He has great confidence in his horse; Low ernor Stanford, is averse to having done. He has great confidence in his horse; but he is a young, inexperienced ani-mal, and is unaccustomed to racing, while his competitors are old well-tried well-tried in favor, is said to be without foundaand thoroughly trained trotters. The presence of the people and their hur-rahs the marce are familiar with; they will have no other effect upon them than to incite them to greater effort; but upon him, a nervous horse, they may have the contrary effect. In specific him over the track he has made a half mile in a fraction under 1.06, and it is said that he can go his maile in less time than is recorded as having been made by Goldsmith Maid. THE contest for the U. S. Senatorship in Oregon is at last ended, and Mitchali s elected. The fights have been entertained by many parsons familiar with Oregon affairs as to whether Mitchell would suc-ceed. We have it from good suthority and thoroughly trained trotters. The presence of the people and their hur-

Editor Descret News: Dear Sir.-Bullionville, as you are aware, is situated about a mile from Panacca, Lincoln county, Nevada, and is intimately connected therewith by the mutual trade carried on. Our citi-zens patronize Zion's Co-operative Store very liberally, and find Bishop Jones and the other gentlemen in charge thereof polite and urbane in manner, fair in dealing, and desirous of oultivating and perpetuating that spirit of neighborly kindness and Christian charity which the Apostle says "is doubly blessed, not only to him who giveth, but to him who receiveth." Our people are dependent on the gars deners of Panacca and the farmers of Southers Utah for their fruit and vege-tables, for which they pay a fair and remunerative price. Bome of the latter who came hither-ward with farm produce often go from here up to Ploche with their load and sell it for several cents per pound lees than they could have had here, merely through a mercenary and grasping apirit, thus traveling twanty miles on Wells, Fargo & Co. Business is good and people seem more contented and less excitable after new discoveries than beretofore. The diamond excita-ment, for instance, has found no abiding place in our midst. We had one lesson too many by the Colorado gold fizzle, whereto a large number of our people flocked, with rockers, pans and all other mining paraphernalis, to return after a season wher but sudder men. Steady simployment and good wages are infinitely preferable to the uncertainty of reputed mine discoveries, and the sconer our people realize the fact the better it will be for them. Our District Court is now in session, with a prespect of exhausting the roll of jurges of the county in the several oriminal cases now on the calendar.
