Effort Will be Made to Secure Services of Martin W. Littleton, Thaw's Lawyer.

WHAT IS WIFE'S ATTITUDE?

Matter of Paramount Interest and Importance for Both Sides Of the Case.

New York, Aug. 18.—A predominating figure in the Hains-Annis trial today is Mrs. Claudia Hains, the attractive wife of Capt. Peter C. Hains, Jr., U. S. A., who shot and killed William E. Annis, an advertising manager, at the Bayshore club, while his brother, T. J.
Hains, prevented any interference by holding a crowd at bay with his revolver.

What the attitude of Mrs. Hains will be is of paramount interest and importance to the lawyer for the Hains brothers and to the district attorney.
Rumors were rife today that Mrs.
Hains will drop her hostile demeanor toward her husband and will take her place at his side when the trial comes.
However, the report came from no authoritative source, and Mrs. Hains and her lawyers are silent as to her plans.

Mrs. Hains, it is said, has returned to her home in Massachusetts. Her lawyer, Frederick L. Norton, of Boston, who came here to advise her, announced today that he will have a statement from her within a day or so.
Capt. Hains and his brother will be represented by the best counsel that can be procured. John F. McIntyre, a former assistant district attorney, and one of the ablest lawyers practicing at the criminal bar, was retained today, and it was said that an effort would be made to get Martin W. Littleton, who defended Harry K. Thaw, to join the defense. Mr. Littleton is now in Europe.

"FIGHTING BOB" EXPLAINS SPANISH SHOOTING STORY

New York, Aug. 18.—A special dispatch from Lake Mohonk brings the following story of Admiral Evans. The other day a friend asked him:
"Admiral, is there any truth that after the battle of Santiago you called out from the bridge of the Iowa to the captain of a Spanish battleship:
"Those Spaniards can't hit a d-thing except water?"
Admiral Evans laughed and replied:
"I will tell you what I really said and what the incident really was," he said. "One drizzly day during the blockade we stood in toward the harbor and shelled the shore batteries. It was not as exciting as it might have been, for whether we hit anything or not I know the Spaniards did not quite come near us. After the shelling was over, a press boat lay alongside of my ship and a newspaper man asked if we had been hit. I shouted back:
"They didn't hit anything except water, and they couldn't hit that if there wasn't so d— much of it!"

ALARMING INCREASE OF RY. FATALITIES IN INDIANA

Chicago, Aug. 19.—An alarming increase in the number of railroad fatalities in Indiana during the past two months has caused the railroad commission to demand of the roads more systematic and persistent efforts to prevent accidents.

Railroads operating in that state yesterday received an order in which a more extensive use of warning signals at crossings and on bridges is demanded.

We cook our wheat in pure Vermont maple syrup, to make this perfect food enticing.
To make children like it better than fad foods—better than foods not half so good for them.
Once let them taste Mapl-Flake and they will never again be content with inferior cereal foods.

Whole wheat is the ideal food for hot weather.
It is the food of the ages. Nothing can take its place.
It gives the maximum nourishment while producing the minimum heat. In summer, wheat should largely take the place of meat.
But wheat must be prepared rightly, else much of it fails to digest. The particles must be separated, by cooking and heat, so the digestive juices can get to them.

So we steam-cook our wheat for six hours.
Then we cure it for days—a partial digestive process.
Then each separate berry is flaked so thin that the full heat of our ovens attack every atom.
Then those thin flakes are toasted 30 minutes in a heat of 400 degrees.

Flaked foods can be made in one-fourth of this time. The making cost is less, but the cost to you is more.

For a half-cooked food only half digests. The other half goes to waste. It ferments and disturbs digestion.

directed as one means of doing away with the loss of life. Special emphasis also is placed upon the necessity of co-operating with local authorities to keep trespassers off the tracks.

Present conditions, the commission declares, involve "an unnecessary and continuous loss of life in a highly civilized country." The Indiana commission had previously denounced it as "the great American crime."

The commission points to the fact that 173 persons were killed while traveling on the tracks of cars of the railroads in Indiana during the year ending June 30, 1908. A large increase in these fatalities and in fatalities at highway grade crossings, it is stated, is shown in accident reports for July and August.

BUTTE TELEPHONE STRIKE.

Butte, Mont., Aug. 18.—A Miner dispatch from Billings states that the reading of the annual report of President Alex. Fairgrieve was the feature of the second day's session of the Montana Federation of Labor. President Fairgrieve dwelt upon the recent Rocky Mountain Bell Telephone strike, which he said was one of the bitterest labor struggles in the history of Montana. In connection with the settlement of the strike, President Fairgrieve paid a tribute to the late D. J. Hennepsey, the merchant prince of Montana. He reviewed the boycott decision in connection with the trouble with Lindsay & Co. In concluding, Mr. Fairgrieve spoke of the new affiliation with the American Federation of Labor, of recent legislation, and of the federation newspaper.

He recommended that the latter question be referred to a committee, with instructions to devise ways and means for establishing such a publication.

TWICE INDICTED.

R. W. Partridge, Ex-President of National Lumber Company.
Washington, Aug. 18.—Two indictments were found today by the grand jury against Robert W. Partridge, one time president and manager of the National Lumber company, now in the hands of a receiver, one charging false pretenses in obtaining $15,000 from Rev. Father Eugene Hannan, rector of St. Martin's Catholic church, and the other alleging that Partridge committed embezzlement on the sale of stock of the company to Father Hannan, by misrepresentation. Partridge is not now in the city.

FORAKER WILL NOT GO FISHING WITH TAFT

New York, Aug. 18.—Senator Joseph B. Foraker of Ohio arrived here tonight and will leave for Washington in the morning. When asked to discuss the political situation he declined, saying he had no special information as to the national situation or the situation in Ohio.

"Are you going to join Candidate Taft at Middle Blue Island, Lake Erie, when Mr. Taft goes on his fishing trip?" was asked.
"Although I am a member of the fishing club at which Mr. Taft will stop, my business engagements are such that I shall not be able to get there during Mr. Taft's visit," the senator replied.

When it was suggested to the senator that it was expected that the fishing trip would have turned into a little love feast between himself and the Republican candidate, he laughingly remarked that everything was perfectly friendly between himself and Mr. Taft, and that there was really no occasion for a love feast.

Tell Us a Child That Lacks It

We want to know the children who are not getting Mapl-Flake. We will buy a package for them. Let them tell you how they like it and you'll buy it for them next.

syrup, to make this perfect food enticing.
fad foods—better than foods not half so good for them.

ADMIRAL EVANS ON RETIRED LIST

"Fighting Bob" Reaches Age Limit and Passes from Ranks Of Active Sea Fighters.

OLD SAILOR HIGHLY HONORED

Formal Celebration of Great Event Took Place in Parlors of Mountain Hotel, Lake Mohonk.

Lake Mohonk, N. Y., Aug. 18.—Far from grim warships and the sea, where he spent nearly half a century in the service of his country, Rear Admiral Robley D. Evans of the United States navy, who is at this quiet mountain hotel, reached the limit of 62 years today and passed from the ranks of the country's active sea fighters. He has been the longest serving (but two years short of half a century) of any man who has reached the rank of rear admiral in the United States navy.

CONGRATULATIONS POUR IN.

All through the day the hotel was thronged with admirers of "Fighting Bob," in order to congratulate him on his sixty-second birthday and to wish him many more happy and useful years. Telegrams by the score reached him from all parts of the country. All had been the longest serving (but two years short of half a century) of any man
miral in the United States navy. Many of the messages brought delighted smiles to the admiral's face, while others brought just a suspicion of moisture to his eyes.
The telegram in particular which came from an old friend in Washington said:

"For some of us, skipper, your flag will always fly."

Sailors, soldiers, statesmen and citizens, in fact, every walk in life was represented in the great outpouring of messages which came to him today.

In reply to a friend who asked the admiral how he felt on his sixty-second birthday, he replied facetiously:
"Fit as a fiddle. I am 62 years young today, and I expect to reach 100. I am taking on flesh at the rate of half a pound a day, and I have not got a thing to do but loaf."

He added that he did not get well under such circumstances.

The admiral said he expected to stay here until October, when he will go to Washington, to be associated with the general board in an advisory capacity.
He added that he expected to do some work before he left here, having arranged with a magazine to write 12 articles on naval matters.

HIS GREAT DISAPPOINTMENT.

Asked regarding the probable effect of the cruise of the fleet around the world which he commanded from Hampton Roads to San Francisco, the admiral said that he believed its influence was already being felt. That the cruise would add more than mere prestige to the United States as a world power, the admiral asserted in no uncertain tones.
He said it was the greatest disappointment of his life that he was unable to keep the command at least until he could visit Japan, where he has a great many friends among the statesmen of that country.

Questioned in regard to the war talk between the two countries, the admiral said that there would never be any war unless the United States forced it upon Japan. He said the Japanese are a sensitive people and the greatest little fighters in the world, and it is not a wise policy to annoy them too much.

He further stated that Japan's attitude toward China was greatly misunderstood in this country; that it was not her desire to colonize China, but that she merely wanted to have a hand in directing her policies. He said the only interest the United States should have in China was to maintain the "open door." Further than that, he cannot expect to gain anything, he declared.

FAVORS GREAT NAVY.

The admiral strongly asserted that the United States is in duty bound to maintain a large navy. He declared that he had always held that our best guarantee of perpetual peace is to be so strong that other nations will be afraid of us.

"We should have 24 battleships in both the Pacific and the Atlantic oceans," said the admiral. "Sixteen of these should be in commission in each fleet."

After the audience had sung "America," Andrew Draper of New York made the address of presentation of the loving cup which was a gift from the guests of the hotel.

Mr. Draper said: "This is a place of peace. But it is as far from peace as any place on earth. It is a place of sorrow, from insipidity as from unjust aggression. This is a good place to celebrate the completion of an admiral's active career, and it is a good place for a strenuous sailor to slow down the engines and find shelter in security and peace."

The cup is of silver, gold lined, with the hands, and the beautiful engraving. One side bears the inscription:
"Presented to Rear Admiral Robley D.
Evans by the guests of the Lake Mohonk Mountain house, on his retirement from active service in the United States navy, in appreciation of his long and distinguished service, Aug. 18th, 1908."

Another side bears the engraving of a modern battleship, while on the third side, beneath crossed flags, is a record of the different commands held by the admiral during his term of service.

In accepting the loving cup Admiral Evans made a touching address.

"BOB" VERY MUCH PLEASED.

"Ladies and Gentlemen: In one respect at least naval officers are exactly like any other worthy servants of the people—they are glad when they receive a gift from their employers.
From what I have heard and seen here tonight, it seems that during my 48 years of actual service I have given satisfaction to you who may fairly be assumed to represent to me the people of the United States—my employers. I have not the necessary words with which to thank you for what you have tonight done for me. Please accept my sincere thanks for the beautiful gift, which will be preserved and valued by those of my family who survive me.
It may not be out of place for me to say that during my 48 years of service I have done all in my power to uphold the honor and dignity of my country, and that I have loved the dear old flag as I love nothing else in this world. That I have suffered severely under that flag must be evident to any one who sees me, but I would live my life over again just as I have lived it. If I knew the suffering was to be a thousand times as great, I go to the retired sailor, feeling that it is a reward for long and honorable service, and I hope to enjoy the rest and comfort it may bring, unless some emergency shall call me back into active service, when I shall give all that remains of me to my country as willingly as I have given the best years of my manhood."

"I thank you again most sincerely for the courtesy you have shown me."

cure others why not you.
If your case is complicated, write us for advice, it costs you nothing and may save you prolonged suffering.

"I was so crippled that I could scarcely walk. After having my shoes on for an hour or two I could manage to walk by suffering the pain. Then I began to have pains all through my back and neck and I had an acute attack of inflammatory rheumatism. I read about Dr. Miles' Nervine, bought a bottle and commenced to get better from the start and for the past six months I have been able to walk as well as ever."

SWIMS ENGLISH CHANNEL WITHIN MILE OF FRANCE

London, Aug. 18.—Of the many attempts to swim the English channel, none has been so successful in success than that made yesterday by T. W.
Burgess, the blacksmith swimmer. Burgess swam the English channel in his aton the coast of France, because of the adverse conditions of the water at Dover Monday morning and in spite of the rough sea and the currents which carried him in the wrong direction.

He remained in the water for 20 hours and 11 minutes. He was still strong when he gave up.

Just at the close of the exercises a

GRAVE FEARS FOR SAFETY OF MISS ANNIE H. PECK

Lima, Peru, Aug. 18.—Alarm is left here for the safety of Miss Annie H. Peck of Providence, R. I., the noted mountain climber, who on Friday afternoon signaled her arrival at an altitude of 20,000 feet on Mount Huascarán, the summit of which is covered with perpetual snow.
That time no word has been heard from Miss Peck or the two Alpha climbers who accompanied her.

Miss Peck's feat in reaching an altitude higher than that attained by any other woman or man in the world was learned here with astonishment and admiration, and her return from the mountain was eagerly looked forward to. Her failure to return or to communicate in any way since Friday noon caused grave anxiety and various expeditions were organized and have started to her assistance.
