There will be quite a number of Epworth Leaguers from this city and state in attendance at Denver, on the seventh international convention of the Epworth League of the United States and Canada. The headquarters for the delegations from Utah, Idaho, Wyoming and Nevada will be at the St. James Methodist church, corner of Ninth Methodist church, corner of street and West Colfax avenue.

Gov, Cutler and received a commu-nication from Gen. A. C. Bakewell, aide in charge of the military instruction and patriotic education in the schools for G. A. R. of New York, asking that, a proclamation be issued for the observance of flag day on June 14 in this state Arrangements have already been made for the observance of the day in the various schools of the city, but it is more than likely that a proclamation will be issued so that the celebration extend to the schools of the state in general.

Last night's monthly meeting of the executive board of the City Christian union was attended by 30 delegates. Luncheon was served by the ladies of Diffused Concentional church in the Phillips' Congregational church in the vestry of the First Methodist church, and the business session followed, with President Broaddus in the chair and Miss Louise Beng as secretary. A special feature of the evening, was a re-port on the state prison work, which was considered satisfactory, as the membership had increased from 15 on Jan, 1, to 40 on May 1.

ASSOCIATED PRESS BILL

Chapter 106 is the famous "Associated Press Bill" which gained some notori-ety as the only bill claimed to be for the benefit of the party machine, which passed the senate. It was introduced by Senator Lawrence who fought hard by senator Lawrence who rought hard for its passage against the onslaughts of Bamberger, Bennion and Barber. Chapter 114 is the long debated, and finally amended almost to death, bounty measure. It throws additional bulwarks around the county clerks' effices to prevent fraud, and reduces the bounty to a uniform rate of the the bounty to a uniform rate of $1. Chapter 116 represents the hard efforts of Gen. and Senator Sam Park to bring the National Guard regulations The law provides for a reorganization of the militia, and it is hoped will result in a rejuvenation of interest.

NO MORE SPRING SHOOTING.

Chapter 118 is the fish and game law that brought "Uncle" John Sharp into the senate chamber almost every day during the latter half of the session. The bill was framed by Mr. Sharp, and caused one of the heavier fights of the caused one of the heavier fights of the session. Its provisions prohibiting market shooting, and closing the spring hunting season were the most mooted.
