HOW MR. BRYAN

Newark, N. J., Oct. 23 .- New Jersey today poured out her hosts to greet William J. Bryan. Refreshed by a long stop last night, following two luborious days in Ohio and West Virginia, the Democratic candidate was in splendl l form and took advantage of this to inject into his utterances a spirit which enabled him to impress his audience everywhere. Traveling at a nerve-racking clip over a zigzag course in a handsomely equipped special train, in charge of State Chairman J. R. Nugent, Mr. Bry-an was enabled to talk to a great num-ber of farmers, laboring men and oth-ers in the farming and industrial cen-ters of the state. Evidently inspired by President Roosevelt's recent dec-laration on the subject of labor, in which President Samuel Comports and himself were severely criticized. Mr. Bryan chose for his main text the la-bor question, i 1 in most of his speech-es, of which there were 16, made merry with the president. He accused the president of butting into the campaign again, and deposing Mr. Goupe's and said sarcastically that he expected be-fore long that he bimself would he deposed and Nicholas Longworth, the president's son-in-law, placed at the head of the Democracy. He never lost an opportunity to define the difference between the platforms of the Repub-lican and Democratic parties with re-spect to labor and explained with minute detail the pledges which the Democratic party made at Denver to secure the remedial legislation for which the Republicans had urged a deaf ear. Incidentally, at West Philadelphia, on his way to New Jereverywhere. Traveling at a nerve-racking clip ove: To which the Republicans had trene t a deaf ear. Incidentally, at West Philadelphia, on his way to New Jer-sey, the candidate referred to the fact that his voice had held out so well because he had no rarged arguments to pass through his throat. While at White Horse, seizing upon the name for a with prediminary to the speech he a witty preliminary to the speech, he

'I am here at last. It has been rather a long journey, but happily endel." His platform having outlined the remedial legislation which Democracy demanded should be enarted, h said it would be carried out in the letter and m spirit and that was about all he could say in an inaugural address. At Trenton, he told the people that he had a united Democracy behind him and a frightmed Republican party in front of him. Immense throngs greet-ed him at Trenton, Phillosburg, Somer-yills, Elizabethnort, Perth Amboy, New Zhunswick and here. On no day durng journey, but happily endel ville. Elizabethnort, Perth Amboy, New Brunswick and here. On no day dur-ing the campaign were his remarks more interrupted with expressions from his audiences indicating the friendli-ness toward him than on this. The elizers of the eventful day was when he visited Newark tohight. The whole city was aglow with red fire, and his morrises through the streets to the ruditorium where he spake was noth-ing short of a great ovation. A seeth-ing short of a great ovation. A seeth-ing mass of humanity followed him to the hall, already long before packed to its capacity, while on the outside were countless thousands who, unable to gain admittance, made it necessary for him duniftance, made it necessary for him

The air was rent with cheers as he unfolded the Democratic policies and burled an avalanche of criticism upon the Republican party for its failure to listen to the demands of the people. Upon the conclusion of his remarks

New Orleans, Oct. 23.—On her bridal tour, which had begun scarcely one hour before, and seated in a railroad coach almost between her husband and a former suitor for her hand, Mrs. Fred Van Ingen last night saw the flash of the sultor's revolver, feit the sudden grip of her husband's nane as the builet struck and killed him and then turned and fought for her own life. When the girl appeared about to become the victim of a sec-ond builet from the revolver, her un-cle rushed up and thrust his thumb be-neath the hammer of the revolver, jamming the mechanism and render-ing the weapon harmless. This was the story which the pas-sengers on the Texas & Pacific "Can-non Ball" told when they reached this city today, but the principal actors of the tragedy, most of whom are cou-nected with prominent Louisiana fam-lies have so far refused to discuss the affair. pose it." Charcoal has been used for absorbing foul odors and neutralizing noxious gases for centuries. Dupont, the powder manufacturer, learned that willow shoots two to three learned that willow shoots two to three years of age made the best charcoal. It is most porous. Feld breath, whether from stomach or teeth, pyrosis (or gastric pain), diar-thoea and consthation simply cannot exist under the action of charcoal. Charcoal oxidizes all gases, or in other words, changes foul smelling odors into oxygen, thereby doing a ay with all foulness and rendering even such gases beneficial to the system by giving it more oxygen. The lungs puri-fy the blood with oxygen from the air. Dying patients have oxygen adminis-tered to their system artificially and live for days under this treatment. Start's Charcoal Lozenges are made from willow shoots and sweet honey. Thus they are palatable, strong and natural. No medicine is used whatever, but the peculiar Stuart process aves them a decided charm and efficiency which endears them to all consumers. One may use them as one likes. AFTER POLICE RETIRED BOMB WAS EXPLODED

Chicago, Oct. 24.—Bomb No. 23 was exploded early today, after the police-men placed on watch in all parts of Chicago since the renewal of the bomb outrages, had gone home. It did more damage than any of its predecessors, practically destroying a one-story brick building in Fourteenth street just east of Michigan avenue occapied by Ber-nard Marcus, as a saloon. Firemen who were asleep in their quarters across the street, were thrown from their beds by the explosion, which torse out most of the front and completely wreeked the interior of the building. Patients in St. Mary's hos-pital were aroused and a slight panic prevailed for that building was shaken from basement to roof, and only prompt work by the nurses prevented disorder.

prompt work by the hurses prevented disorder. Marcus, the saloonkeeper told the police he was at a loss to explain why the bomb had been placed on his premises. He declared he had built the place only a month ago. A man who refused to give his name to the police was arrested near the scene of the explosion. He said he was at Sixteenth street and Indiana avenue when he heard the explosion and ran to learn its cause. He said he saiw a man running away, but when the police began questioning him he became confused and would not answer. He was then arrested.
