Geo. W. Thatcher, Superintendent.

BY TELEGRAPH. Jones, of Nevada, introduced his long talked of silver bill, to-day, and had it referred to the finance committee.

WASHINGTON, 22.—The House as a regular order of business, proceeded to the consideration of the Colorado case. After numerous debates the matter went over without action.

EASTERN. WASHINGTON, 22.—Cox, of New York, will shortly introduce a bill abolishing the coinage of twenty-cent pieces.

Senator Mitchell, to-day, introduced a bill appropriating $300,000 for continuing the construction of the Columbia River canal and locks and cascade.

Another Forger Detected. ALBANY, 22.—William S. Taylor, produce commission merchant of this city, has been detected in a series of forgeries.

Working Under Protest. PITTSBURGH, PA., 22.—The employees of seven of the largest firms resumed here, at an advance of ten per cent, have been notified of a reduction in wages of this amount.

PHILADELPHIA, 22.—John S. Morton, late president of the Market Street Passenger Railway Co., was today in court, charged with perjury, in swearing falsely to the annual reports of his company.

CHICAGO, 22.—The Times' Washington special says the action of the Senate committee, while it cannot be said to tally one for Kellogg, is undoubtedly in his favor, as he can, under Kellogg's resolution, refer to documents which Spofford does not recognize as availing anything, and the force of which he does not discuss.

Butler, to-day, complimented Clerk Adams highly, saying that he thought he had noticed a very peculiar way in disposing of all the resolutions in the Colorado case as Adams did.
