

REPUBLICANS AT THE THEATER.

One of the Most Interesting Rail-lies of the Campaign. Held Last Evening.

THREE STIRRING SPEECHES.

National and Local Issues Discussed By Hon. George A. Smith, H. E.
Booth and Judge Frick.

One of the most stirring rallies of the campaign, was that held last night in the Salt Lake Theater by the Republicans. There was a large attendance and the speakers were enthusiastically received.

The meeting was called to order by Judge Frick, who acted for the Republicans. He had gone home to change his suit. Mr. Callister made brief reference to local conditions, after which he introduced as chairman Hon. D. N.
Straup, who presided.

The speakers of the evening were Hon. George A. Smith, Hiram E.
Booth and Judge Frick, who discussed national and local issues in a manner both interesting and entertaining. Mr.
Smith confined his remarks principally to the achievements of the Republican party, alleging that prosperity has attended the country under Republican administration.

In his remarks Mr. Booth refuted the charges of the "Americans" that the non-"Americans" had been discriminated against in the matter of state, county and city patronage. He said that the Republican party was the party of the people, and that the opposition was the party of the few. His arraignment of the opposing party brought forth unstinted applause from all present.

Judge Frick made a characteristic speech and paid some attention to candidates on the other ticket. He scored the Democrats for their course, and Frank Cannon for his course, and said that no honorable citizen desirous of the state's welfare would vote to support the "American" movement.

Patriotic selections were rendered by the Roosevelt G. quartet, and while a brass band discoursed stirring selections at frequent intervals.

POWERS AT PROVO.

Democratic Candidate for Congress Warmly Welcomed.

Special Correspondence.

Provo, Nov. 5.—The Opera House was crowded last night to hear Judge Powers, who remained standing during the entire time the judge was talking.
He was listened to with the greatest attention and was frequently applauded, and his sallies of wit and sarcasm were levied at the Republican party with the greatest effect. His scornful arraignment of the campaign that had been waged against him on account of the action he had taken in the Liberal club, and by garbled extracts from his speech in the Smoot investigation, met with intense approval, evidenced by the loudest applause and vociferous cheers of approval, wherever a man was reached.

In spite of some hoarseness caused by having made five or six speeches during the day the judge fully sustained his well established reputation as a campaign speaker. The day had been a very trying one for the judge, starting as he had in Salem, Benjamin, Spanish Fork, Mapleton and Springville before coming to Provo. In every place he was greeted with overflowing hopes and enthusiastic audiences.

Former Mayor Thomas N. Taylor was introduced as the chairman. He referred to the expression of his belief a year ago at the city election that the city, county, state and nation would return to this Democratic party. He had not been wrong in his forecast of the city and he believed he would prove to be right as to the county, state and nation.

Judge Powers, on being introduced expressed any lack of enthusiasm that

Cure for Asthma and Hay Fever.

The statements published below confirm the claim of Dr. Schiffmann that his remedy is an absolute cure for Asthma and Hay Fever.

Mrs. Mary Zachery, Pleasant Hill, La., says: "I have found your Asthma Cure a permanent cure for Asthma, for which I used 17 years ago. I have never had the slightest return of the trouble since. I have also found your remedy excellent in Bronchial affections."

A Hay Fever sufferer writes: "I have had Hay Fever for 14 years. I bought a package of your remedy (Schiffmann's Asthma Cure), of our druggist and due to its use this is the first summer that I have not been troubled." Mrs. Frank Gulliford, 422 Ridge Avenue, Ravenna, Philadelphia.

ple package.

might be apparent in his speech by explaining that he had already spoken at Salem, Benjamin, Spanish Fork, Map-leton and Springville. He referred to the leaflet, issued by the Utah county Republican chairman and made caustic comments on the fairness of printing a few excerpts from testimony given in which he had exceeded pages. He concluded that the hundreds were all that were considered objectionable. In the testimony printed in the circular he had referred to the days of the division on party lines.
Those were peculiar days, when certain men went to Dr. Powers at night as Democrats and awoke in the morning as Republicans, and when he spoke of the sheep and the goats he referred to that kind of men. He further spoke of his testimony before the Smoot investigation committee, which he desired the "Mormon" people to read, and stated that he had gone to the counsel for Senator Smoot and told them what he would testify to and what he would like them to ask him, so that he could tell some things favorable to Utah, which he wanted to tell. Then Judge Powers referred to the testimony given in which he had spoken of the splendid educational status of the state and of the distinction and honor that had come to Utah people by reason of the success of some of her citizens, mentioning Miss Adams, Miss Gates, Miss Toot, Mr.
Culb, and others. He said that he had gone to the senate committee because he was compelled to go, as had President Joseph Smith, and he believed both of them had told the truth as they understood it. He had refused to sign a petition for the expulsion of Senator Smoot, telling the Republicans who wanted him to sign it that it was not a Democratic funeral and if they did not like their senator they could get rid of him in their own way. And when a statement had been brought to him to sign denying the truth of the statement, President Joseph F. Smith had made before the investigating committee, that the Gentlemen of Utah had consented to certain conditions, of which President Smith had testified he had declined doing so, saying that others might truthfully sign such a statement but he could not.

He read further from the circular, claiming that the intention of it was to array the people of Utah against one another on religious lines, the very thing that the Republican party accused the American party of doing, and any man who could do that was an enemy of Utah. He said he was going to Congress to represent all the people regardless of religion or politics, because he would not go as the representative of any faction, and he would refuse to go on a path covered with lies, and therefore had conducted a clean campaign. He referred to the various candidates, state and county, showing them all to be splendid men, except the nominee for Congress, and he did not believe all that was spoken and written against him. The judge caused convolutions of laughter by reading and commenting on a poem on Mr. Cutler, published in Truth.

The speaker refuted the contention of the Republican party that the Democratic party had done nothing for the people, referring to the Louisiana purchase, the Monroe doctrine, and the contest of Andrew Jackson with concentrated wealth.

The remainder of the speech was principally devoted to tariff and the position of the two parties on the question, and to the local condition, brought about by the Republican party.

Splendid vocal selections were given by Miss Pearl Boren, a young lady of only about 16, who is developing a voice of wonderful range and sweetness. Mr. Wilford McAllister and a trio consisting of Messrs. Whitehead, Strong and Knowlton. After the meeting many of the audience went to the Mozart palillion, where a dance and entertainment was given by the Democrats.

REPUBLICAN MEETINGS.

Judge Botkin addressed an open air meeting of Republicans in the courthouse square. He spoke eloquently of the splendid statesmanship of President Roosevelt and predicted his election.

Judge Botkin afterwards addressed a meeting of the Women's Republican club held in the Elks' hall. This meeting was largely attended, and like all of the large meetings of the Woman's club, a big success. S. A. Kenner also spoke at the club meeting, speaking in his usual interesting manner on a variety of political topics.

Vocal and instrumental music was furnished by the Mandolin quartet of Salt Lake.

COBB THANKFUL.

Praises People of Utah for Their Uniform Kindness.

Special Correspondence.

Richfield, Sevier Co., Nov. 4.—The Democrats held a rousing rally in the opera house in this city last night, having for their principal speaker Hon.
Z. L. Cobb of Texas.

The house was filled to overflowing, and the audience was vociferous at times in showing its appreciation of the points made by the speaker during his remarks. The Richfield brass band was in attendance, as also the Monroe Glee club. Mr. Cobb spoke briefly upon the issues of the day and paid a high tribute to Judge Powers, saying he knew him well, and that if sent to Congress he would defend the people's rights man-fully.

Mr. Cobb referred to the splendid treatment he had received at the hands of the people of Utah since coming to the state, and said he wanted to thank all of them, for their kindness towards him. He said he would never lose an opportunity to speak a kind and good word for the citizens of this state. He had found them intelligent and hospitable and knew they were as loyal to their country as the people of his own or any other state. There will be no other state, he said, he would always, when occasion required it, raise his voice in their defense. Mr. Cobb went from here to Mt. Pleasant.

The political situation in Sevier county is somewhat mixed. The fall. The Democrats are hopeful. There will be several of the county officers, feeling quite certain on the attorney, treasurer and sheriff. They also feel that there is some hope for H. N.
Hayes, who is the candidate for district judge against Judge John F. Child.

Later, the present incumbent there will undoubtedly be a lot of independent voting, and party line will be discarded by many of the voters. It is estimated that there will be 200 Socialist votes in the county this fall, and as they have no judicial ticket in the field, their vote will go to the other parties.

Dubois at Blackfoot.

Special Correspondence.

Blackfoot, Ida., Nov. 5.—Senator Fred T. Dubois spoke to a large audience at the opera house here last night, on "Mormonism," and in the course of his remarks he displayed that bitter hatred which in all ages has characterized the leaders of religious persecution.
He had nothing but evil to say of the "Mormon" people, and gave them to understand that it is his determination to disfranchise all of them. If he can, and said that they need not look to the Democratic party in Idaho for any consideration. He said that the Republican party of Idaho does not persecute the "Mormons."

Mr. Brown of the firm of Brown & Eldredge, introduced Mr. Dubois.

BIG BALLOTS.

Those for Use in Montana Have Nine Columns.

Perhaps the largest ballots to be used in the election tomorrow throughout the United States are the ones for use in the State of Montana. A sample copy of the official ballot of that state has been received by Internal Revenue Collector Callister in this city. Its dimensions are 25 by 42 inches, the same size as a full sheet of News. It contains nine columns for the names of the candidates nominated on the regular tickets and one blank column for the names of any persons who might be voted for outside of those on the other tickets. It is said that it took two carpenters an extra day to furnish the official ballots to be used in the state and fewer votes are cast there than in the State of Utah.

LIVELY ON THE COAST.

Mr. Adams Reports Commercial Outlook to be Very Encouraging.

President Frank Knox of the National Bank of the Republic has gone to Idaho for a few days relaxation and rest; and during his absence, Cashier Adams is holding down the executive chair. Mr.
Adams, in speaking of his visit to the coast recently, said that the general commercial outlook through that country was very encouraging. Business appears to be looking up everywhere out there, and particularly is Oakland growing. The Santa Fe has up an extra ferry, which is independent of the Southern Pacific, and there is a great deal of activity there.
The wheat exports will not be as large this winter, as it is figured that 15,000-20,000 bushels will be shipped east on account of the steady and heavy demand of eastern handlers. The new tunnel under Seattle is an engineering wonder, and is a great relief to the railway company to escape the congestion that heretofore marked traffic at the docks.

Henry McDonald Passes Away at Holy Cross This Morning.

Henry McDonald of this city, who has been at Holy Cross hospital for some time past, suffering from Bright's disease, died this morning.

ter of Mr. and Mrs. Robison of Lyman, Idaho, was operated upon at the Keogh-Wright hospital this morning, and from last reports was progressing favorably.

Mr. Larsen, another Idaho patient from the same hospital, who was operated upon a couple of days ago for appendicitis, is reported to be getting along in good shape. Mr. Larsen came

JAPANESE IGNORE LT.-GEN. STOESSSEL

Go Over His Head and Offer Terms Of Surrender to Port Arthur Garrison.

LETTER SENT TO SOLDIERS.

Was Drafted by Gen. Nogai—Called Attention to Kuropatkin's Retreats and Resistlessness of Jap. Advance.

Chefoo, Nov. 8, 5:30 p. m.—The Japanese besieging Port Arthur, ignoring Lieut.-Gen. Stoessel, the commander of the Russian military forces there, have offered terms of surrender to a dispatch leaving Port Dalny yesterday.
In the meanwhile the ceaseless activity of picks and shovels continues. The Japanese are gradually advancing in the trenches, which spell inexorable fate to the watching Russians.

A Russian prisoner captured Oct.
26 said the troops composing the garrison of Port Arthur were in want and dispirited. They saw the fruitlessness of the struggle. Hopeless of relief, with food scarce and medicine and hospital supplies insufficient it was admitted by the Russians that a Japanese victory was ultimately inevitable. The soldiers, according to the prisoner, see no reason to prolong the resistance which brings glory to their officers, but chiefly hardship and death to them.
Upon hearing the prisoner's story Gen.
Nogai assembled his staff, discussed the matter briefly and then, under the light of a bicycle lamp, drafted a letter to be circulated among the soldiers themselves. The prisoner having promised to deliver it in mercy to his comrades.
The letter related Gen. Kuropatkin's retreats and his inability to make an impression on the army of Field Marshal Oyama, to say nothing of breaking through his forces and relieving Port Arthur. The letter also pointed out that the Second Russian Pacific squadron has just started on its slow voyage. Continuing, it called attention to the resistless advance of the Japanese trenches, making it a matter of weeks when the Japanese would walk into the main Russian strongholds. In conclusion, the letter offered humane treatment to all who surrendered, saying it was in the interest of humanity to prevent further useless slaughter. In the darkness of the early morning of Nov. 4 several copies of the letter, written in Russian, were given to the Russian prisoners, who retained the Russian lines unbroken by their officers. That night the Russian returned, saying his comrades would answer within a few days. He said the temper of the men seemed to show that while they were mutinous towards fate they also did not like the idea of appointed surrender. The letter did much, however, to dispel among the Russian troops the impression fostered by their officers that a massacre would follow a Japanese victory. The company to which the prisoner belonged originally numbered 800 and now total 20 men.

As the Japanese are sufficiently near the summit of the hills to render tun-neling highly practicable, much of the work is now being done. The Russians are building countermines. Whichever side finds its tunnel under the enemy blows up the latter's tunnel. To prevent explosives being rolled down into their trenches the Japanese have made ramps, or hillocks of earth above the trenches. Five Russian mine sweeping steamers have been sunk by Japanese shells.

JAPS MAKING GOOD PROGRESS.

Tokio, Nov. 8.—Unofficial news received from Port Arthur since Saturday's report of the progress made by the besiegers indicates that the Japanese operations are proceeding satisfactorily, though slowly. Limestone fortifications and rock ground interfering with the sapping. It is now considered that the capture of Rihlung mountain and east Kewan mountain without Antse and Etse mountains is not sufficient to force the Russians to abandon the city proper.

preliminary hearing upon such charge yesterday.

At the conclusion of the trial Judge Diehl found that the crime of burglary had not been committed at all but that the only crime committed was petit larceny. Notwithstanding the fact that there was no evidence introduced to connect Vanderman with the crime of petit larceny, the court bound him over to the district court upon that charge.
In default of bail he was committed to the custody of Sheriff Emery and was confined in the county jail.

The writ was issued today by Judge Morse commanding the sheriff to bring the prisoner before him tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock and show cause why he should not be released upon a writ of habeas corpus.

Favored by Both Parties.

Republicans and Democrats alike praise Foley's Honey and Tar for coughs, colds and all throat and lung diseases, as no other remedy can compare with it. It is safe and sure. F. J. Hill, merchant,

On Saturday, Nov. 12, at 10 o'clock, Judge Morse will make a setting of jury cases for trial in his division of the district court.

The regular weekly meeting of the principals of the city schools which was to have been held tomorrow after-

Parties from Butte say that Louis Parker, local manager of the Pacific Board of Underwriters, has resigned.
His successor has not yet been decided on. Mr. Parker is well known in this city, where he has many friends.

"For one order that we take off the hook, as completed, we put two on," said a prominent in shop boss this morning. "The work is very heavy, especially in the way of repairs and installation of new heating plants for the winter."

Utah Fuel company officials say that what little heart the ex-strikers had left is gone now that it is known that Signor Carlo Demolli, the Italian ex-counterfeiter and army deserter, has been sent to prison from Pueblo for two years, and they are putting in their time congregating at the depots to watch the trains arrive and depart.
In fact that is all they have to do.

Five cases of smallpox were reported to the board of health yesterday afternoon. They are: Parley Nelson, 41 Eight West; Andrew Nelson, his brother, at the same address; Addie Honey, aged 19, 316 K street; Frank Webb, aged one year, 715 Fourth street; Nettie Webb, aged five years, of the same address, both the children of Wilford Webb of that address.

General Manager Campbell of the Light & Heat company proposes to make of the company's plant on east Seo; Temple street a model affair, and it may involve hanging the are lamps between poles at the sides of the roadway, instead of being placed on poles set in the center of the street. The car tracks will be lowered from one to four feet through the remodelled section, and the present section of single track replaced by double track.

This morning's weather map shows that the second low pressure area that was moving down this way from the northwest has, like its immediate predecessor, been switched off to the east and northeast, and another high baro-metric area completely fills the country west of the Rocky mountains. In fact almost the entire United States is for the time rainless, and fair weather is predicted for tomorrow. There has been no storm since Oct. 17 last. The temperature has been moderately cool.
