SHOCKING TRAGEDY IN OGDEN STREETS

Little Lorenzo Royal Shot and Instantly Killed by Playmate.

ELOPEMENT ENDS HAPPILY.

Father Fails to Prevent Marriage Then Forgives Elopers from Laramie—District Court Notes.

OGDEN, May 6.—Lorenzo Royal, the 10-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. William Royal, 3550 Adams avenue, was shot and instantly killed, last evening at about 9 o'clock, by a playmate named George Smith, while they were playing with a shotgun, which they did not know was loaded.

The Royal boy accompanied by his brother, went to the home of the Smith boy at about 8 o'clock in the evening and were playing in the street near the corner of Thirty-sixth street and Jefferson avenue. As near as can be learned the boys were playing "football" and to make it more real, the Smith boy procured a shotgun and when standing close to the Royal boy, he raised the gun and pulled the trigger. The full load struck the Royal boy in the breast. Uttering a sharp cry he threw his hands in the air and sank to the ground, expiring almost instantly.

As soon as the frightened boys could recover from the shock they hastened to the Smith home and told of the accident, and Dr. Dickinson was summoned. When the doctor arrived the boy was dead. An examination of the wound showed it to be about an inch diameter and had entered the left breast, almost completely shattering the entire left breast. Dr. Dickinson stated that the shot severed some of the arteries above the heart, causing instant death.

The parents of the dead boy were distraught with grief over the deplorable accident, and have the sympathy of the community in their hour of bereavement.

George Smith is the 13-year-old son of George R. Smith, a tinner, residing at 304 Jefferson avenue. William Royal is a carpenter in the employ of the Southern Pacific company.

An investigation was conducted by Judge Murphy, ex-officio coroner, and it was decided that an inquest would not be necessary as the shooting was entirely accidental. The body was removed to the family home where it will be held pending funeral arrangements, which will be announced later.

ELOPEMENT'S HAPPY ENDING.

OGDEN, May 6.—After making a fruitless effort to prevent the marriage of his daughter to the man she loved, George Phillips, a restaurant man and lodging house keeper of Laramie, Wyoming, who arrived in Ogden yesterday, forgave the children and bestowed his parental blessing upon them and then organized a bridal party to Salt Lake City.

Lake City to show them the sights. Such is the story of true love that now runs comparatively smooth.

Mabel Phillips, accompanied by Mrs. J. A. McKay of Laramie, arrived in Ogden Sunday evening. The next day, Mrs. McKay and the bridegroom-elect, Garth M. Sangre, arrived in the city. Yesterday afternoon the young couple accompanied by the McKays, went to the court house and secured a marriage license. Later they were married by Rev. H. D. Zimmerman of the Baptist church.

The fraternal father of the bride, learned of the destination of the couple, sent a telegram to Sheriff Wilson to arrest the couple and hold them until his arrival. Sheriff Wilson found the couple yesterday in a Lincoln avenue rooming house and kept them in custody until the arrival of the bride's father.

Mr. Phillips did not try to conceal his hatred for the McKays for the part they had played in the runaway match, but later his anger cooled when his daughter bestowed a few loving kisses upon him. The father immediately forgave the children and gave them his blessing, and extended an invitation to them and the McKays to go to Salt Lake City with him and see the sights.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

OGDEN, May 6.—The chamber of commerce held a short session last evening and heard a number of reports and made a few recommendations. It recommended the granting of the petition before the city council at the present, asking for the opening of Twenty-ninth street, both east and west of Washington avenue.

The Ogdan road committee recommended that the city council experiment with the sprinkling of the streets of the city with oil. The block selected for the experiment was Grant avenue between Twenty-fifth and Twenty-sixth.

The mining committee was instructed to complete the filling of the mineral cabinet at the Union depot.

AUGUSTUS KELLY ON TRIAL FOR MURDER

Must Answer to Jury for Shooting Samuel Waycaster at American Fork.

(Special Correspondence.)

PROVO, May 6.—Ernest Augustus Kelly of American Fork is on trial in the Fourth district court on a charge of voluntary manslaughter. The following jury was impaneled to try the case:

Canby Scott, Edward V. Vincent, Joseph Jensen, William Thomas, Jr., Joseph E. Wilkins, Karl J. Thompson, Sven J. Nelson and John Hindly. Kelly is being defended by Judge Whitcomb, and Dist. Atty. Cluff is conducting the case for the state.

On the morning of April 4 the defendant and Samuel Waycaster, who had both been drinking, were on their way home in American Fork. They entered a quarrel and Waycaster fired two or three shots at the defendant. Kelly took Waycaster's pistol away from him and shot him in the head, and Waycaster died from the effects of the wound soon after. The defendant claims that the shooting was in self-defense.

DECISION IN HOLMAN CASE.

PROVO, May 6.—Yesterday Judge Good rendered a decision in the case of Pleasant Grove City vs. Artemus Holman et al. Before entering upon the legal phase of the case he said:

"It is to be regretted that the parties in this suit did not get together in an amicable way and settle their differences, as I think they could have done if the parties had met in a friendly spirit and each of them had wanted to do what is right."

The suit was against defendants for an appropriation of expenses for maintaining an irrigation system controlled by the city from which defendants obtained water, and the judgment was in favor of the city by $250. By reason of plaintiff's failure to properly consult with the defendants, and the defendants' failure to make proper tender of the amount justly due the plaintiff, neither recovery costs, except that the defendants shall pay costs of court and each party pay its own witnesses.
