Local and Other Matters.

THERMOMETER 92 degrees F. in the shade at 1 p.m. to-day. Fine.

Vases.—Eardley, Croxall & Cartwright are manufacturing very handsome garden vases, specimens of which are in the Ladies' Fair.

Base Ball.—All base ball players are requested to meet on the 8th Ward Square on Saturday evening, July 29th, for practice.
DESERET B. B. CLUB.

Dull.—Yesterday was one of the dullest days of the season for business in the City, and to-day has not been much of an improvement on it in that regard.

Dumped his Load.—This morning a load of hay, being top heavy, tipped over on the street, opposite this office, a part of it over the street railroad track, to the great annoyance of the teamster.

Lost.—To-day a poor man lost, between the Eagle Emporium corner and the 20th Ward, a small leathern purse, containing a few dollars in currency, his whole stock of money. The finder will do a good action by leaving the same at this office for him.

Killing.—Last evening Rora Macdonald, who shot and killed John Metz, at Bingham, a day or two since, was brought to town and placed in the county jail, to await the action of the grand jury. He waived an examination before the Bingham magistrates, and was committed.

Correction.—Our Ogden correspondent sends the following—

"In your issue of the 26th inst., in the report of the celebration of the 24th at Ogden, it reads 'The orator of the day Hon. F. S. Richards then delivered an eloquent oration, &c.' This is an error; it should read 'Hon. F. D. Richards then delivered an eloquent oration.'

Creditable.—We have been shown a number of specimens of floss and sewing silk, the latter died in a variety of brilliant colors. They were produced by Mrs. Dunyon, who is skillful as a raiser, spinner and manufacturer of silk. The specimens were placed in the Ladies' Territorial Centennial Fair for exhibition.

The "Instructor."—Before us we have number fourteen of the present issuing volume of the Juvenile Instructor. The mission of this bright, truthful, well-conducted paper is one of the noblest, the instruction of the young in moral, religious, historical and scientific truth, and it performs its office well. It should be a regular visitor in the families of the Latter-day Saints.

File on Your Lots.—We are informed that many of those for whose benefit the time for filing on their lots within the entry of the Mayor of Salt Lake City was extended, are still delinquent, and unless immediate steps are taken such parties may be deprived of their title to their lots, as the time extended for that purpose expires on the 18th day of August next.

A Debasing Habit.—Those who should know assert that a debasing habit that prevails to a considerable extent in the "old country" is gaining ground in this City. We refer to the practice of men and their wives frequenting beer cellars and drinking and carousing together. People who have any self-respect remaining in them will not frequent such low, debasing haunts, or follow such demeaning pursuits.

Fire Alarm.—Last night a fire broke out in the woodwork factory of Messrs. Latimer, Taylor & Co., and the alarm bells commenced to ring at ten o'clock, bringing the fire brigade and apparatus promptly out, but fortunately their services were not required, the flames having been, in the meantime, extinguished before much damage was done.

Home Manufacture.—Home productions are gradually and steadily, although it may be almost imperceptibly, gaining ground. While in Z. C. M. I. store the other day we noticed a few of the articles of local production that are on sale there, among them being boots and shoes, leather trunks, wooden trunks, corsets, artificial flowers, Swiss and other kinds of cheese, silk thread and floss silk, cloth and ready made clothing, soap, essence of Jamaica ginger, crackers, ink, &c.

An Important Suit.—Yesterday, in the First District Court, at Provo, Judge Emerson presiding, a decision was rendered in the suit of Joab Lawrence against the Eureka Mining Company, the plaintiff receiving a decree for the full amount claimed, over $80,600.

In their answer the defendants set up the same charges of fraud against Captain Lawrence, upon which he was arrested about three years ago, at the instance of Mr. Ward, of Michigan, the criminal prosecution on which was withdrawn. Captain Lawrence has at last been enabled to prove that those charges against the integrity of his character were unfounded and therefore not susceptible of being sustained.

Theatre.—This evening the "Irish Emigrant" will be presented at the Theatre, followed by Vivian's new and original sketches, and the farce of "Nicodemus Nobbs," in which Mr. P. Margetts will appear. Mr. Vivian will also be supported by Miss Imogene Holbrook, Mr. Henry J. Lask, and the regular dramatic company.

To-morrow there will be a grand matinee.

On Saturday evening Mr. Vivian will appear as "Captain Hautree" in Robertson's drama of "Caste," Miss Imogene Holbrook will read a centennial poem, Mr. Vivian will give his clever character sketches, and Mr. Graham will appear as "Marmaduke Mouser," in the farce of "Betsy Baker."

Death of Sidney Rigdon.—The name of Sidney Rigdon is one familiar to the Latter-day Saints as being intimately interwoven with the history of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in this dispensation.

In the Friendship, Alleghany county, New York, Register, we have before us a notice of his death, at the village of Friendship, on Friday, July 14, where he had resided uninterruptedly from the year 1847 until his demise. He was born in Alleghany county, Pa., in 1793, and consequently was about 83 years of age at his death. The paper named states that numerous pilgrimages had been made to him from different parts by various persons desirous of obtaining further information from him relative to the origin of the Book of Mormon, but he unwaveringly adhered to his original theory on this matter, being the same as that held to by the "Mormons," and he treated with great scorn and contempt the statements of parties imputing the authorship of that work to himself.

Co-operative Tannery.—We learn from Bishop L. D. Young, just returned from a visit to Tooele, that a co-operative tannery has been established and is in operation a short distance this side of that city.

Our Country Contemporaries.

A daughter of Mr. Anderson, of Logan, was thrown out of a wagon a few days ago, and one of the wheels passed over her face, breaking her jaw.

Franklin D., son of C. C. Rich, of Paris, while working at the shingle mill, mouth of Paris Cañon, had his left arm caught by the band, and badly injured. He is expected soon to be convalescent.

Alma Parker, of Liberty, Beaver Lake Valley, was thrown from a horse, June 17. He struck on his head, and was picked up insensible, remaining so till 4 o'clock next morning. After that he rapidly recovered.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, 28.—It was agreed that when the Senate adjourn today it will be till Monday next as a mark of respect to the memory of the late Senator Caperton of West Virginia, whose funeral takes place to-day; also to resume the impeachment trial on Monday at noon.

Ingalls, from the committee on pensions reported, with amendments, the House bill granting a pension to the widow of the late General Custer and to his father and mother; placed on the calendar.

The appropriation for the expenses of the commissioners to inquire into the Chinese immigration passed.

Frelinghuysen, from the conference committee on the consular and diplomatic appropriation bill, reported that the committee had been unable to agree, and moved that the Senate further insist upon its amendments, and agree to a further conference.

Hamlin said there had already been three conference committees on this bill, and why should this bill, time after time, go to a conference committee headed by two men who might be denominated the Titus Oates and Wm. Bedlowe of to-day. He did not see why the Senate should not adhere to its amendments, and let this enmity die the death of the unrighteous, and then let the House understand what the Senate would do if the till came back from another conference. He gave notice that he would make a motion that the Senate adhere to its amendments.

After a long debate, a new conference was agreed to.

The river and harbor appropriation bill was then taken up and recommitted to the committee on appropriations, with instructions to report a bill so that the total amount appropriated shall not exceed $5,000,000.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, 28.—Discussion was continued till two o'clock, when the vote taken on the resolution reported by the minority, that Goode, the sitting member, was entitled to his seat, was adopted.

THE TWENTY-FOURTH IN THE COUNTRY.

WELLSVILLE.

WELLSVILLE, July 26, 1876.

Editor Deseret News:

Languid and weary the 24th has left us, after spending a good time. At "sunup," on the morning of "Pioneers'" day, the stars and stripes were unfurled to the morning breeze, and the citizens transported by the strains of the brass band, from the realms of dreamland to the stern realities of everyday life. Our procession was not a success, but the elements were to blame, not our lack of enthusiasm.

At the appointed time, 10 a.m., our meeting house was crowded to excess, to listen to the proceedings. After prayer by the chaplain, Bro. Robert Baxter, and music by the band and choir, the orator of the day, Father Timothy Parkinson, recited the trials and persecutions of the Saints in entering these valleys. The time was pleasantly spent by the people with short speeches, songs, toasts, &c. We were very much pleased to have the pleasure of listening to a short speech from Bishop Wm. H. Maughan, who has just arrived home after fourteen months mission in the "old country."

The afternoon proved a source of pleasure to old and young, all congregating on the public square and joining in the rustic sports, till pleasant laughter re-echoed again and again.

In the evening Terpsichore was patronized extensively, until it was proved that the "flesh was weak, but the spirit willing," and, weary and fatigued with the pleasure and toil of the day, all retired to loll in the arms of recruiting "Morpheus," the revivifying king of sleep, well pleased with the advent and departure of another 24th of July.

The crops look well in this region of country, although some of the heavy grain has suffered considerably through wind and rain storms, but, everything taken into consideration, a splendid harvest is prognosticated.

A Young Men's Mutual Improvement Association has been inaugurated in this place by Bro's Morris Young and M. H. Hardy. Steps are being taken to put it in working order, by the officers appointed.
Yours respectfully,
W. K. R.

NEWTON.

NEWTON, Cache County,
July 25, 1876.

Our celebration of the 24th of July passed off very pleasantly, the usual routine being observed, to wit: firing salutes at daybreak, flagraising at sun-rise, citizens meeting at ten o'clock in school-house, &c. Order of programme as follows—singing by choir, prayer by Chaplain John Griffin, singing by choir and oration by Bishop Littlewood, which was very spirited and interesting, reviewing the history of past events of the exodus of Latter-day Saints from their homes in the east and their arrival in Salt Lake Valley in 1847, contrasting the past with the present in a manner that was very edifying and instructive to all present. Speeches by Wm. H. Griffin, A. P. Welchman and Sister Parsons, were given, the latter an address to the young ladies, exhorting them to be simple and neat in their dress and living, and above all to be kind to mother and obedient to parents.

In the afternoon sports and amusements of various kinds were engaged in by all who felt so disposed.

About 3.30 o'clock, we formed a procession of Sunday School scholars and marched through the principal streets of Newton to the school-house, after which about 105 of our juveniles sat down to tables prepared by the committee, and partook of refreshments provided by parents, after which a few pounds of candy were distributed among them. This caused the little fellows to feel happy and glad and will be a means of impressing on their minds the purpose and objects of celebrating the 24th of July.

At 8 o'clock in the evening the choir gave an entertainment, consisting of songs, recitations, dialogues, &c., which reflected well on the leader and his assistants of our choir.

No drunkenness, profanity, or other improper conduct was indulged in by any one throughout the whole proceedings, and at the close of the entertainment all retired in peace.

Officers of the day—Marshal, J. N. Beck; Chaplain, J. Griffin; Orator, Wm. F. Littlewood. Committee of Arrangements—A. C. Clark, A. P. Welchman, Jos. Wilson, Elizabeth Griffin, Mary Larsen. JONAS N. BECK.

OBITUARY.

Elder LEVI JACKMAN, son of Moses French Jackman and Elizabeth Carr, was born in Vershire, Orange Co., Vermont, July 28th, 1797. In 1810 the family moved to Batavia, N. Y., and in 1830 removed to Portage, Co., Ohio. In 1831 Pres. Joseph Smith visited that place and brought with him the Book of Mormon, testified of its truth and of the great latter-day work, and after a careful investigation of the doctrine advanced by Joseph he was baptized by Elder Harvey Whitlock, on the 4th of May, 1831. In a few days thereafter was ordained an Elder under the hands of Oliver Cowdery, and in November following was ordained a High Priest. In May, 1832, with about one hundred persons, he started for Missouri and arrived at Independence, Jackson Co., Aug. 14th, of the same year. He suffered with the Saints the persecutions inflicted by their enemies and was one of the number that was compelled to surrender their arms to the relentless mob, and moved with them to Clay Co.

In 1834 President Joseph Smith organized a stake in that county, established a high council and Bro. Jackman was appointed a member of the same. In 1835 the temple was in course of erection at Kirtland and the elders were requested to assist in the work. He, with Elder Caleb Baldwin, left Clay County in May of that year and traveled on foot, without purse or scrip, and arrived at Kirtland, Ohio, on the 26th of July following. On the 28th he commenced to labor on the Temple, and continued to do so until its completion. In 1836 he left Kirtland for Clay Co., Missouri, and in consequence of persecutions was compelled to remove to Far West, Caldwell Co., where he was elected a justice of the peace. By continued persecutions he was constrained to relinquish his farm and with his family left for Illinois, and settled at Commerce, afterwards Nauvoo, Hancock Co. He performed a mission in 1844. He also labored on the Nauvoo Temple, and assisted in constructing wagons for the migration of the Saints to the mountains. He left Nauvoo for Winter Quarters in 1846, and was one of the pioneers of these mountains, arriving with them in Salt Lake Valley, July 24, 1847. He was a member of the first High Council organized in the valley, was for many years a counselor to the late Bishop S. Roundy of the Sixteenth Ward, Salt Lake City, and was afterwards ordained a patriarch. He was a man of integrity, without ostentation, an earnest advocate of the cause of truth, a friend of God and humanity, and died firm in the faith of the gospel, in the hope of a glorious resurrection, at Salem, Utah Co., on Sunday, July 23rd, 1876, aged 78 years, 11 months, and 25 days.

The funeral services were held on the Tuesday following, Elders Z. Coultrin, Stephen Markham, and Lyman Curtis of the pioneers, Elder Daniels and Bishop Davis addressed the assemblage. His remains were followed to the grave by a large concourse of sorrowing friends. Peace to his ashes. M.
