

citizen of the Republic. In answer to your question in regard to marriage, I will say that during my 'Mormon' life it has been darkly hinted on several occasions that I am a married man; In fact, I have been openly accused of being married, and now to you, as a friend, I will acknowledge with modesty the soft impeachment."

Mr. Budge is what is denominated by his Church a presiding bishop; his jurisdiction extends over sixteen towns, some of them in Idaho, some in Wyoming and some in Utah. However much others may condemn his peculiar religious views, it is a patent fact that Mr. Budge is an exemplary gentleman, of good ability and education, and is assiduously devoting himself to the interests of his constituents, there being no man in the Council more attentive to the business of legislation than he—Idaho Avalanche.

Local and Other Matters.

FROM TUESDAY'S DAILY, JAN. 9.

Nominations for Utah.—President Grant sends the names of Lewis and Bane to the Senate today for register and receiver at this city.

A Turbulent Soldier.—Last night an intoxicated soldier made a tremendous row on the street. Three of his companions endeavored to take him to Camp, essaying to carry him, but he kicked and plunged around so that they had to give up the job. He was given lodgings for the night in the city jail, and released this morning.

Tenth Ward.—The pupils of the 10th Ward Sabbath School had a good time on Sunday. A hundred and sixty prizes, embracing a wide variety of articles, were distributed among them. Bishop Spiers and his counsellors were present, and made suitable remarks. A large number of the parents of the children were also there to witness the proceedings.

The teachers of the school also presented a testimonial of respect to the superintendent, Brother Jas. Woods.

Deseret National Bank.—A meeting of the stock holders of the Deseret National Bank was held at eleven o'clock to-day, in the bank building, for the purpose of electing a board of directors. The following board is the result, attained by unanimous vote—

William H. Hooper, Horace S. Eldredge, Brigham Young, John Sharp, William Jennings, Fernor Little, Lewis S. Hills.

Immediately after the meeting of stockholders the board met and elected the following officers—

President, W. H. Hooper; Vice President, Horace S. Eldredge; Cashier, Lewis S. Hills.

"Compiled Laws of Utah."—This volume, a work of about 900 pages, is now completed. It contains all the general statutes of Utah now in force, and also the Declaration of Independence, the Constitution of the United States, the Organic Act of Utah, and all the laws of Congress especially applicable to this Territory. The work is arranged in regular legal form, the classification of the acts, with titles and chapters, head and marginal notes, a complete, clear, and comprehensive index, show that the legislative committee on compilation, Honorables A. O. Smoot, Silas S. Smith and R. T. Burton, have been most careful and exact in the performance of their labors.

The volume is printed in clear, bold type, on an excellent quality of law-paper, and is well and substantially bound in calf. The work was printed and bound at this office.

Intemperance.—The question of the increase of intemperance in this city has been agitating the public mind for a considerable time past, and petitions, signed by thousands of citizens of all classes of people, have been presented to the City Council, asking that body to exert its powers to suppress or restrict the evil. It is a very difficult subject to deal with, as has been verified by the innumerable baffled efforts of legislative and administrative bodies in various parts of the world.

The community of Latter-day Saints is the most temperate of its dimensions on the globe, taken as a whole, the nature of the principles that, according to their profession, should be their rule of conduct, demanding that the lives of those composing it should be blameless in this as well as all other respects. It is a fact, however, that there be those who profess a consistent connection with the community of the Church whose general course is far from sustaining the position. It is no compliment to such that were it not for their indulgences in imbibing strong liquors, the traffic in the stuff would be materially lessened. Intemperance is an unqualified evil, of which the liquor traffic is the great cause. This being the case no person can needlessly sustain this traffic without upholding and increasing evil in the community, and he whose course tends to the increase of evil is in that regard acting in utter variance with the spirit and genius of the gospel of Christ. The sequel is that, whatever may be their professions to the contrary, such persons are not consistent members of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, nor can they be in full fellowship with the principles incorporated in it.

The causes that tend to the increase and spread of the evil of intemperance are multifarious, as for instance the manufacture of and dealing in intoxicating drinks for that purpose. The argument may be advanced by those engaged in business of this nature that "if we don't do it somebody else will." This position is not tenable, as it might be used in regard to any business in the category of traffic, nefarious or otherwise. Last, but by no means least, there are those who persistently, immoderately and shamefully imbibe strong liquors, reducing themselves, by this means, far below the pale of respectability, and who act like a pestilential malady in the community, vitiating good morals and behavior by their pernicious examples.

Let those several classes above enumerated stop doing their part in increasing the evil of intemperance and, in our view, it would be materially lessened, and the thirty-seven liquor establishments now existing in this city would soon be reduced to a much smaller number.

The classes to whom these suggestions refer may exclaim, "Isn't this a free country, and can't we do as we please?" Certainly it is, and people can do as they please, but when that pleasure is not in acting consistently with professed rules of life the deer must inevitably, sometime or other, meet the consequence of his course, for if the fruits of a man's actions be good or evil his reward will be in accordance therewith, and good actions are productive of beneficent results and an evil course the reverse.

Certainly it is a free country, and therefore when the overwhelming majority of the people, through their legislative representatives, amended the charter of this City, so as to include the power to prohibit the liquor traffic, and the Governor vetoed that measure, we considered that the free exercise of the people's will was thus unwarrantably infringed upon, especially as this legislation was in favor of good morals, order and sobriety.

It is the duty of every person professing to be a Latter-day Saint to set his face as a flint against this sin of intemperance, giving it no countenance or encouragement, and this is, in fact, the only consistent course that can be pursued.

Democratic Gathering.—The democratic mass meeting held last evening was large and enthusiastic. The assemblage was called to order by Mr. Hadley D. Johnson, who nominated Judge Resborough for chairman, which was seconded and carried, and, after some remarks from the chair, Mr. Ben Sheeks was elected Secretary.

On motion Judge Tilford, E. M. Barnum, A. Davis, Lewis Burnes and W. C. Hall were appointed, by the chair, a committee on resolutions, and reported as follows—

RESOLUTIONS.

WHEREAS, At the last presidential election Samuel J. Tilden and Thomas A. Hendricks, Democratic candidates for President and Vice President, received a clear majority of the legal votes in at least nineteen States of the Union, which States are entitled to cast 196 electoral votes, therefore

Resolved, That Samuel J. Tilden should be elected by the Senate and House of Representatives, President of the United States, and Thomas A. Hendricks Vice President, and that they should be inaugurated on the 4th day of March next, to their respective offices, in accordance with the Constitution and laws of the land.

Resolved, That any attempt to inaugurate Rutherford B. Hayes as President, and Wm. A. Wheeler as Vice President, would be revolutionary, and should be resisted by all lawful and peaceful methods in the power of an outraged people.

Resolved, That the vote of the Electoral College must, in accordance with the uniform practice of Congress, be counted by the Senate and House of Representatives, and that the pretence of any authority by the President of the Senate to count such vote is wholly without right and in plain violation of the Constitution of the United States.

Resolved, That the audacious and infamous action of the board of canvassers in the State of Louisiana, whereby more than fifteen thousand legal votes for the democratic candidates were ignored and rejected, and a pretended majority of several thousand votes fraudulently made up for the republican candidates, deserves the execration of all honest and patriotic citizens, and that any political party which sanctions such an action is no better than the perpetrators of the crime.

Resolved, That the concentration of Federal troops at Washington City, by orders of the President of the United States, for the purpose, as we believe, of forcing upon the country a Chief Magistrate not chosen by the people, is dangerous in the extreme to the peace and liberty of the Republic.

Resolved, That we have a deep and abiding confidence in the wisdom, patriotism and firmness of the Democratic members of the United States Senate, and the Democratic majority of the House of Representatives, and that we pledge ourselves to uphold and maintain whatever course they may adopt or recommend in the present perilous situation of the country.

Speeches were made by Judge Tilford, General Barnum, Mr. P. L. Williams, Mr. Ben. Sheeks and Mr. J. L. Rawlins, and, after three cheers for Tilden and Hendricks, the meeting dissolved.

Our Country Contemporaries.

Ogden Junction, Jan. 8—

Harrisville, six miles north of Ogden, has a case, and North Ogden, seven miles from this city, has one family, numbering seven persons, all suffering from the disease, small pox.

Last Friday evening a woman was brought here from Laramie and dumped down for the city to take care of. The quarantine physician pronounced her free from small-pox, but laboring under a loathsome disease. She claimed to be affected by inflammatory rheumatism, and that she expected money from her "husband" to take her west in a day or two. She was conveyed to a hotel and cared for, being unable to move a step herself. She made imperious demands for chloroform, and Dr. Williams allowed her half an ounce, which she used and went to sleep. On awakening she demanded more, and was actually supplied during the next day with ten ounces! Inquiries being instituted it was disclosed that she was a woman of ill repute, who had been shipped from Denver to Cheyenne. At that place the commissioners sent her on to Laramie. There a "dead-head" ticket, or one at half fare, was obtained for her, and the U. P. people brought her to Ogden and dropped her among us. This being the case a ticket was obtained, and she was sent back eastward, but on arriving at Utah she refused to go any further east, and was brought back to Ogden last night and left in the waiting room. A man was hired to take care of her and supply her wants during the night. Common humanity demands that the woman be not allowed to perish for lack of necessities, and as she desires to go west she should be forwarded. But the city is not responsible for her presence here, and it is time this system of shipping pauperism and disease to Ogden was stopped. The authorities at Denver and Cheyenne have no right to make Ogden the asylum for their indigent or disreputable cast-offs, and this thing has to be stopped at once.

Want Nothing Better.

As to the Charter Oak Cooking Stove, we can truthfully say that it is as near perfection as any stove we ever expect to find; we want nothing better, and do not ever expect to find any other as good.

Standard Steam Laundry Office, Cleveland, O., Oct. 30, 1876.

DR. FRAZIER. Dear Sir: I feel it a duty I owe to suffering humanity to write you, stating the wonderful benefit I have derived from the use of your Life Syrup and Strengthening Root Bitters. For some time I was sorely afflicted with a cough, raising bad stuff, with every symptom of being a confirmed consumptive. I tried different medicines and cures, without finding relief. I also consulted three of our most prominent Cleveland physicians, the last one of which pronounced my case serious and informed me I could not live more than a few months. About this time, hearing of your wonderful success, I commenced taking your Life Syrup for the lungs, in connection with your Root Bitters, and at once was benefited, and after using the medicine some two months I find myself entirely cured. If this statement of my case can be of any service to you in bringing your medicines to the notice of the suffering, my object in writing this note will be attained, for I firmly believe my life has been saved by your treatment.

Signed, TORRENCE DUNN.

TESTIMONIALS

TESTIMONY.

Our dear little grandson was for many months fearfully troubled with the above complaint, rendering him to every appearance a most frightful-looking object, and from which his sufferings were beyond description but, thanks to Dr. E. L. Plant, is now perfectly cured and free from the disease. For verification please call at our Lunch House, First South Street, opposite Theatre, S. L. C., and ascertain all particulars.

JOHN HAGELL.

FITS! FITS! FITS!

A Testimony from Mr. Hunter, of Payson, son of Bishop Hunter.

DEAR DOCTOR PLANT:—Gratitude and thank are comparatively poor words to use in conveying my feelings for the very astonishing cure you have performed on my son. He was troubled with those fearful fits from his birth, from which he was deprived of both the use of his right arm and right foot, from which, under God's blessing and your superior skill, he is now entirely recovered.

Success to you and God bless you. Doctor E. L. Plant, Market Row, Salt Lake City, Nov. 8, 1876.

SALT LAKE CITY, May 22, 1876.

About six weeks ago I was perfectly cured of a cancer in my tongue. The suffering through which I passed previous to its removal, cannot be described. The cure was effected without any surgical operation, and I gradually experienced great relief from the commencement of Dr. Plant's skillful treatment. The entire cure was performed in six weeks. I am sixty-one years old, and am prepared to answer any or all inquiries in relation to the matter. But the case, to myself, seems so wonderful that I think it my duty to take the present means of communicating the fact for the benefit of others.

Mrs. MAY.

4th Ward, Main Street.

A PERFECT CURE.

Dr. E. L. Plant's reputation is increasing all over the Territory as certain destroyer of worms in the human body, and a curer of life, cancers, tumors, scrofula, etc. One case, that of Mr. John Skidmore's daughter, at Salt Lake, should be mentioned among others. The girl had been afflicted for years with it. She was placed under Dr. Plant's care, and in a short time she was entirely cured, and has not had a single fit for twelve months. Another daughter of the same gentleman was affected with a high fever. Dr. Plant made a perfect cure without the use of the knife. He does all ailments, and his charges are reasonable. His office is in Market Row, Salt Lake City.
