

REORGANIZATION OF THE OLD LEAGUE

That is Being Talked of in Butte, Boise and Spokane.

PROSPECTS FOR 1906 SEASON.

William Cody of Boise is Planning to Get Hold of the Butte Franchise.

The Butte News says: Now that the Pacific National League is dead, the talk of the old-time Pacific National League is being revived.

William Cody of Boise is planning to get hold of the Butte franchise in the proposed reorganized league of 1906.

The spokesman-review says: "Cody figures on the old northwest league again with Seattle, Tacoma, Portland and Spokane, while Salt Lake and Boise will make up the rest of the circuit."

It is bound to win. Cody feels sure the old circuit will be adopted next season.

From indications the sound cities and Portland are tired of the results in the east organization and realize that the old circuit is not only the one in which there is more natural rivalry, but also one in which the clubs can make the most money.
