SUNDAY SALOONS MAY CONTINUE.

Those Whose Licenses Were Revoked to Get New Permits.

LOOKS LIKE ROARING FARCE

Transparent Excesses of Proprietors And Big Trust Promises—Action of Committee on License.

The council committee on license at its meeting last night considered the matter of renewing A. R. Margette's liquor license and also the issuance of a license to Orestes Spears for the Browning and Dahlstedt saloon. The licenses for both places were revoked by the council because of violations of the Sunday closing ordinance. Mr. Margette appeared before the committee and stated that his saloon was kept open by his bartender, during his absence in the mountains, and against his positive orders. He promised to observe the law in the future and his license is to be renewed.

Mr. Spears was represented by Attorney James P. Smith, who stated that his client had purchased the saloon from Browning and Dahlstedt. Mr. Spears is a brother-in-law of Mr. Browning, who sold out to Dahlstedt, who later sold to Spears. Dahlstedt was working at the place since Spears bought it. Tuddenham argued that it would do no good to revoke the license if the offenders were permitted to take out licenses in other people's names.

Attorney Smith said that Spears would give the chief of police a key to his saloon and that the sale was bona fide. The committee decided to make a favorable report on the matter. The old members of the present committee at the committee meetings were called in so that a show vote could be taken to see how the council stood on the matter, so that the saloon would go on with their business without waiting until the committee's report was acted upon at the next meeting.

The committee on police decided to hold up the bill of the Pinkerton Detective Agency and make an unfavorable report on it. In addition to railroad fare both ways and $8 per day for the services of the detective during the Elks' convention the bill also contains a charge of $24 for tickets to the resorts and "incidentals." The item of "incidentals" was entirely new, and the committee said it was a gross violation of the law and an unfavorable report will be made on it.

IRRIGATION CALL.

One of Supplemental Nature Issued by Utah Officials.

The tenth annual convention of the National Irrigation Congress is to be held at Colorado Springs Oct. 6-9, inclusive, and Vice President T. V. Shurtliff and Committee Chairman J. Kiesel for this state have issued the following supplementary call:

It was from Utah that the call for the first National Irrigation congress was issued and was in our capacity that the first delegates assembled and were made cordially welcome. The initiative thus taken was most auspicious. The tenth session of the congress has been held in Salt Lake, and the half score of successful congresses, having for their object the study of intelligent irrigation and the reclamation of the nation's arid lands. The culmination of the mighty movement thus instituted is the recent enactment of one of the wisest and most beneficent of congressional measures, the Irrigation act. The result of this act is felt by the people of our state in this record should prove a spur to further endeavors in the same direction, for the act remains to be done.

The tenth session of the congress promises to be the most important ever held. It will have weighty problems to deal with—problems now passed from the theoretical to the practical stage, and the task invites the best ability, experience and wisdom that the country can furnish.

Improvement and prestige shall be in the forthcoming congress all that they have been in the past, and if possible greater and more potent than ever before. We request attention to the official call hereto appended, and most earnestly urge the prompt appointment of the full number of delegates to which our community is entitled.

Colorado Springs is pleased to give royal hospitality and entertainment to her visitors on the occasion—Oct. 6 to 9. The event will be a national one, and not alone of a local nature, but a high deliberative council as well—abounding with gratitude for favors that far exceed the most generous of the nation.

With such a capable, numerous and energetic delegation as ought to be selected to carry Utah's colors into the congress, we shall as a consequence reap another splendid victory in the good cause, and contribute in making the Colorado Springs session the most notable and successful ever held in the west.

FRED J. KESSEL,
Member of the Executive Committee.

SALT LAKERS VISIT CARTHAGE.

Delegates to Trans-Mississippi Congress View the Old Jail There.

WHAT PAPERS SAY OF THEM

Apostle John Henry Smith and Others Interview an Eye Witness to the Prophet's Assassination.

Under the heading "Visit the Mormon Mecca" the Carthage Republican, under date of Sept. 10, has the following: Carthage came as near the kingdom Friday as she can ever hope to come till the president and J. Pierpont Morgan visits this place. For on that morning there arrived from the west a company of "Mormon" men, women and children, to take a look at the old jail, the place where their Prophet Joseph Smith gave up his life. It didn't take them half as long to see this place as it does for the writer to take them to see it and what they are to Salt Lake City. First comes John Henry Smith, capitalist, second comes the Prophet Joseph Smith, and the rest of the Twelve Apostles of the "Mormon" Church in Salt Lake. His wife accompanied him. With him were W. R. Riter, wife and five children, George Romney, wife and daughter, Henry Dinwoodey, wife and grandson, Alfred Cutler, John R. Barnes of Kayville, Utah, wife and daughter. These gentlemen are prominent business men of Salt Lake City, engaged in banking, manufacturing, mining and mercantile interests, and any one of them could make a nice country for themselves in any other part of the world.

Among the interests in which these gentlemen are engaged are the great "Mormon" Co-operative Commercial Institution, the Deseret company, the Deseret National bank, the Co-op. Furniture company, the Dinwoodey Furniture company, the Salt Lake City Woolen Mills, Consolidated Wagon & Machine company, besides many little side lines such as banking and retail business. The only thing that they have in common is that they are all Salt Lake City residents. The only thing that they have in common is that they are all Salt Lake City residents. Shortly after 11 o'clock the Beardsley girl went to her room and locked the door. Nothing was thought of this until about 6 o'clock, when she failed to put in an appearance. Another female inmate to the cell, knocked on the door. Receiving no reply the door was broken open, and the unfortunate young woman was found lying unconscious on the floor.

The girl came here from Seattle and it is believed she came from a good family as she refused to leave the cell after being taken to the hospital. She was devoted to her mother and had devoted much of her time to reading.

Owes His Life to a Neighbor's Kindness.
Mr. D. P. Daugherty, well known throughout Mercer and Sumner counties, W. Va., most likely owes his life to the kindness of a neighbor. He was almost hopelessly afflicted with diarrhoea, and was attended by two physicians who gave him little, if any, relief, when a neighbor learning of his serious condition, brought him a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which cured him in less than twenty-four hours. For sale by all druggists.
