Pacific by an Indian village.

Thomas Morgan, a Missouri lawyer, went to a Great Basin pensioner, pointing a gun at the pensioner's head, and was to shoot him if he did not give up his money. He was taken to jail, and after trial was sentenced to a fine of $100.

A suit in wages has been made by the Deseret Coal and Iron Company against the company for $1,000, and $100 were awarded. Much complaint is made against the company because of the rule competing employees play at the company's stores.

Onions, the 12-year-old son of A. C. Hansen, of Lincoln, Wis., fell from the rafters in the gymnasium on Wednesday evening, and was found dead in a hall, but her regular exercises. Another recently died at the hands of a fall.

The Pueblo Guards announces that men are at work compiling statistics along the line of the proposed new railroad from Pueblo to Durango via Red Cliff, Harrisonville, Silver Cliff, and Lake City.

Sprinting chewing is claimed to have been invented to help all nations of Chileans and is especially well advanced south of the Andes on the western slope. Exchange from these localities all evidently possess as active and prosperous agricultural seasons.

There is an abundance of water for irrigation in the West, but, although there is a general increase in the demand for water will probably not keep pace, because the farms are learning that less irrigation and more cultivation are required.

In regard to Montana's proposed adoption of a state constitution, the Helena Journal, the state's Capital, did not express a preference for the latter, as seems to be the case. The Lecture, it says, is like a Committee having made a great deal of talking before it is assigned to the task of public service.

Railroads in the basin west of the Colorado River in Washington have absorbed a fund from which a sum of $20,000 will be paid for each wolf killed in the territory. In addition to that amount Fremont County will pay the county commissioners $100 for every wolf killed.

A Mexican citizen, Isaac Tamm, says the Ogres, and held the first permanent, the skirmishes were fifteen events, and where the rash was no forthcoming, obnoxious, coarse, or anything of the value of offense, except that the Mexican army had been captured, was given a different character, and that was given to the probability of his safety.

John Frank, citizen of the Province (Cal.), prison laurel, who was captured by the desperado band of cut-throats led by the notorious George Bent, was shot through the heart on Tuesday night by shooting each other a severe battle, putting to flight a savage band which had kidnapped him and was gazing to death a prisoner who was captured by the Indians.

On Tuesday the seven-year-old daughter of one Lyon was sitting on

2 FIVE-TON

WAGON SCALES

Made by the Chicago Scale Co.

For Sale Cheap.

Enquiry at this Office.

BEFORE CONGRESS.

Working for the West.

After a series of several trials, Washington, D. C., during which he was familiar with the workings of Congress and the departments, Judge James W. Moore, an Attorney and Counselor of the Supreme Court of the United States, is prepared to present proper legislation by appearing before Congress and informing interested Congressmen as to the needs of miners and communities represented by him.

He also presents his views to the Senate, House, and other appropriate committees and bureaus, and reports on cases of miners and miners' rights.

He also presents his views to the Senate, House, and other appropriate committees and bureaus, and reports on cases of miners and miners' rights.

He also presents his views to the Senate, House, and other appropriate committees and bureaus, and reports on cases of miners and miners' rights.

He also presents his views to the Senate, House, and other appropriate committees and bureaus, and reports on cases of miners and miners' rights.

He also presents his views to the Senate, House, and other appropriate committees and bureaus, and reports on cases of miners and miners' rights.

He also presents his views to the Senate, House, and other appropriate committees and bureaus, and reports on cases of miners and miners' rights.

He also presents his views to the Senate, House, and other appropriate committees and bureaus, and reports on cases of miners and miners' rights.

He also presents his views to the Senate, House, and other appropriate committees and bureaus, and reports on cases of miners and miners' rights.

He also presents his views to the Senate, House, and other appropriate committees and bureaus, and reports on cases of miners and miners' rights.

He also presents his views to the Senate, House, and other appropriate committees and bureaus, and reports on cases of miners and miners' rights.

He also presents his views to the Senate, House, and other appropriate committees and bureaus, and reports on cases of miners and miners' rights.

He also presents his views to the Senate, House, and other appropriate committees and bureaus, and reports on cases of miners and miners' rights.

He also presents his views to the Senate, House, and other appropriate committees and bureaus, and reports on cases of miners and miners' rights.

He also presents his views to the Senate, House, and other appropriate committees and bureaus, and reports on cases of miners and miners' rights.

He also presents his views to the Senate, House, and other appropriate committees and bureaus, and reports on cases of miners and miners' rights.

He also presents his views to the Senate, House, and other appropriate committees and bureaus, and reports on cases of miners and miners' rights.

He also presents his views to the Senate, House, and other appropriate committees and bureaus, and reports on cases of miners and miners' rights.

He also presents his views to the Senate, House, and other appropriate committees and bureaus, and reports on cases of miners and miners' rights.

He also presents his views to the Senate, House, and other appropriate committees and bureaus, and reports on cases of miners and miners' rights.

He also presents his views to the Senate, House, and other appropriate committees and bureaus, and reports on cases of miners and miners' rights.

He also presents his views to the Senate, House, and other appropriate committees and bureaus, and reports on cases of miners and miners' rights.

He also presents his views to the Senate, House, and other appropriate committees and bureaus, and reports on cases of miners and miners' rights.

He also presents his views to the Senate, House, and other appropriate committees and bureaus, and reports on cases of miners and miners' rights.

He also presents his views to the Senate, House, and other appropriate committees and bureaus, and reports on cases of miners and miners' rights.

He also presents his views to the Senate, House, and other appropriate committees and bureaus, and reports on cases of miners and miners' rights.

He also presents his views to the Senate, House, and other appropriate committees and bureaus, and reports on cases of miners and miners' rights.

He also presents his views to the Senate, House, and other appropriate committees and bureaus, and reports on cases of miners and miners' rights.

He also presents his views to the Senate, House, and other appropriate committees and bureaus, and reports on cases of miners and miners' rights.

He also presents his views to the Senate, House, and other appropriate committees and bureaus, and reports on cases of miners and miners' rights.

He also presents his views to the Senate, House, and other appropriate committees and bureaus, and reports on cases of miners and miners' rights.

He also presents his views to the Senate, House, and other appropriate committees and bureaus, and reports on cases of miners and miners' rights.

He also presents his views to the Senate, House, and other appropriate committees and bureaus, and reports on cases of miners and miners' rights.

He also presents his views to the Senate, House, and other appropriate committees and bureaus, and reports on cases of miners and miners' rights.

He also presents his views to the Senate, House, and other appropriate committees and bureaus, and reports on cases of miners and miners' rights.

He also presents his views to the Senate, House, and other appropriate committees and bureaus, and reports on cases of miners and miners' rights.

He also presents his views to the Senate, House, and other appropriate committees and bureaus, and reports on cases of miners and miners' rights.

He also presents his views to the Senate, House, and other appropriate committees and bureaus, and reports on cases of miners and miners' rights.

He also presents his views to the Senate, House, and other appropriate committees and bureaus, and reports on cases of miners and miners' rights.

He also presents his views to the Senate, House, and other appropriate committees and bureaus, and reports on cases of miners and miners' rights.

He also presents his views to the Senate, House, and other appropriate committees and bureaus, and reports on cases of miners and miners' rights.

He also presents his views to the Senate, House, and other appropriate committees and bureaus, and reports on cases of miners and miners' rights.

He also presents his views to the Senate, House, and other appropriate committees and bureaus, and reports on cases of miners and miners' rights.

He also presents his views to the Senate, House, and other appropriate committees and bureaus, and reports on cases of miners and miners' rights.

He also presents his views to the Senate, House, and other appropriate committees and bureaus, and reports on cases of miners and miners' rights.

He also presents his views to the Senate, House, and other appropriate committees and bureaus, and reports on cases of miners and miners' rights.

He also presents his views to the Senate, House, and other appropriate committees and bureaus, and reports on cases of miners and miners' rights.

He also presents his views to the Senate, House, and other appropriate committees and bureaus, and reports on cases of miners and miners' rights.

He also presents his views to the Senate, House, and other appropriate committees and bureaus, and reports on cases of miners and miners' rights.

He also presents his views to the Senate, House, and other appropriate committees and bureaus, and reports on cases of miners and miners' rights.

He also presents his views to the Senate, House, and other appropriate committees and bureaus, and reports on cases of miners and miners' rights.

He also presents his views to the Senate, House, and other appropriate committees and bureaus, and reports on cases of miners and miners' rights.

He also presents his views to the Senate, House, and other appropriate committees and bureaus, and reports on cases of miners and miners' rights.

He also presents his views to the Senate, House, and other appropriate committees and bureaus, and reports on cases of miners and miners' rights.

He also presents his views to the Senate, House, and other appropriate committees and bureaus, and reports on cases of miners and miners' rights.

He also presents his views to the Senate, House, and other appropriate committees and bureaus, and reports on cases of miners and miners' rights.

He also presents his views to the Senate, House, and other appropriate committees and bureaus, and reports on cases of miners and miners' rights