LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

THERMOMETER 70° in the shade at one o'clock today.

THEATRE.—Last evening "The Streets of New York" was presented to a fair house. The play was a splendid success, and the audience repeatedly testified their appreciation of it. Miss Walters as "Alida Bloodgood" also played in a satisfactory manner. Other characters were creditably represented.

This evening will be presented the new and interesting drama, by James Dowling, Esq., entitled, "The West." This is one of the most attractive sensational dramas of the day, and will be produced with new scenery and properties, and new and thrilling effects. The distribution of characters Mr. P. M. Bates will appear as "Mountain Jim," the "Unknown," Mr. H. H. Bates as "Charles," Mr. H. H. Bates as "Putnam Sparks," a Yankee, Mr. H. H. Bates as "Joe Baker," Mr. L. Paul as "Padden McGonigle," Mr. H. H. Bates as "Bob Small," Mr. Thompson as "Simon Tubbs," Miss Walters as "Hopewell Greenfield," a Yankee girl, Miss Walters as "Zella," the half-breed, and Mrs. H. H. Bates as "Judith Wolf."

This play comprises two acts and a number of stirring tableaux.

During the evening the orchestra will play Gullin's beautiful "Daisy" Farm Waltzes, arranged by F. H. Thompson.

The air gets sensibly cooler, and the sea and yellow leaves multiply fast.

[Per Deseret Telegraph.]

Fall Down a Shaft.

PICKER, Oct. 21.—A fatal accident occurred about noon, when a man named H. H. Bates fell down the shaft of the Yolo mine, located south of Meadow Valley mountain, and was instantly killed. He had been working in the mine and had just returned from dinner to go down to his labor, and by some misadventure fell to the bottom of a shaft of 170 feet. A man named H. H. Bates, who was working in the mine, saw him fall, and he was in a great hurry to get down to him, but he was unable to do so, and he was unable to get him out. The body was found at the bottom of the shaft, and it was found that he had been killed by a falling rock. The body was found at the bottom of the shaft, and it was found that he had been killed by a falling rock.

PAYSON, Oct. 22.—Mr. David Daley, a resident of Payson, freighting to Tintic met with a fatal accident yesterday. He was encamped near Goshen and was proceeding towards that place on horseback to obtain feed for his animals, when he was thrown from his horse, and he was killed by a falling rock. The body was found at the bottom of the shaft, and it was found that he had been killed by a falling rock.

CHANGE OF CLIMATE.—One of the best medicines for children who are suffering from debility, coughing, &c., is change of air. We have convenient facilities here for such change. It is not necessary to go to Berkeley, Lake Valley, to Soda Springs, or to some other equally distant spot to obtain a change of air—though such trips, taken at the proper season, would doubtless be beneficial to many of our children. It can be obtained by going into any of the canyons around us, or by crossing to the West, to Coalville, Waship, Rock, or to the settlements on the waters, or to Kamas Prairie, or in fact to any settlement of a greater altitude than the one where the children are checked by a change of air, even as late in the season as this. Good nursing, proper attention to clothing, and such a change of air as we suggest can scarcely fail to have a beneficial effect.

ORDER ITEMS.—From the Junction of yesterday.

Reckless street driving in Ogden as well as here, but there they have it on Sundays as well as other days, with reckless and other boisterous behavior.

Miss Jacobs lecturing at the Methodist church, and Dr. E. Winchester Stevens at Cardon's Hall.

Attempt to swindle an Indian at North Ogden. Swindler looked after and restitution.

Don, son of Alderman Thomson, playing with snipe, let it slip down his gut. Not seen since. Can't like on knives.

APPOINTMENT.—Elder John Mendonhall is appointed to take charge of the Nottingham conference, upon the departure of Elder Shoshone Johnson, and Elder Johnson is requested to give Elder Mendonhall all needed instruction. —Millennial Star, Oct. 1.

HOME MISSIONARY APPOINTMENTS.—Sunday, October 27th:

Sugar House Ward, John Van Cott and A. S. Smith.

Mill Creek, S. A. Woolley and J. P. Freese.

Southville, George Toole and M. B. Shipps.

Scott Cottonwood, Milo Andrus and John Nicholson.

Centerville (on days' meetings), Oct. 26th and 27th, Orson Pratt, Joseph Young, L. D. Young, Isaac Groo, R. F. Neel and David Candland, in connection with the mission of Second County.

Two meetings will be held in the Salt Lake County settlements, commencing at 10 a.m. and 2 p.m.

L. D. YOUNG.

THE EUROPEAN MISSION.—By the Millennial Star we learn that district meeting was held at Hookley Chapel, Birmingham, on Sunday, Sept. 22. Addresses were delivered by President A. Carrington, and Elders Jas. G. Black, Thos. Dobson, John Neil, Ralph Harrison, and John H. Barrell. Attendance very good and attention to speakers very close. On the following evening a concert was given, under the direction of Brother Coleman.

WOMEN'S RIGHTS.—In a civil case tried before a Justice of the Peace, a few days since, in Davis county, ten miles north of this city, in which two females were the contestants, a jury was demanded, when three women were chosen among others for that purpose. The deliberations of the jury women were marked by quite as much dignity and self respect as is ever evinced by the stronger sex, and we understand the verdict was not any less satisfactory on account of the jury not being entirely composed of the male persuasion.

NEW RESTAURANT.—Yesterday Mr. D. Grenig opened the basement room under his store as the "Deseret Restaurant and Lunch Room," which he has had neatly fitted up for the purpose, and where he designs to furnish meals in No. 1 style at reasonable figures for all callers. He has a very convenient and comfortable establishment, and is prepared to accommodate his friends and patrons on short notice, and in a manner to secure confidence of their support. Give him a call when you are hungry and judge for yourself.

STOR FURNITURE.—Heretofore, Mr. D. Grenig, formerly of Kibben, has been selling furniture at a low price, and he has a very convenient and comfortable establishment, and is prepared to accommodate his friends and patrons on short notice, and in a manner to secure confidence of their support. Give him a call when you are hungry and judge for yourself.
