

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

CORRESPONDENTS writing for publication are requested to write on one side of the paper only. No notice can be taken of anonymous communications. Correspondents' names must be given in full, and not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of reliability.

RETURNED.—President Brigham Young and company returned to the city yesterday evening from Provo, having started about 6 o'clock in the morning. They enjoyed good times at the meetings on Saturday and Sunday; and a meeting was held on Monday, for the election of officers for the Co-operative Society there, at which an excellent spirit prevailed. On Monday night there was a party given, where all enjoyed themselves exceedingly.

HARD.—We have heard of "unbounded stomachs," "persons who eat it all" and others who "left nothing," but never knew as tough an individual as the one who after calling for two dozen fried oysters, three steaks and one raw, at the Delmonico, yesterday, wound up his bill of fare by calling for a four pound flat-iron. We have heard the doctrine advanced that oysters were indigestible, but judging from what we know of natural philosophy, would say that oysters would be much lighter on the human stomach than flat-irons or any other post-iron ingredients.

POLICE.—William Botts, a soldier, was fined $10 this morning for being drunk.

COMMITTED.—Our Echo special informs us that Justice Livingston has committed the gardners referred to yesterday, in $600 each, to appear at the next regular term of the County Court. As they did not possess the requisite "stamps" and their friends objected to furnishing the necessary bonds, they had to be locked up.

Two prisoners had escaped from the charge of the Summit County Sheriff.

PROBATE COURT.—The Probate Court was in session this morning in the Court House. The names of the petit jury were called, but owing to the absence of witnesses in the case before the court, his Honor Judge Smith adjourned till this afternoon.

DOWN WITH THEM.—Messrs. A. C. Pyper & Co. state that they made a very material reduction in the price of their goods this morning. While crushed sugar which they were selling at forty cents per lb, they now offer at three for a dollar. Other articles have met a proportionate reduction. We will be pleased to chronicle similar action on the part of other of our leading merchants if they will post us.

FROM ENGLAND.—By letter from Elder R. E. Egan, to his father, written from Birmingham, England, we learn that the work is progressing in that part of Britain; and the Saints are striving in their poverty to aid in delivering themselves from that land. But they look with longing eyes towards their friends in this land, for assistance. We are pleased to learn that bro. Egan is so blessed in his labors.

CALLED.—Mr. E. Woodruff, of the firm of Bowen, Whitman & Winslow, wholesale dealers in dry goods, Chicago, called upon us this morning. Mr. Woodruff has been in our city several days promoting the interests of his firm among our business men. He has met with a gratifying measure of success, and expresses himself highly pleased with his visit to Salt Lake City. He will probably leave for Chicago on Friday morning.

FAIRVIEW.—Brother Andrew Petersen, writing from Fairview, says that good health is prevailing in that settlement; and though they only succeeded last season in raising about one-fourth of the breadstuffs which they need, through the ravages of the grasshoppers, they will get along pretty well, as most of the male members of the settlement sought employment on the railroad. There is considerable snow in that part of Saipete.

A TALL PRICE.—A gentleman of reliability informs us that this morning he stepped into the store of a provision dealer and inquired the price of peas. Sixty cents a quart (1) was the reply; and as there are thirty two quarts in a bushel the price was only $19.20 per bushel. Seeing that peas have not reached $20 a bushel all through the Fall and the Winter thus far, the price asked ought to be enough to satisfy the most exacting on the score of high figures. The people will pay such individuals, before they get through, with the cold shoulder and cut them severely. Twenty-five cents a quart would give a hundred per cent. profit; but six hundred per cent is a more attractive figure to some folks. Ask what peas are selling at.

Died:

At Brigham City, Feb. 24, 1899, Dr. Simeon Carter aged 72.
Deceased was born at Killingworth, Middlesex Co., Connecticut, on the 7th of June 1826. He embraced the gospel in 1851, in Ohio, Feb. 23, 1831. He was one among the first men who were ordained High Priests in this dispensation, and was among the twenty-four who were present at Joseph's death. He was one of the first High Priests in the city of Independence, Jackson County, Missouri, and was also connected with "Zion's Camp" in 1833. He labored faithfully performing various important missions in the States. On the 7th of May, 1838, he left the City of Nauvoo to go on a mission to Great Britain, from whence he returned and arrived in Salt Lake Valley, in the Autumn of 1840, being among the first who settled in Brigham City. Entertained and burdened with age he reclined to rest in full faith and anticipation of a glorious resurrection. He was interred on the 4th inst. and attended by a very large procession of the citizens of Brigham City.

In New Harmony, Washington Co., January 25, 1899, of consumption, Omer R. Wood, (Lamante) supposed to be about 21 years old. He was purchased from captivity in 1853, by Dr. Z. H. Baxter, of Nephi City, by whom he was given to the undersigned, in whose family he remained until his death. His name upon the Southern Utah mission in 1853, did military duty assisting in carrying out the orders of Brig. General Erasmus Snow to build forts upon the frontier in 1854, and was much respected by all who knew him.

JOSEPH HETWOOD

At Bountiful, Davis Co., Feb. 24, 1899, of jaundice and protracted labor, Sarah Lucetta, wife of Judson Tolman, and daughter of Joseph and Nancy Holbrook. The deceased was born at North Weath-rfield, Genesee Co., New York, January 21st, 1832, being thirty-seven years and two weeks old at her death.

She shared in the sufferings of the Saints both in Missouri and Illinois, and was with them, at the age of nine years, when she was left motherless.

In the year 1846, at Nauvoo, she was married to Judson Tolman, unto whom she has borne six sons and eight daughters, ten of whom surrounded her dying couch and now survive her, while the last living son, three boys, now sleeps by her side.

Her death spreads a gloom over the ward, as she was much esteemed by a large circle of friends and acquaintances, who knew her as a loving wife, an affectionate mother, and a faithful saint.
