

CORPORAL TANNER REBUKES STERRETT

Influential Veteran Says Salt
Lake's Reception Was a Huge Success.

COMES IN LETTER TO SQUIRES

Declares Incident to Have Been Unfortunate, For no Object Whatever Was to be Served.

A sharp rebuke to Col. F. M. Sterrett, executive director of the forty-third G. A. R. encampment recently held in this city, for his vicious aspersions on the members of the executive committee of the encampment, is contained in a letter from "Corporal" James Tanner, addressed to his friend Col. Geo. R. Squires of this city. "Corporal" Tanner and Col. Squires worked together in pulling the encampment to Salt Lake, and Mr. Tanner, who is a past commander-in-chief of the G. A. R., had considerable regard for the success of the encampment. He is perhaps the most influential man in the organization, and his opinion counts for a great deal. An extract from the letter from "Corporal" Tanner to Col. Squires says:

"I received from someone this morning, possibly from Salt Lake of Saturday, Aug. 28, I am quite surprised. Granting that all be true, as Sterrett says, what object was to be served when the thing was all over and he was just leaving the city, by talking this out and raising such a storm? I do not care what troubles they had in the committee, but I do know, and you can quote me if occasion offers as saying, that the consensus of opinion of the Grand Army was that Salt Lake emphatically made good on the promises you made at Toledo. I am egotistical enough to believe, and I think that he had not been for the right I made at Toledo, Salt Lake would not have had the encampment, and I went to Salt Lake feeling that I had considerable at stake, personally in my circle, hanging upon how Salt Lake measured up. I came away prepared to say that having had a heavy hand in putting the encampment out there, I came home perfectly satisfied and glad that I had done as I did.

"Sterrett was very kind in looking out for me and my daughters, and I am sorry that he ended his sojourn there with the flareback.

"I was very much touched with one little thing which occurred on the reviewing stand. Fisher Harris, with his voice all gone—he could barely whisper audibly—leaned over and whispered to me as the column was passing: 'Sixty-two of my family, Mr. Tanner, went to death in confederate graves, but I have done the best I could for you on this occasion.'

"There's a soul I'd like to know better."

A SPRAINED ANKLE.
As usually treated a sprained ankle will disable the injured person for a month or more, but by applying Chamberlain's Liniment and observing the directions with each bottle faithfully, a cure may, in most cases, be effected in less than one week's time. This liniment is a most remarkable preparation; try it for a strain or a bruise, or when laid up with chronic rheumatism, and you are certain to be delighted with the prompt relief which it affords. For sale by all druggists.

The Central Coal & Coke company have made no change in the price of Rock Springs coal, and are still selling it at $5.75 per ton.

Act Quickly

Delay Has Been Dangerous In Utah.

Do the right thing at the right time.
Act quickly in times of danger.
Backache is kidney danger.
Doan's Kidney Pills act quickly.
Cure all distressing, dangerous kidney ills.

Plenty of evidence to prove this.
Benjamin Midgley, 522 South Second West St., Salt Lake City, Utah, says: "I have been afflicted with Doan's Kidney Pills in July, 1898. I have taken them occasionally with good results. Although I have no special need to do so, I gladly recommend Doan's Kidney Pills again and willingly allow the continued publication of my testimonial. For three or four years I suffered from acute pain through my back and kidneys. I tried one remedy after another but without the least benefit and at times it was all I could do to remain at my work. There was a retention of the kidney secretions and I am certain that this was the principal cause of my suffering. I was finally led to get Doan's Kidney Pills at P. J. Hill & Co's drug store and commence their use. I took in all the contents of four boxes and by that time every symptom of kidney complaint had been driven from my system."

HAZING RESULTS IN QUICK ACTION

Two Firemen Quit Service Under Pressure Following Childish Proceedings.

ASSAULT YOUNG REPORTER.

While a Bystander During "Water Cure" of Fireman Williams, He Is Seized and Roughly Handled.

A hazing affair in fire department headquarters about 2 o'clock Wednesday morning, which developed into an outrageous and unwarranted attack upon Gordon Snow, a newspaper man, and in which four firemen were involved, resulted this morning in the summary dismissal of Daniel Kieth from the service, and it is expected that Carl Odenwalder will follow him before evening.

Kieth, Odenwalder, Thomas Owen and Victor Day were the principals in the attack upon Mr. Snow, in which he was roughly handled. In the case of Owen and Day, after an investigation, Assistant Fire Chief Fitzgerald is of the belief that they were more or less innocently drawn into the affair, and no action will be taken in regard to them until the return of Chief Oden from the east.

Following a long established custom at headquarters the new members of the department are "initiated," the usual ceremony being "a dip in the tub." This is usually an innocent sport without any chance of injury to the victim, and two men had been given the plunge, when it was decided "to go after" Frank Williams, who was asleep in bed.

Knowing the animosity of Kieth and Odenwalder towards Williams one man advised him of the plan, and Williams hurriedly sought the protection of the police station.

ATTACK YOUNG SNOW.
When the men caught him, however, Snow, who was on duty at headquarters, followed them into the fire house. When they had got through with Williams, Snow was set upon, and after being violently thrown to the floor and in a badly bruised condition, he was almost stripped of his clothing, a powerful stream of water was turned upon him, and he was in a half-strangled condition when allowed to arise. The firemen then repeated the attack, when the reporter assured them that he would tell of the occurrence.

When Asst. Chief Fitzgerald became aware of the occurrence and found Snow, the latter was chilled through and in a badly bruised condition. He was taken into the assistant chief's apartments and given dry clothing and cared for.

This morning Kieth went to Asst. Chief Fitzgerald with an apology which was promptly refused. His statement to Capt. Elken that he "would quit" was as promptly answered with "You can, and right now." Odenwalder's resignation is expected this afternoon. Asst. Chief Fitzgerald was emphatic in his condemnation of the men's actions.

"It is all right to have fun, but such proceedings as this are intolerable for one single instant, no matter who the man implicated are. So far as it lies in my power I will see that it is stopped, too."

Williams, who resigned from the service yesterday because of the attack made upon him, in which he, too, was roughly used, returned to his duties this morning.

COURT NEWS

ONE GRANTED; ONE SOUT.

Samuel B. Finley, a railroad man, was granted a divorce from his wife, Grace R. Finley, yesterday, by Judge Moore. When Finley was married in July, 1908, his wife refused to come here with him, and has refused to live with him several times since then. They were married in Los Angeles on June 27, 1907.

In a complaint alleging desertion, Mrs. Belle Leach asked for a divorce, yesterday, from Charles W. Leach. They were married in Ottawa, Kan., on Nov. 28, 1898, and in January, 1898, he left her and their child, Lora, 11 years old. Mrs. Leach wants the custody of her daughter.

LOLA CRUSE EXAMINED.

Lola Cruse, a pretty scold, who twice attempted suicide when the man she ran away with deserted her here, is on her way back to her home in Denver. She was arraigned yesterday afternoon before the lunacy commission on the charge of insanity. A thorough examination of her case was made, and the physicians believe that the desertion of the girl by her lover was responsible for her mental condition. Her husband in Denver agreed to take her back and sent the money for her transportation. She is 22 years old.

ALL OVER A DIME.

Because Miss Minnie Thompson of Ogden failed to send 19 cents in stamps to cover postage, Nels Olsen, proprietor of the Central Loan office, refused to forward a diamond stud, valued at $100, which Miss Thompson had pawned in his shop. As a result Miss Thompson filed suit yesterday in the city court, in which she seeks to recover the jewel and 22 damages, the amount she pawned the diamond stud for.

BUFFALO VERNON ARRESTED.

"Buffalo" Vernon, who was one of the riders in the wild west show given here on the fair grounds by J. C. Leary during the G. A. R. encampment, was arrested yesterday on a charge of petit larceny. He is accused by J. Hall, a negro employed at the Calver barber shop, of having stolen $25 from him.

LAND COMPANY ANSWERS.

Suit Against Them Replied to With Counter Charges.

In the answer filed in the district court to the suit of Porter Fitzgerald and the Farmers' Loan and Trust company, the Irrigated Lands company charges that the land turned over to the company by the Fitzgeralds was encumbered, and that the assets of the company were sold and had to be abandoned. For this reason the Irrigated Lands company found it necessary to borrow money to carry on the work of their project in Millard county. It is intimated in the answer that charges of perjury will be made against the Fitzgeralds for making false representations. It is asked that the request for a receiver made by the Fitzgerald brothers be denied, and that their suit be dismissed.

Fitzgerald brothers brought their suit intimating that the directors of the Irrigated Lands company and the Spalding-Livingston Investment company, which was organized to handle part of the affairs of the former company, had made an effort to wreck the Irrigated Lands company and secure the assets. The plaintiffs owned an interest in the company having transferred a tract of land and a canal system to the company for a certain money stock.

TURNING TO THE WEST.

Investors no Longer Drawn Toward The Eastern States.

As the result of the investigation of western conditions during the past summer by a representative of the Interstate Investment Association, James R. Waldo reached Salt Lake City last night for the purpose of securing an agent for the company in Salt Lake City, as well as Ogden, Provo and some of the other cities of the state. Taylor Bros., a Main street real estate firm, will represent the association in this city. Agents have also been chosen in Ogden and in some parts of Wyoming and Colorado. Mr. Waldo said this morning in explanation of the present move of the association that it is due to the crop failures in Oklahoma, Texas and New Mexico, which makes it almost impossible to sell land in the southwest at the present time. On the other hand, Utah, Idaho and other western states are favorably spoken of in the east, and it is no trouble to get people to come west under present conditions. The local agents will co-operate with the head office at Mason City, Ia., in handling the homeseekers that will be sent out this winter and the succeeding spring. The association has handled a number of excursion trains to the southwest in the past and expects to run some to Utah and Idaho points this winter.

BURNS PROVE FATAL.

Mrs. Edwin Harman Dies as Result
Of Accident Last Month.

Mrs. Edwin Harman, aged 61 years, died at her home, 266 West First North street, last evening at 7:15, as the result of burns received about her body Aug. 25.

Mrs. Harman, at the time of the accident, had been burning rubbish in the yard at the rear of her home, and while standing with her back to the fire her clothing became ignited. Before she fully realized her danger, she was enveloped in flames and her limbs as well as her hands and arms were badly burned and blistered. In her fright and pain she ran to a neighbor's, Mrs. W. C. Harroun, where the latter's daughter succeeded in extinguishing the blazing dress.

Dr. Beer attended the unfortunate woman, who in spite of all care continually weakened until her death. She is survived by a husband and one son.

TRAINING SCHOOL.

The teachers and school work committee of the board of education met last night with President J. T. Kingsbury of the University of Utah, Prof. W. M. Stewart of the State Normal school, and Prof. J. E. McKnight of the state law school, to discuss the provisions of the law establishing the training school. The details as to its relation with other schools were also settled. It is believed that the addition to the training school will appeal strongly to the parents. The board of education will make an effort to supply the children for the training school work, which, it is believed, will be of superior advantage.

GROWING ALL THE TIME.

That the Manufacturers' association continues to grow in popularity is evidenced by the fact that the membership now numbers 90 manufacturers. The last to join are the Craigie Wire & Iron works, the Ogden Overalls and Shirt factory, George A. Whitaker, cigar manufacturer, and Mark Reddell the tailor. These members were received this morning, and they will shortly be followed by a number of others, including several Ogden manufacturers. Secretary Collett says the list will stand at 100 before Sept. 15.

FALLS IN FIT IN COURT.

Nels Olsen's Case Attracts Sympathy
When On Trial.

Just after pleading guilty to having been drunk, and receiving a sentence of 15 days, Nels Olsen, O. S. L. employee, fell in a fit to the court room floor and had to be carried back to the jail. The case of Olsen attracted the sympathy of the courtroom, since it also served to give another sample of the peculiar whims of justice seen in that court room. Olsen was first charged with vagrancy, and he pleaded not guilty, protesting that he was a laboring man. He said he would plead guilty to having been drunk, but this didn't satisfy either Prosecutor Rogers or Judge Bowman, who set the man's hearing ahead two weeks. When he insisted upon an immediate hearing he was given 15 days' sentence.

WESTERN PACIFIC OUTLOOK.

S. V. Derrah, assistant general freight agent of the Denver & Rio Grande and general passenger agent for the Western Pacific, today said that the Western Pacific was now within 12 miles of Winnemucca. "Construction was temporarily suspended on account of the storms," said Mr. Derrah, "but the rails can be laid into Winnemucca within 10 days. The other gaps west of that point are being closed up, steel is being rushed to the front, and all possible speed will be made in completing the road. Just where the last spike will be driven I cannot say; it will not be very long."

SPIKE AND RAIL.

Host Sherman, a well known railroad man, is in this city and, for the last three years at Washington, where he has been engaged as executor of the will of the late Gen. W. T. Sherman, of civil war fame, will, it is rumored, return to Salt Lake to reside. Mr. Sherman is general agent of the Colorado & Southern railroad, and is also connected with the Wilson-Sherman Insurance company.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Union Pacific and the Oregon Short Line railroads will be held at the office of Vice President W. H. Bancroft on Oct. 9 next.

H. H. Plunhof, chief clerk in the office of General Manager J. M. Davis of the Oregon Short Line, is back at his desk after a few days' confinement with an attack of grippe.

Col. I. A. Benton, general agent of the passenger department of the Denver & Rio Grande in this city, is ill at his home today.

GLASS PLANT OUTLOOK

Secretary D. F. Collett of the Manufacturers' Association answered the questions of William Halley of Wheeling, Penn., this morning regarding the establishment of a glass factory in Salt Lake City. In his letter Mr. Collett says that there is abundance of the best silica, 98 per cent pure, lying close to the mill and north of the city, which has the high price of fuel, one of the other essentials of the glass business, is liable to prove a barrier. At Kansas City it is said coal only costs $1.40 per ton, while here it costs $2.50. The market for window glass is said to be insufficient to support a glass factory here, though there is a good market for bottles and fruit jars.
