NEW YORK.
Drowned—Railway smash-up—McMahon flying back with dreadful carnage—$150,000 Robbery—Cuban League outbreak in Southern France—News of an engagement.

NEW YORK.—It was discovered yesterday morning that the great safes in the rooms of the Board of Missions, of the Methodist book concern, number 865 Broadway, had been robbed of property to the amount of a hundred and fifty thousand dollars. The contents of the safes were private property, bonds, money, plate, &c., deposited by clergymen for safe keeping, and seems to have varied in the amount, according to the circumstances of the depositors, there being in some instances the small savings of parish preachers, and the larger accumulations of fortunate and fashionable prelates, were taken, but registered bonds were found among the papers on the floor. There is no clue to the perpetrators. The officials of the Concern are very reticent, and refuse to say anything to the reporters about the matter, saying that they have been advised by detectives to pursue this course, and they asked that this statement should not be published. The only persons having rooms on the floor, with the exception of an artist and one other person, are churchmen connected with some of the Methodist churches. A rather strange circumstance of the degradation is that the safes are in no wise injured, but were opened by keys, and as they were fitted with combination locks, to open them, the thieves must have obtained combination numbers or characters. The safes were of Marvin's make and were considered first class of their kind.

The Cuban's league met last night, and framed new rules for its government. The league adopted a resolution of sympathy with the Cuban cause and its representations. Various questions relative to the cause and its furtherance were discussed.

The World's London correspondent telegraphs, "we hear of serious outbreaks in various parts of southern France and Brittany, against persons suspected of German sympathy: the peasantry of Champagne, Lorraine and Alsace are rushing upon the lines of Prussian communication. Capt. Von Plonski was captured by a body of sharpshooters near Vitry, and has not been heard of since. It is said that Colonel Dupin, famous as a commander of Contra guerrillas in Mexico, is organizing a corps in Lorraine."

A cable special to the Herald, dated London 31, says an engagement took place yesterday between a strong force of Prussian cavalry and the advance guard of McMahon's army; after a hard contest the French fell back, when the Prussians took possession of Carigan, on the line of the railroad from Sedan to Thionville. To-day the fighting was renewed at Arrigny, on the same line of railroad, ten kilometres from the Belgian frontier. In consequence of the position of the contending armies the Belgian troops, under the command of Flanders, are stationed at Philippville.

A special to the Tribune, says a special correspondent writes from Berlin 29th, three reserve armies are forming, which consist chiefly of the Landwehr, but partly new troops of young men who, on the outbreak of war, volunteered to serve before their time. This year's recruits, who, in time of peace, would not have been called on before October, will be levied immediately, to be hastily drilled. One army is forming at Cologne; the second at Berlin, and the third at Hamburg, in the Palatinate under the Duke of Mecklenburg. The movements of the troops are very active. Five thousand guards left last night to fill up thinner regiments, and more leave to-night. The three reserve armies are for eventualities, when peace approaches and neutrals interfere. Italy's course is received with suspicion, and Mecklenburg's army may go into Upper Alsace as a precaution.

The loss of the Methodist book concern by the recent robbery is smaller than at first reported. Only a small safe, supposed to contain less than twenty-five thousand dollars, is known to have been plundered.

Ernest E. Stowell, for many years a prominent merchant in this city, was drowned in Chicago Lake this morning.

ALBANY 31.—The Saratoga special train which left New York at 3.30 was run into, at East Albany, by an engine used for switching purposes; the baggage car and the north end of the drawing room car were smashed. Fortunately no persons were injured. The train was delayed here three hours.

KENTUCKY.
Population of Louisville.
LOUISVILLE, 31.—The examination of the census returns of this city was concluded this afternoon. The official count places the population of Louisville at 100,029. This falls thirty to forty thousand below the estimate of population by citizens before taking the census.

ILLINOIS.
Sanitary Fair—More about the fighting.
CHICAGO.—The German sanitary fair is now fairly under way and proving very successful. A large sum will doubtless be realized.

The Times New York special says a private dispatch from Brussels, this morning, says that fighting has been going on four days, between McMahon and Prince Charles. Both armies are working for a position, and the engagements have been between detached corps. The fighting however, is said to have been desperate. The Prussians have captured three eagles, four mitrailleurs and several thousand prisoners, while the French have captured thirteen pieces of artillery, including the famous Tubingen battery. There was a fresh engagement again this morning about six miles from the Belgian frontier, between the command of Frossard and the Prussians, under Von Weyd, which it is believed here, at Brussels, will involve both armies in a decisive battle.

A dispatch from London, dated, midnight, says that McMahon has been utterly routed, after a two days' battle, and is reconnoitering on Paris. It is believed here by military men who have closely followed the war news that McMahon will not fight except to win; he is strongly posted in the Argennes, his flanks resting on neutral soil, and he will wait to be attacked or until the Prussians give him a chance to strike them hard.

MISSOURI.
The Prize Ring.
ST. LOUIS, 1.—A double prize fight, between Gallagher and Meeker, and Punch Morris and O'Donnell, was fought at Carrot Island, below this city, yesterday. Gallagher beat Meeker in eleven rounds, time ten and a half minutes; Meeker was terribly punished. The other fight was drawn at the end of the second round.

MARYLAND.
Legal Decision.
BALTIMORE.—United States Judge Bond, decides that federal courts do not properly have jurisdiction in cases arising under the registration provisions and for the enforcement of the 15th amendment, and that Congress did not intend to interfere with each State's qualifications of its voters except to remove those imposed by race, color, or previous condition.

WYOMING.
Indians Peaceable.
CHEYENNE.—A telegram from Ft. Fetterman says, that G. Sherry, with eight thousand head of cattle, arrived there yesterday; the Indians at first objected to their passing up the Platte River, but satisfactory arrangements have been made, through Col. Chambers and John Reahaw, and they will go on unmolested. They expect to arrive at South Pass about the twelfth. A party of Sioux arrived yesterday. Red Cloud, with a large body of Indians, is expected in two weeks to meet the peace commissioners, Brunt and Campbell.

WASHINGTON.
Reduction of Debt.
WASHINGTON.—The reduction of the debt for August is $12,403,323. The coin balance in the Treasury is $12,554,108, including $28,415,330 in coin certificates; the currency balance is $7,135,949.

FOREIGN NEWS.
GREAT BRITAIN.
Meeting among the Bavarians—Bombardment of Strasbourg—McMahon flying back with dreadful carnage.

LONDON, 31.—A close examination of telegrams and letters creates an impression that McMahon's northern movement may succeed in effecting the release of Bazaine's forces from Metz. It is now known that the King and Crown Prince's headquarters were at Bar-le-Duc on the 21st. The Prussians first heard of the abandonment of Chateau on that day; cavalry scouts sent out thirty miles knew nothing of McMahon's whereabouts. He left Chateau on the 21st and Rheims on the 22nd and reached Sedan on the 24th. It is believed that French troops, reported at Bethel yesterday, were reinforcements sent from Paris and that McMahon's missing force is now about 180,000 strong in the neighborhood of Montmedy, where they intend making a desperate attempt to reach Metz.

A large body of Mobiles passed the Rhine near Coltinger, and cut the telegraph and retreating. Precautions have been taken to prevent such incursions hereafter. It is reported that three army corps have entered France from Baden.

The Independence Belle, of yesterday says McMahon's army, while on the heights of Vaux on Tuesday, advancing to Montmedy, was attacked by the Germans, and being back with dreadful carnage. This region of country is now absolutely depopulated. The correspondence with the Prussian account of action near Beaumont, reported the last evening.

The Bavarians are returning home and disbanding, a mutiny having occurred among some of the regiments of the Bavarian Landwehr.

A Vienna telegram denies that Marshal Bazaine was ever caged at Metz. Another battle is reported at Arrigny on the 30th. No particulars of the result have been received.

There is an unverified rumor that McMahon is crossing the Meuse, at Stenay, and pushing for Montmedy; he has six hundred guns. A collision between him and Prince Frederick Charles is expected. The garrison of the new position for 100,000, is hurrying to the defense of Paris. Le public admits the spuriousness of the telegrams, which were received lately, signed Bazaine. Should the French Emperor cross the Belgian frontier, the guards of the latter country have been ordered to demand his sword. Other severe orders have been issued for the purpose of guaranteeing the preservation of Belgian neutrality.

LONDON, 1.—It is said that Marshal McMahon disobeyed the Emperor's orders to detach thirty thousand troops to protect the Prince Imperial. The Emperor and the diplomatic corps remain in Paris.

The siege of Strasbourg continues; there has been great slaughter from the bombardment. The garrison made successful sorties on Tuesday night, driving the Prussians several miles. Passengers between London and Paris hurry through by way of Dover. The French frigate, which captured the Julius off Plymouth, was seen on Wednesday at dusk, pursuing a large German ship, which was making every effort to escape.

The Figaro's canard, about the sailing of German privateers from America, causes public indignation against the editors.

FRANCE.
French victory—More attempts to deceive—Old muskets seized.

La Liberte says Austria, subsidized, pledged herself to France to move on Prussia simultaneously with payment. Ollivier, the Prime Minister, agreed. The money, however, was not paid. Austria pressed the matter on France, when Ollivier replied "Go, we fight without you."

Three hundred thousand old muskets, discovered in the hands of dealers, have been seized and distributed to the forces collected here for the defense of the city. Le Public says there was no fighting yesterday, the government, however, has good news. McMahon's march has been undisturbed. The Duke of Palikao warns the newspapers against publishing pending important movements of the army. Bazaine has won several small engagements. Bazaine forbids correspondents to affix the name of the place whence they were writing. Ollivier is now in Paris. The ministers go to Tours immediately.

The French Minister at Washington denies the story of the German filibustering from American ports. Last night, De Chailles assured the club that the French won a victory at Courcelles, in which thirty thousand Prussians were placed hors du combat, and a large amount of baggage and provisions captured.

The Journal des Debats says that a number of wagons and fifty-nine horses belonging to the Prussian Prince Royal were captured near Chalons recently. French officers wear overcoats like the privates to avoid the enemy's sharpshooters. A legion of four thousand naturalized Germans is forming at Marseilles for the army.

A letter from Strasbourg continues the complaints against the Prussians, for firing on houses and not on the defenses, one quarter of the city has been destroyed. The inhabitants claim death rather than surrender. The besiegers employ prisoners in the trenches.

In the Corps Legislatif, last evening, it was declared that Strasbourg deserved well of the country, and should always be French. Deputy Keller demanded the sending of a commission to arm the people of the upper Rhine, who were ready to rise en masse.

The Bishop of Strasbourg has urged the commander to hold out till the last prayer is uttered, and then retire to the citadel and raise the city rather than let it in the enemy. It is said that two hundred thousand Prussians have been killed or wounded since the war began.

BELGIUM.
Serious Fighting.
ARLON, 1.—Serious fighting is reported between Athigny and Doso. The Prussians entered Carigan at ten o'clock yesterday.

Correspondence.
NEPTI, Aug. 29th, 1870.
Editor News.—I telegraphed you a list of the President's company from Springfield yesterday p.m. The party consisting of your city at different times of the day on Saturday last, reached American Fork, Pleasant Grove and Provo in a scattered, but not at all demoralized condition. All feel well and start out on this visit as missionaries, to do the Saints good.

President Joseph Young's remarks, on Sunday morning, at Provo, related mostly to his experience on his late mission to Europe. He manifests much solicitude for the poor of the old country, and had he the means at command every Saint would be most kindly remembered by this philanthropist.

President Brigham Young followed in remarks directed pungently to those who had promised support to their poor friends, to those who had borrowed money to help themselves to Utah and have neglected to refund, to the many who have been assisted to immigrate by the F. E. C. Co., but do not pay up, and to all in any wise under obligations to the ungrateful Saints.

At the afternoon meeting, at Provo, President Brigham Young again addressed the large congregation. He said that the Saints could leave their homes, property, etc., at the bidding of the devil, as at Kirtland, in Missouri, Illinois and other places, while many object to give a few of the many dollars they possess in peace, to assist in gathering the poor, etc., and object to do many things the Lord asks them.

President George A. Smith followed, much in the same strain, urging the people, with much force, to remember the poor abroad that they may be gathered to enjoy the blessings of God in these peaceful valleys.

I almost forgot to refer to the very excellent singing by Bro. Daniels' choir. The Provo Woolen Factory is progressing finely. It will be, when completed, a fine and much needed structure.

The Dusenberry Bros. are alive in school matters. The President paid them a handsome compliment in respect to their school. He also referred, with pleasure, to the success attending your labors in the manufacture of type, paper, etc.

At six p.m. the good people of Springfield met to hear the President and his counselors, who addressed the large and eager audience in a very encouraging and comforting manner.

The roads are very dusty; fruit in most settlements abundant, as also grain in Utah and in this country.

Major Powell, illustrious for navigating the great Colorado, is, with his company and outfit, on his way south. We pass and re-pass each other daily.

At meeting here this evening President Smith and Elder Hyde addressed the Saints.

President Hyde and a number of the Bishops from Sanpete came over to see the President.

In haste,
A. MILTON MUSSER.
