OGDEN, July 23 .- The Ogden postoffice has been under a heavy guard for more than three weeks, according to information that was given out yesterday afternoon. All the clerks, mull wagons drivers and others around the postoffice have been armed with revolvers and every precaution has been taken to safeguard the interests of Uncle Sam at this point.

taken to safeguard the interests of Uncle Sam at this point. Suspicous characters seen hanging around the postoffice building either in the day or at night are ordered away and the police detail has been arrangen so that there are officers near the post-office every hour of the day and night. This undue precaution was taken foi-lowing a "tip" from the United States secret service men to the police and Postmaster Shu'tliff shortly before the Hot Springs and Morgan postoffice rob-beries. It is thought that the men ar-ranging the robbery got information have left the city. It is stated that members of the government secret ser-vice are in this city working upon the Hot Springs and Morgan robberies in connection with postoffice inspectors and they are also giving the local of-fice much of their attention.

DRUNKEN AUSTRIAN SHOT AT MIDVALE

MIDVALE, Salt Lake Co., July 22 .--MIDVALE, Sait Lake Co., July 22.-Frank Blum, an Austrian, was shot by C. H. Sorensen shortly after last midnight, while attempting to break in-to Sorensen's residence. Blum was ar-rested later and held on the charge of attempted burglary, and had his hear-ing before Justice Niels Lund. The testimony brought out the facts that Blum was drunk the night before, and came to the Sorensen residence think-ing that it was the home of one of his countrymen. After walking around the house two or three times he tried to open the front door. Finding it locked, he went to the back door and attemp-ed to force an entrance.

The party consisted of J. C. Hise, in-spector in the government immigration bureau, a matron, Mr. and Mrs. Waiter Turner, three sons and two daughters. Three years ago the Turners came to Ogden at the solicitation of friends. Shortly after arriving here Mr. Tur-ner developed a case of melancholia which it is stated was bordering on in-sanity. The heplessness of the family was made known to the governmen! and the case investigated. It was found that Turner had been affected before leaving Canada and he was or-dered deported to Copper Cliff, Canada, to which place the man and his family were taken yesterday. As the family of seven entered the train to leave Ogden they presented a pitiable sight and caused tears to come to the cyses of many who were con-versant with the case and knew their plight. All wanted to stay in Ogden and had expressed their determination of doing so when the father was order-ed deported but through some law they were compelled to accompany.
