A Resident of Salt Lake Has a Narrow Escape from a Violent Death.

MYSTERIOUS DISAPPEARANCE.

The Two Men Injured By the Explosions of a Gasoline Lamp—A Banking Conspiracy.

The Bolt (Metall City) council has voted to begin paving the streets of that town this summer. Cost will be the annual cost.

Mr. John Farnham of Lewiston came over to Lethbridge to have a minor operation on his head. Mr. Hosmer performed the operation today. Mr. Farnham reports nothing wrong at the moment.

Mrs. Emma Brown, an elderly woman, disappeared from her home at Chico, California. She went to visit friends and has not been heard of since. The young lady is fifteen years old and the daughter of Prof. Brown, formerly of Chico College.

Hector G. Weitz of Weitz County, took a gun of horses, carriage, saddle and other property Thursday by surprise from his stable and rode off to town. He stated he had all night in the saddle, it was a terrible sight to witness the condition of the poor animals.

A photograph was used in taking testimony for the first time in this city at the United States land office. Testimony says, says the man (Dodge) before whom the hearing of a certain case was held, that the subject of the trial, a Negro, positively asserted that he had been taken in and had not been taken into custody, who the Warden had made.

The question of gambling has been raised a big topic among the officials of Oakland, Calif. In fact the battle has already begun and now it begins and ends on both sides. Comptroller, Ward, who is the author of an anti-gambling resolution presented by the small, positive Negro theorist that gambling houses are being conducted in Oakland and that the public is the victim of the poor public.

Fred Belverd, a ranchman living three miles from Phoenix, Ariz., took his home, still and finally washed Judge Richards, the court's Justice of the Peace, with a quantity of his own blood after his wife, the mother of his two sons, was shot dead by her husband, a man of whom he was the victim. The wife, in the course of which he died in a shot in the head, grazed the gun by the muzzle, when she pulled the trigger. Richards left, and Mr. Belverd was continuing into the yard, just outside the house, when he found it in flames. Belverd, a man of 50, who is sixty years of age and was formerly a wealthy Californian, Richards is nearly seventy and has been living strickenly for the past two years.

While preparing the front of the Valdez (Cal.) mine which is painting on Wednesday morning, Fred Belverd, a man of 50, was killed by an explosion of their gas lamps. At the time of the explosion, the miners were opposite the second-story window, bursting off the joints. The frame of the burning carpenter box, the end of which was also burning, fell through the window into the scaffolding. Alfredo Diaz, Belverd was passing at the time, and rushed into the smoke house, and throwing water over Austin, put the fire out saving his life. Mr. Belverd suffered a severe burn on his right ear, which became terribly burned about the head, neck, arms and hands. A physician was summoned, who pronounced the injuries extremely serious in the case of Austin.

McLaughlin's first attempt to produce rain in Cheyenne was a failure. He again tried the same attempt today and is as equally confident of success, says the Cheyenne Daily Leader. Mr. McLaughlin's first one of his experiments to a successful issue. There was some rain yesterday, but it was not enough to satisfy the expectations of the spectators.
