

THE IRVINE CASE.

Direct Proceedings in the Third District Court this Day.

THE HEARING OF JUDGE POWERS.

Attorney Curtis, of Salt Lake, An Agent on Behalf of Mrs. Irvine.

One of the most "sensational" divorces which has been reported in the Third District court for many a long day came up this morning before Judge Powers in his courtroom, and the hearing will probably occupy the whole of tomorrow and Wednesday.

When court commenced this afternoon Judge Powers opened the case by asking the plaintiff, Mrs. Irvine, to state the grounds on which she sought a divorce. She stated that she was married to Mr. Irvine on the 15th of June, 1893, and that she had never seen him since that time.

These proceedings have been taking place in the courtroom of Judge Powers, and the hearing will probably occupy the whole of tomorrow and Wednesday.
