LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

THEATRE.—Last evening the interesting drama of "The Secret of a Life" was played in a style fully sustaining the reputation of the principal artistes who represented the characters.

This evening, for the benefit of Mr. F. M. Bates, a most extraordinarily attractive bill is announced, consisting of the beautiful and romantic drama of "Ingomar," and the side-splitting "Toodles." A more interesting and attractive selection could hardly have been made. Mr. Bates plays "Ingomar" and "Mr. Timothy Toodles," and "Mrs. Bates "Parthenia" and "Mrs. Talaitha Toodles." Miss Adams and Miss A. Clawson and Messrs. Margetts, Thorne, Marden, and Dudley also appear.

OUT ON BAIL.—Thomas Hawkins was admitted to bail in $5,000 bonds yesterday, pending the passing on his case by the Supreme Court of the Territory. He left for his home in Lehi this morning.

RELEASED.—C. W. Baker, was released on a writ of habeas corpus by judge Strickland yesterday.

RETURN AND OBLIGE. The persons who have borrowed two volumes of the "American Encyclopedia" from this office will oblige by returning them immediately.

MISSIONARY MEETINGS.—"H. A. S." writes from Paradise, Cache county:

"Two days' meetings were held in this Ward on Saturday and Sunday, April 27th and 28th, Bishop O. N. Liljenquist presiding. There were present, Bishops Wm. Maughan, Henry Hughes, Milton Hammond, and George O. Pitkin; also Elders H. Walker, C. Larsen, C. C. Shaw and T. Parkinson. Much valuable instruction was given upon the every day duties of the Latter-day Saints. All felt thankful to God for his mercies and to acknowledge his hand in all things.

"The Sunday School assembled at half past eight a.m. and the exercises were creditable to both teachers and children."

BALDWIN'S MONTHLY, the neat periodical circular of Baldwin, Clothier, New York, for May, has come to hand.

NOTICE.—Utah Co. Branch of the D. A. and M. Society.—A meeting will be held on Monday next, 6th May, in the basement of the meeting house in Provo, at 11 o'clock, for receiving the amended rules and for the election of a President and Board of Directors. It is hoped that the whole of the District or Ward Directors, or their nominees, will attend, for unity is strength.
D. GRAVES, Secretary.

CIRCULAR.

ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OFFICE,
Salt Lake City, May 1st, 1872.

To the County Court of ——.

Gentlemen.—The recent decision of the Supreme Court of the United States in the LIQUOR CASE from this Territory, renders it necessary for your Honors to resume the duties of selecting Grand and Petit jurors for the District Courts, under the Act entitled, "An Act defining who are exempt from serving on juries and prescribing the mode of procuring Grand and Petit jurors and juries for District Courts and for other purposes," approved January 21, 1859, and the Act amendatory thereto, approved February 18, 1870.

The acts necessary for you to examine to enable you to discharge these duties will be found in Utah Laws, pp. 68, 69, and the statute of 1870, p. 126.

QUALIFICATION OF JURORS.

1. They must be male citizens of the United States over the age of twenty-one years.
2. They must be residents of the county and must have resided therein one year next preceding the selection.
3. They must be of reputed sound mind and discretion and not so disabled in body as to be unable to serve.
4. They must be persons not convicted of a capital or an infamous crime.
5. They must not be officers or soldiers of the United States army, or subject to their military authority, unless their home was in this Territory at the time of their engagement.
6. They must own taxable property and pay taxes in the county.

WHO EXEMPT.

No person should be selected who belongs to the classes of persons mentioned in the first section of the Act.—See the section.

NUMBER OF JURORS.

The number to be selected is at least fifty, and there ought to be kept on the list at all times at least fifty persons—more would be better.

Their names in full, not initials only of either name, should be written with their occupation and place of residence.

This selection should be entered on the journal of the County Court and their names written on tickets, which must be folded so that the name does not appear, and placed in a jury box.

In making these selections great care is requisite so as to require jury service to be as equally borne as possible, but this ought not to prevail over ability. The jury ought to be good, judicious, well disposed persons, and lovers of law and order.

HOW TO BE DRAWN.

When the officer having the venire calls on the clerk of the County Court to draw the jury, the box with the tickets therein must be thoroughly shaken by the clerk, and there drawn therefrom the number of names called for in the venire, keeping two lists, one for the Grand and one for the Petit Jury. They both then sign these lists and file the same with the Clerk.

You are respectfully requested to give your early attention to this subject.
Z. SNOW,
Attorney-General.

NO PALLIATION.—Some papers have undertaken the futile task of defending the indefensible judicial conduct of Judge McKean, of Utah. There is no palliation for his disgraceful course. He knew that he was running his court in violation of law, and that he was committing moral perjury by allowing himself to be hounded on to the persecution of the Mormons through the forms of judicial procedure. The Mormons are bad enough; their marriage customs are abominable, but they are not so disgraceful or demoralizing as the conduct of the judicial officer who uses his place to pander to the bigotry and prejudice of unscrupulous adventurers who have gone to Utah to rob the people of the proceeds of their labors.—Indianapolis Journal.

We acknowledge that "the Mormons are bad enough." We know that without being told. Rather tell us truly how they can become better. And further, show us the community that does better than they do, bad as they are represented. That's what we'd like to see. The abomination of the "Mormon" marriage customs are simply these—the "Mormons" marry and honor women; other people dishonor, prostitute, and disown them. With all deference to the Journal, we certainly must approve of these "Mormon abominations," and we are satisfied the Lord does too.

NEW FIRM.—It will be seen by an advertisement in another column that the job printing firm of McEwan and Stenhouse is dissolved, the last named having sold out to Mr. Jas. A. Thompson. The business will be carried on in future under the firm name of McEwan and Thompson.

FIRST WARD LIBRARY.—Brother H. Mitchell informs us that a public library was opened in the First Ward on May day. There was a party in the afternoon for the juveniles and one in the evening for the bigger folks, when the time was spent in dancing, singing, &c. Additions of books to the library are being frequently made.

CALLED.—We had a visit yesterday from A. J. Jordan, Esq., who is in the city as representative of the firm of Friedmann and Lauterjung, manufacturers and importers of cutlery, &c., 14 Warren Street, New York, one of the soundest and best houses in their line in that city. Mr. Jordan will remain in town several days, during which time he will be engaged in forwarding the interests of the firm of which he is the agent.

MAIL IRREGULARITIES.—The following extract from a letter, written at Mount Pleasant, Sanpete Co., April 30th, by Mr. Edward Cliff, is respectfully submitted for the consideration of the Mail Agent for the Territory. The fault is evidently in failing to make connection at Nephi, as the mail from that place to Sanpete, it appears, arrives regularly. "There are many complaints regarding the non-arrival of your valuable paper when due. Sometimes the WEEKLY does not come to hand until a week old, and the SEMI-WEEKLY the same, and then both numbers come together, causing your subscribers many fruitless errands to the post office. I do not know who is to blame; our mail from Nephi, however, arrives on time. Unless there is a change for the better soon, you will lose many subscribers. We think the mail agent should see to and rectify such mismanagement without delay."

ABOUT THOSE DISPATCHES.—The Associated Press, organized to gather and transmit through the telegraph important information, is based upon the supposition that its agents are not only active, intelligent, and discriminating, but honest and impartial. The journals composing the association, and the people who read, pay heavily for facts, and they want facts, not opinions. The last named each one is possessed of without price and in the greatest abundance. In opposition to this theory of organization we have a scandalous fact that every day grows more and more offensive. There is an agent at Salt Lake city whose atrocious falsehoods fill the minds of the better informed with utter amazement. With unblushing impudence he openly manufactures bare-faced lies while looking his victims in the face, because they are Mormons and supposed to be helpless. This is a very poor sort of business, as it ends generally in a defeat to the shallow defamers; and even now the followers of Brigham owe more to this fellow for a reaction in the public mind than to any other source. But we put it to the managers of the Associated Press whether it is good policy to thus demoralize public confidence in their organization. If it cannot afford to employ a decent, honest, intelligent agent at Salt Lake, the agency had better be dispensed with. We suppose we could exist for several months without hearing from the Saints, and we could live many, many years in peaceful tranquility without hearing from this poor devil of an agent.—Washington Capital.

"WANDERER," writing from Salt Lake to the Bozeman Avant Courier, April 9th, says—

"The constant theme of public chat is—Will the State of Deseret be admitted into the Union, and will the Supreme Court sustain the rulings of Judge McKean? The answer you can as readily give and as truthfully make as I can, and yet the answer to both is of vast importance to this people. The first involves the question of religious toleration, and the second the equally grave question, how far Federal officials can set at naught the Legislative will. The decision of both or either will affect to a degree the social and financial status of this people. Socially, if admitted—for the reason that then the power will be with the Mormons, and the exercise of this power may and, as I believe will, be for an enlargement of the blessings of social refinement and tend to a higher development of the social qualities that adorn and dignify our natures. Others think differently. Financially, I can see no harm by admission. The railroads will have a higher and more certain legislation than they now have in their interest. The mining interest will be promoted for the reason that legislation will be had that will allay the ever timid and cautious nature of capital, and will be productive of protection to labor."
