EVENING NEWS.

Friday, May 20, 1881.

TALK OF THE TOWN.

Timothy x—16th.

Roses are beginning to bloom.

The High Council meets to-night.

Fuller's Hill is the popular pleasure resort.

The bicycle club will very likely be organized to-night.

W. S. McCornick, Esq., the banker, has gone to Wood River.

Fred Hopt (Welcome) was not shot to-day as some supposed.

The Calico Ball in the 12th Ward comes off one week from to-night.

The Widow Bedott Matinee, to-morrow, will commence at 12 o'clock.

The Central Board of Trade got through a good deal of business yesterday.

Peter J. Rasmussen, a native of Denmark, was to-day admitted to citizenship.

The Ogden Herald has got the right kind of vim and snap to it, and is daily improving.

Hannah Booth, wife of Bishop John E. Booth, of Provo, died on Wednesday, at 9 p.m.

The St. Mark's hospital ball, at the Continental, last evening, was a grand success in every way.

Who wants a hearty laugh? Go and see Haverly's Widow Bedott. Bishop is simply immense.

That green, stagnant pool of water, referred to some time ago, still remains festering in the sun, a block north of this office.

Mayor I. S. Kalloch, of San Francisco, passed through Ogden, yesterday morning, going east. He was accompanied by a young son.

Mr. A. H. Le Clair, the actor, left this morning for New York. He received word that his mother was very ill. His wife remains here.

Messrs. George Goddard and C. R. Savage will visit Ogden in a day or so. While there they will make arrangements for the Old Folks' excursion.

A "Widow Bedott" matinee will be given to-morrow, commencing at 12 (noon). The early hour is necessitated, as the company leaves by the 3.40 train.

Some of the members of the Central Board of Trade, which adjourned last evening, left the city for their various homes this morning. Others went this afternoon.

The mining case of Mount vs. Simons closed last evening; the jury finding a verdict for the plaintiff for $1,255.33. The jurors received their pay. Sixty days stay was allowed to enable the defendant to prepare and file a motion for a new trial.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

District Court. — Proceedings in the District Court on Friday, May 20th, 1881, Chief Justice Hunter presiding:

Salt Lake City vs. Wm. S. Clays; demurrer sustained and case dismissed.

Woods and Hoffman vs. Wm. A. Crawford; default and judgment. Referred to compute. Judgment as prayed.

James Lowe et al. vs Climax Consolidated Mining Co.; time for hearing motion of defendant to dissolve the plaintiff's injunction shortened to May 26, 1881, at 10 a. m.

W. Ottenheimer vs. Frederich Shenck; Jury trial in progress.

The Eccentric Light.—The electric light continues to cut some queer capers. Several slight accidents have occurred within the last week, through the electric and telephonic wires coming in mutual contact. No one has been hurt, but a telephone was partially burned up the other evening by flames generated in this way. It belonged to Mr. W. O. Smith, the fruit merchant. The telephonic wire happened to touch the other at a point where they cross at right angles. Immediately the wire coils inside the telephone box became red hot and began to melt, while simultaneously the alarm was flashed to the central office, where it gave a loud report. Where the two wires touched, a fine display of fireworks was kept up for several moments, and shortly afterwards all the eastward lights on the same circuit, were extinguished. The two wires were parted by throwing a cord over the lower one, and pulling it away from the upper wire. The telephone, as said, was partially burned, and it is supposed cannot be used in the future. A similar but not so exciting an event, happened at Mecar's Liquor Store a few evenings since.

Welcome's Execution.—Notwithstanding notices that have appeared in the City papers, in regard to the postponement of the execution of the murderer Hopt, alias Welcome, whose case is now in the Supreme Court of the Territory on appeal from the Third District Court, many people are laboring under the erroneous supposition that the prisoner was executed to day, according to the sentence passed upon him several weeks ago. A number of shots fired this morning has strengthened this supposition into a positive belief with some. The facts of the matter are briefly as follows: After Hopt had been sentenced in the District Court, his attorneys filed a bill of exceptions made during the trial, and as is customary in such cases, requested Judge Emerson, who was then sitting on the bench here, to sign a statement certifying to the Supreme Court that probabilities existed that the case should be reviewed. This Judge Emerson declined to do, but Judge Twiss was persuaded to give his signature to the paper, and thus the case got into the Supreme Court. This tribunal not meeting until the 6th of June, the execution of the sentence, set for to-day, was necessarily delayed. On the convening of the Supreme Court, Hopt's case will come up for review. If the decision in the lower court is affirmed, the latter will be instructed to fix anew the time for execution. If it be reversed, the case will go back into the District Court for a new trial.

"Widow Bedott."—The performance of "Widow Bedott" last evening, was witnessed by a large audience, which doubtless would have been still larger, had it not been for the grand ball at the Continental, which drew away many of the regular theatrical patrons. The performance was in every way worthy of the patronage, applause, laughter and encomiums it received. It is useless to describe the comedy, it being well known to our public; as to the acting it can be eulogized as excellent. The "Widow" of Mr. Bishop is a new creation, and while vastly different from the character drawn by Mr. Niel Burgess, has quite as many admirers. Some prefer Mr. Bishop's delineation in many respects, while we and others think Burgess' the best. The "Tim Crane" of this company excels the former one, and that is saying considerable. "Elder Sniffles" was an exceedingly comical impersonation, but was an exaggeration, differing greatly from the more natural impersonation of the other actor. The other characters filled in nicely, and the entire performance passed off very successfully.

The Thomas orchestra was not full, the company not engaging the whole band, which we regard as a mistake, but good music was furnished.

To-night it will be repeated, and all who desire a sure cure for "the blues" can find it in "Widow Bedott." To-morrow, at noon, a matinee will be given, the closing performance of this company's engagement.

Water Works.—The Ogden Herald says that yesterday morning, at 11 o'clock, the City Council met as per adjournment in order to receive the report of the committee which had been deputized to see to the legal transfer of the $76,000 worth of Water Co. stock to the city of Ogden. The committee reported they had ascertained that the parties offering their stock had complied with all their requirements, and shown legal proofs of their ownership of 760 shares in the stock of said Water Company, amounting to $76,000. In consideration thereof, the committee stated that all of the proceedings concerning the transfer of said stock were proper and legal. On this the Council accepted the certificates of stock and ordered the payment thereon of $3,800 in cash, and a note to be placed in the hands of the treasurer of the Water Company, in lieu of the one that he held of the parties from whom the city received this stock, this note being for the amount of $3,740.

The gentlemen from whom the city has purchased the stock—Messrs. J. A. West, C. C. and L. M. Richards—had decided to sell out their interest in the enterprise. They gave the city the preference of purchasing—though they had other advantageous offers for the stock—on the ground that it would be more conducive to the public good for the corporation to control the water works than for them to be exclusively in the hands of private parties.

Another Martial Band.—A gentleman of this city hands in the following for publication:

"On my way home Wednesday evening I saw quite a crowd collected at the Eagle Gate. Upon inquiry I ascertained it was the adjournment of the 18th Ward Mutual Improvement Society for the present season. As they dispersed, the martial band, composed mostly of small boys of the ward, struck up a lively march, the tune and time of which was very creditable, considering the short time since the band's organization. These little fellows marched along South Temple Street, eastward, stopping at the residence of Bishop John Sharp, where they halted and serenaded that gentleman by playing three spirited airs; they also serenaded Hon. James Sharp and S. P. Teasdel, Esq., discoursing some excellent music. Much credit is due Mr. C. Barrell, for his indefatigable labor and patience in training the children. I wish him and all connected with the little band continued success."

The same band played several pieces during the exercises of the meeting referred to by the writer of the above, and as he says, their music was very creditable. The band is composed mostly of young boys of the Sunday School, led by Mr. Charles Barrell, who has taught them to read music and play upon their various instruments.

An Ambitious Dog.—Yesterday forenoon an amusing occurrence took place on the sidewalk in front of Savage's Art Gallery. A large dog, seized with a sudden desire to place his name among the immortals, undertook and successfully accomplished the double feat of running between the legs of two pedestrians. The first was a book-keeper at this office, who, as he was facing the canine, was enabled to prepare for and sustain the shock which followed, but the next individual was a man walking in the opposite direction. Not seeing the dog as he dived between his legs, this person was completely upset, and came down upon the back of his shaggy assailant like a thousand of brick. For the next few moments it was difficult to tell which was the man, and which was the dog, but matters were eventually set right, the pedestrian arose to his feet rather flurried, and the dog, without waiting for the apology which the man had picked up and was aiming at him, sped rapidly away, and was soon lost to sight in the dreamy distance.

Gen. Smith Retired.—General John E. Smith, commander at Fort Douglas, has been placed on the retired list of army officers, with a colonel's pay of $2,800 a year. The telegram from Washington was received last evening. This means that some other officer will be put in charge of the Fort, which perhaps will also be garrisoned by another regiment. Come what may, we are sorry to lose General Smith, who by manly uprightness as well as military efficiency, has gained many friends and admirers during his six years' sojourn in Utah Territory.

☞ Don't fail to be on hand at 12 o'clock to-morrow for the Matinee, or you will miss the event of the season.

RESCUED FROM DEATH.

The following statement of Wm. J. Coughlin, of Somerville, Mass., is so remarkable that we beg to ask for it the attention of our readers. He says: "In the fall of 1876 I was taken with a VIOLENT BLEEDING OF THE LUNGS followed by a severe cough. I soon began to lose my appetite and flesh. I was so weak at one time that I could not leave my bed. In the summer of 1877 I was admitted to the City Hospital. While there the doctors said I had a hole in my left lung as big as a half dollar. I expended over a hundred dollars in doctors and medicines. I was so far gone at one time a report went around that I was dead. I gave up hope, but a friend told me of DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS. I laughed at my friends, thinking that my case was incurable, but I got a bottle to satisfy them, when to my surprise and gratification, I commenced to feel better. My hope, once dead, began to revive, and to-day I feel in better spirits than I have the past three years.
"I write this hoping you will publish it, so that every one afflicted with Diseased Lungs will be induced to take DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS, and be convinced that CONSUMPTION CAN BE CURED. I have taken two bottles and can positively say that it has done more good than all other medicines I have taken since my sickness. My cough has almost entirely disappeared and I shall soon be able to go to work. Sold by all druggists.

IT SEEMS IMPOSSIBLE.

That a remedy made of such common, simple plants as Hops, Buchu, Mandrake, Dandelion, &c., should make so many and such marvelous and wonderful cures as Hop Bitters do, but when old and young, rich and poor, Pastor and Doctor, Lawyer and Editor, all testify to having been cured by them, you must believe and try them yourself, and doubt no longer. See other column.

DIED.

In Bloomington, Sunday, May 8th, of heart disease, MERCY MIRANDA CAMPBELL, aged 70 years, 11 months and 10 days.

Sister Campbell rose early on the morning of her death, apparently in her usual health, and commenced the routine of her household labors, when she suddenly fell to the floor. Her son hastened to her assistance, but she never spoke, and expired in less than two minutes.

Sister Campbell was of a retiring, quiet disposition, seldom seen beyond the confines of her home, but her faith and devotion to the Gospel were firm and unquestioned.

On Monday, at 1 p.m., funeral service was held in Bloomington Meeting House, at which President George Cannon, Elders Piggott, Greenhalgh and others, made appropriate and consolatory remarks.—Bear Lake Democrat.

In Logan City, May 5th, 1881, of diphtheria croup, JOHN, son of James and Isabella Burgess, aged 9 years lacking 9 days.

He was sick only ten days. His death is a sad loss to his parents and the family, who deeply mourn the loss. He was a boy that was greatly beloved by all his acquaintances, particularly his associates in the Sabbath School in the Sixteenth Ward of Salt Lake City, where he used to attend, and was much beloved by all. He was a twin; his mate, Jennie, died last September, in Richmond, Cache County.—Con. —Logan Leader.
