PROVO.

PROVO, UTAH, - - DEC. 18, 1896.

Garden City Notes.

A rather small but appreciative audience attended the concert given by the Schubert Symphony club and Lady quartet at the opera house last evening. Those who were so fortunate to attend congratulated themselves upon having enjoyed one of the finest entertainments given in Provo for many a day. Master Tommy Purcell took the house by storm in his various roles of violinist, vocalist, reciter and whistler.

Mr. Thomas E. McGraw and Miss Winnie Stafford of this city were married last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Deal by Elder Jas. E. Daniels. Many relatives and friends of the young couple were present to wish them a happy future, and the evening was most enjoyably spent. The newly married pair will reside in Park City where Mr. McGraw has accepted a position in Mauben & McGraw's drug store.

John H. Nooker, of Springville, has commenced suit against Susan A. Nooker for divorce on the grounds of desertion, which it is alleged took place July 31st, 1892. The parties have divided their property over seven years ago, and have recognized and acted upon that division since that time. They intermarried in Springville in 1885. Hustis & Booth are attorneys for plaintiff.

A pleasant surprise party was given Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. Warren Beckstead of the First ward, in honor of Mr. Beckstead, who has lately returned from a mission to Alabama. The surprise was arranged by Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Berg and Mrs. George Thastein and many friends beside Mr. Beckstead welcome home under most delightful conditions.

On Saturday Mrs. Robert Mills of Benjamin died after a lingering illness; she was thirty-two years of age and leaves a husband and four children to mourn her loss. Two of the children are now sick from typhoid fever.

Elias Jones, aged 23, and Helga M. Bjornsson, aged 20, both of Spanish Fork, have received a marriage license.

The case of the First National Bank of Provo vs George A. Dusenberry et al has been continued for the term.

Bids Tracked will be at the opera house on Monday, the 21st.

SUMMONS.

In the District Court of the Third Judicial District of the State of Utah, County of Salt Lake.

Alfred Thompson, plaintiff, vs.
Albert Daniel, Defendant.

The State of Utah send Greeting to Albert Daniel, defendant:

YOU ARE HEREBY REQUIRED TO APpear in an action brought against you by the above named plaintiff in the District Court of the Third Judicial District of the State of Utah, and to answer the complaint filed therein, within ten days (exclusive of the day of service) after the service on you of this summons, if served within the county, or, if served out of the county, but in the district, within twenty days; otherwise within forty days—or judgment by default will be taken against you, according to the prayer of said complaint.

The said action is brought to have judgment and foreclosure in favor of the said plaintiff and against the said defendant in the sum of $1,000, with interest at seven per cent per annum from January 1, 1891, said sum, and costs of suit adjudged to be the amount found due, to-wit: January 1, 1896, as per running and settled account, between plaintiff and defendant, and that said sum of money have been paid without a set off.

And you are hereby notified that if you fail to appear and answer the said complaint as above required, the said plaintiff will take judgment as prayed for in the said complaint.
