SCHOOL BOARD MATTERS.

Dr Millspaugh Re-elected City Superintendent for Another Year.

Principals Chosen, Names of High School Graduates—Commencement Exercises—A Teacher's Ill Advised Letter.

The board of education held a busy and protracted session last night. All the members were present except [illegible] Cutler, who is still in the East on business. President Dusly [illegible] and business was transacted as follows:

SALARY SCHEDULE PETITION.

The following petition, signed by 110 teachers, was referred to the committee on teachers and school work:

Your petitioners, teachers serving with you the people of Salt Lake City, would respectfully present to you these observations upon the schedule of salaries last adopted by your honorable body. We are not herein urging a restoration of the salaries which prevailed in this city until the hard conditions of the [illegible] compelled a reduction. But we would call your attention to that injustice, unintentional as we believe, done a majority of the teachers of this city by this schedule.

By this schedule, if it should be made [illegible], three maxims of salary are established, one at $72 per month, another at $67.50 and a third at [illegible].

If any teacher on the force might, by training, growth and skill, attain the highest of these limits, our grievance would be removed. But such is not the case. Those now receiving respectively $67.50 and $72 per month are the only teachers who may receive or be eligible to these maxims of salary.

Those now doing work equal in result to that of teachers now included within these last mentioned classes, but who have not reached either of these maxims, can never exceed the lowest.

We do insist that maximum salaries should be so fixed that all teachers will stand upon capacity and merit in order to reach the maximum. If this be not so, then we shall have preferred classes in our force which will result in dissatisfaction and the consequent lowering of efficiency in the teaching force of the city.

Therefore, we would ask that one maximum of salary be fixed by your honorable body, and that the sum be $72 per month.

The petition was supported by 110 teachers and endorsed by 25 prominent taxpayers.

APPLY FOR TEACHERS' POSITIONS.

Applications to teach were made as follows and referred to the committee on teachers and school work: Joseph Brennamene, Ann Arbor Mich.; W. R. Flanders, Alton, Kansas; Jennie Mollnaib, city; Ella E. King, Ogden, Utah; Elizabeth N. Boyd, Arkansas City, Kansas; N. Artisse Smith, Laramie, Wyo.; T. Lewis, Granville, O.; Mabel E. Bowers, Herculleville, N. Y.; Magdalen Lewis, Mason City, Ia.; Mrs. Carrie Smiths, Flanders, Kansas City, Mo.; Horace Cummings, city; H. B. Arnold, Ogden, Utah; Mae V. Wellington, Kan.; Miss May Avery, Syracuse, N. Y.; Clara Stott, Eureka, Utah; May W. Peates, city; I. S. Bentley, Corry, Pa.; J. Hamilton; J. Hamilton, Columbus, O.; N. St. Brodie, Walsenburg, Colo.; Miss Cora Stonhouse, Pueblo, Colo.; Levi E. Young, city; Nellie Priddle, city; Alice M. Murphy, city; Herman city; Herman J. Locke, Kansas city, Mo.

THOSE WHO HAVE ACCEPTED.

Clerk Morton reported that she had notified the 159 teachers elected by the board for the ensuing year of their employment, and had received notices of acceptance from 177 of the number. He also reported that Della L. Shanl, Belle Flanagan and Anna Bitzer had declined, while Mary Grant Major, Minnie L. Thompson, J. O. Cross, Rose Larson, Sallie L. Cox, Marion E. Graves, Lillie Atkinson and J. A. Langton had not been heard from; also that J. G. Roberts had refused to accept the salary of $85 per month, but had stated that he would consider an offer of $90 per month. Committee on teachers and school work.

AN ILL CONSIDERED LETTER.

A letter was received from Teacher Roberts of the high school, in which he announced that he would not accept a position to teach the ensuing year at the salary proposed—$85 per month, but stating that he would accept at $90 per month. When he first came to Utah it was from Indianapolis where he had been deceived (by whom he failed to state) into believing that he could better his condition here. He was informed that if his services were satisfactory he would be advanced $10 per month each year until a maximum of $150 was reached. Continuing he said:

"I felt confident that I could succeed, and, drawn here by these inducements, only to find that I had been sorely deceived. I find that satisfactory work are not always considered by members of the board in electing teachers, and that politics may come into play at any time, which gives one's position an air of uncertainty.

With reference to certain matters concerning myself which were brought up in the board committee meeting recently, I wish to inform the board that one of their number had acted entirely independent of the teachers' committee in my case (as they probably know now). My suspicions are quite strong that the fact that my name was not on the list recommended, and hence not considered by the committee in their first election of teachers, was due not to the fact that my principal had not recommended me to the superintendent or that the superintendent himself was not in favor of my re-election, but because he (the superintendent) was advised by this member, who seems to have some influence over him, not to have my name on the list, and hence to give the committee no chance to even consider my election. Had I let the matter drop, as it was supposed I would, and said nothing, all would have gone off beautifully and I would not have been re-appointed, of course. But, as I did not, the man who was most violently opposed to me (for reasons best known to himself) turned, and I was vindicated, through his own efforts, perhaps. Whether or no, I think his action in the matter was an insult to the board as well as a great wrong to myself. These and other things have decided me in not accepting the salary of $85, which is $5 less than that promised me."

WANTED TO TAKE IT BACK.

Subsequent to the writing of the letter above referred to, Roberts penned another letter to the board, saying that he had since modified his views, and asked permission to withdraw the communication. The request was denied and the clerk instructed to notify Mr. Roberts of that fact, together with the further statement that his services would not be required for the ensuing year.

The committee on teachers and school work reported the following list of graduates from the High school this year:
