

elect if they will only do right and obey his laws. We can do nothing unless assisted by the Almighty, neither can this nation, only as He permits. If we do right He has told us "the wrath of man shall praise me, and the remainder I will restrain." God lives, and His eyes are over us, and His angels are round about us, and they are more interested in us than we are in ourselves, ten thousand times, but we do not know it. We become self-willed and captious, and lack in a great many instances that liberality, kindness and charity that ought to dwell in the bosom of the Saints of God. The Lord is a great deal more interested in His work than we are. We think a great deal about our farms and our houses, our wives and our children, which is all very proper. He is thinking about the redemption of the earth, the regeneration of the world, the salvation of the living and the dead, and the accomplishment of the purposes spoken of by all the holy Prophets since the world began. And it is for us to be co-workers with Him. He is pleased with your efforts in building this Temple; and the angels rejoice as they see you go forth to prepare a place in which you may labor for the living and the dead. People will be called upon to labor, as a mission in those Temples when built. And you will rejoice too, for while you are engaged in the work of God it always brings peace and joy. A Temple built to the name of the Lord is a most delightful place to labor in; we feel that we are saviors upon Mount Zion, and that the Kingdom is the Lord's, and that we are operating for God and not for ourselves, but in the interest of our common humanity and in the salvation of the world.

Let us attend to our duties and do not get up any quarrels in our families. Husbands treat your wives with kindness and try to make your home a heaven for them; and train your children in the fear of God. Then you sisters, treat your husbands aright; be full of kindness, for we are, as the old woman says, all "poor, miserable, independent sinners." We have need of more long suffering, we need the assistance of one another, and the help of the Almighty. Let us try to do right.

There are a great many things open to my mind which I would like to talk about; there are one or two, however, to which I will refer. We have a great work to perform? Who? We Seventies, we Elders, we Priests. What have we to do? We are required to build Temples and administer in them. What else? We have to take the Gospel to the world, as we have been doing and are doing, and to progress with it; to advance correct principles among men, and to lead them in the paths of life and salvation; to gather them to Zion and to teach them when we get them here; to go on and control matters; to learn to manage ourselves and our own affairs, and not trouble ourselves too much with outside matters.

We talk sometimes about the nation being inimical to us. Whoever dreamed of anything else? I never did. What did the Elders preach to you, say 10, 30 or 40 years ago? It was that the people of the world would grow worse and worse, deceiving and being deceived. Do you expect it is going to get better? I do not. What did Jesus say in His day? He said: "If ye were of the world, the world would love its own," that is the kind of love that exists in the world. It does not amount to much—it is love to day and hate to-morrow, as the case may be. But continued the Savior: "Because ye are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you." What did He say again? "Blessed are ye when men shall revile you and persecute you and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake. Rejoice and be exceedingly glad, for great is your reward in heaven; for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you." Then there is nothing strange about it, is there? Some people think that because the priests of Baal lie so outrageously about us, that we ought to be angry. Why that is their profession; for they are of their father the Devil, his works they will do, and he was a liar from the beginning. By and by when we and they get through, we shall find that all liars will have their portion with hypocrites and unbelievers; and they together with whoremongers and sorcerers, will be found outside the holy city. But we have to take the brunt of it. No matter, we can stand it. As I said to some prominent gentlemen—Members of Congress—who were here recently, You are cutting up rather peculiar antics down in Washington. It does not matter much, however, as our potatoes grow all the same. That is how I feel about it. Let them attend to their father's business, and we will attend to our Father's business, and trust in Him and pursue that course that will be right in His sight. We do not want to get up any excitement about anything. Let us lean upon the Lord, seek to Him and ask for what we want, do right and we shall receive. And while they are treating us badly we will treat them as well as the circumstances will admit of, and follow out the instructions of Jesus who told us to do good for evil; and so far as we are concerned we will save them if possible, in spite of themselves.

The Lord is operating upon the Lamanites, and many of them are being baptized into the Church. Some people think all that we have to do is to baptize them, that they are a poor miserable set of outcasts. This is not the case. Some of us were poor miserable outcasts before we came into the Church, and we needed the ministrations of the Elders, the teachings of the Holy Priesthood and the blessings arising from the organization of the Church. Do not you think that they need the same kind of treatment? How would you like a mission, some of you High Priests and Seventies, to proclaim the Gospel to that fallen race, that Israel may have an equal chance with us, for God expects it at our hands. We received that record (Book of Mormon) through their ancient prophets and those same prophets are now beginning to communicate with them, and to unfold unto them the work that He has commenced with us and we shall have more of these things by and by. It is proper that our feelings should be drawn out after those whom the Lord is operating upon, that we may act in conjunction with the Lord in leading them in the paths of life.

This is a duty that devolves upon you Elders of Israel, for as He has commenced to labor with them we ought to be one with Him. I have taken the liberty recently to request the Twelve to attend to this; and they will call upon the Seventies, the High Priests and others, that is, they will if they do their duty. What do you think of it? I think that the field is enlarging and that our labors are increasing and becoming more extensive. We ought to feel like little children; we ought to feel like humbling ourselves before God, seeking to be one and to enjoy the light of His Holy Spirit, saying O Lord God, I am a poor feeble creature, thou hast called me to Thy work and hast clothed me with the holy Priesthood; and now I want to magnify it; I want to be a savior on Mount Zion; I want to preside anywhere, or preach anywhere, or do any labor that Thou shalt call upon me to do, that I may feel that I am Thy servant and that Thou art my God, and that I am for Israel, and for the salvation of the white man, the red man and all mankind. That is the position we are in. There are some of the things of which you will hear more by and by. I thought I would only tell you a part as perhaps you could not bear it all.

God bless you, and God bless all Israel, and God bless all who are in favor of righteousness, truth and equal rights; and may the Lord God confound the enemies of Israel, and all who are opposed to just rule and righteous government, in the name of Jesus. Amen.

SAD INCIDENT IN ARIZONA.

MILES P. ROMNEY MEETS WITH A MISHAP AND IS IN A PRECARIOUS CONDITION.

From information received from St. John, Arizona, it appears that Brother Miles P. Romney met with a serious mishap about ten miles from that town, on the 7th of August. He had been working on some buildings in Nutrias, for the erection of which he had a contract. He had been to St. John on a visit to his family, and on his way back to resume his work at Nutrias, so he subsequently stated, he was suddenly approached by a man who struck him a violent blow on the side of the head, knocking him out of the vehicle, from which he fell to the road and became insensible.

He was accompanied by two of his children, one of whom, a ten year-old girl, spoke to him and tried to arouse him, but he lay under the buggy as if dead. The girl took her little brother by the hand and started back toward St. John. At a point about a mile and a half from that place she was overtaken by a young man named James T. Berry, to whom she narrated what had occurred.

Brother Berry at once started with all possible haste for the place where the affair occurred. When he reached Brother Romney he found him still lying upon the ground insensible, face downward, the lines being in one hand and twisted around one leg. They were also over the axle, between the wheels of the wagon and the box. The horses were facing toward St. John. A small sum of money was lying on the ground close by.

It was some time before Brother Berry was successful in bringing him to his senses, but he finally regained consciousness. While he was being assisted into the buggy he again became insensible, and swooned four times subsequently in traveling five miles.

As soon as the news of the affair reached St. John, a party of four men and Mrs. Romney started out to meet Brother Berry, which they did five miles from town. Brother Romney was taken to his home, where, at last accounts, he was lying in a precarious condition, but it was thought he would recover. His system was badly shaken by the fall, and although a powerful narcotic had been administered to him, he was unable to obtain any sleep. The little girl states that she did not see any man ride up and strike her father, but he has a bad bruise over the left eye, apparently the effect of a heavy blow. It also transpires that a couple of Mexicans rode up to him a short time previous to the occurrence, as if to see who he was.

On the morning of August 8th, Brother Romney was very low. A few weeks ago he suffered from a severe attack of bronchitis, was afflicted with an incessant cough, and he seems to be badly broken down. Brother Robert Holmes, from whom we have obtained these particulars, will be in Spanish Fork about the middle of the present month, where Brother Romney's friends can obtain any further particulars regarding him that he may be in a position to impart.

A ROMANTIC INCIDENT.

ANDREW LOVESY ROGERS FINDS OVER SIX THOUSAND DOLLARS IN GOLD AND RETURNS IT TO THE OWNERS, WHO WERE ROBBED OF IT SIX YEARS AGO.

We have been enabled to peruse a letter from Brother Andrew L. Rogers, of Sunset, Apache County, Arizona, to his brother, Orson Rogers, of this city. We make the following interesting extracts:

I will explain how I found a mass of gold and what came of it: You remember of yourself finding some money once in an old book, and for your honesty was rewarded with part of it. Mine was a somewhat similar circumstance only on a larger scale.

Six years ago, Moses Casner and brother had over six thousand dollars stolen from them, all in twenty dollar gold pieces. The thief, in his hurry to get away, lost the money off the hind part of his saddle in passing through the timber. He was soon taken prisoner, and in trying to make him tell where the money was the Casners hung him to a tree until he was nearly dead. In order to save his life the thief told them he had lost the money, but would tell them all he knew about it, and went to help them find it. They piled up rocks where the money was supposed to be lost, and although many men had hunted days for it it never could be found, so that they gave up all hopes and stopped searching.

On the 24th of July, 1882, six years after the loss of the money, as I was following on the track of my sheep, I saw something that I thought consisted of curious looking yellow oak leaves, but a second glance showed it was a pile of gold. I commenced putting it in my pockets, but they would not hold it, so I took off my coat, tied one sleeve with a string and put it in. I hastily picked up all I could find, and hurried on after my sheep as they were out of sight. Before I got back to camp I had to keep changing from one shoulder to the other.

I knew who were the owners of the lost money, as I had heard of the circumstance of the stolen gold. Not being able to leave my sheep, I told Hube Burk to go and tell the Casners, as they live a number of miles away. They came, and when they saw their lost treasure they could hardly contain themselves for joy.

They wanted to know what I charged; I told them nothing. But this would not do for them. Almost any amount would have been given me had I named it, but I did not choose to do this, knowing that I had no more right to their money than if I had never seen it. They said the Lord had a hand in it, for it was not to be found till the right person came along, "for" said they, "if almost any one else had found it we never would have seen it again." They said it was like a gift to them. As I had made no charges one of them quickly picked up a pile of money and threw it over to me, and a smaller pile to Bro. Burk. Mine was $200 and and Bro. Burk's $60. The Casners then bade us a heartfelt good day and rode for home.

The circumstance of my finding the money was a little singular, for in their search for it the Casners had piled up rocks within ten feet of where it was lying. Thus ended a matter that had caused a good deal of interest and wonder.

Twenty dollars of the two hundred I paid for tithing, twenty dollars I keep, as I wish to get me a good gun.

We may add that $100 has been forwarded by this honest, noble-hearted young man to his parents, and the remaining $60 to others who are near and dear to him. There is evidently not only an entire absence of a shade of dishonesty in his composition, but he displays a most refreshing unselfishness. Brother Rogers is a native of Farmington, Davis County, is the son of Thomas and Aurella Rogers. The late Apostle Orson Spencer was his grandfather, and he is cousin to Mr. Spencer Clawson of this city. He was born and reared in the Church.

The circumstance of his brother Orson finding a sum of money, alluded to in the letter, occurred in Z. C. M. I. When he handed it over to Gen. Eldredge, who was superintendent at the time, that gentleman gave him half of the amount back, as a reward of honesty.

Fighting Fire with Fire. This may be good policy on a burning prairie, but it will not answer with the fevered human system. Irritating medicines exacerbate and intensify all complaints of the stomach or the bowels. Never take a drastic evacuant for indigestion or constipation. Administer instead Tarrant's Seltzer Aperient, which is at once a febrifuge, a cathartic, and an invigorant, and has a soothing and healing effect upon the disordered viscera.
