BOLD HOLDUP OF RIO GRANDE NO. 5.

Passenger Train Due in Salt Lake This Morning Dynamited By Robbers.

BRAKEMAN SHOT IN THE LEG.

Railroad Fired on Train Hand as He Ran With Lantern Up Track.

BAG OF SPECIE WAS SECURED.

Exciting Scene on the Baggage Car And Brave Action of the Messenger.

Denver, June 8.—Denver and Rio Grande passenger train No. 5, westbound from Denver, was held up by five masked men three miles west of Parachute, a fruit station midway between Grand Junction and Glenwood Springs last night. One sealed bag containing specie was taken from the express car, which was wrecked by dynamite, but the robbers were forced to take to the mountains before they could gather up the valuables in the car.

POSSIBLE IN PURSUIT.
Sheriff W. G. Struthers and Deputy Sheriff D. M. Harly of Grand Junction are now upon the trail of the robbers with a posse of farmers and ranchers, who were quickly summoned from the vicinity of Grand Junction.

Sheriff Frank Adams, with another posse from Glenwood Springs are also scouring the surrounding country.

CRAWLED OVER TENDER.

When the train reached a point three miles west of Parachute last night two masked men crawled over the tender of the engine. They placed six shooters to the head of Engineer Allison and his fireman and demanded that the train be stopped. Three men were waiting on the tender and as the train stopped they quickly ran back and uncoupled the express and baggage cars. These cars, with the engine, were run two miles further west.

CREW THREATENED.

The members of the train crew were ordered to remain with the passenger coaches on pain of being shot. When the point selected for the dynamiting of the express car was reached, the engineer and fireman were ordered down, and the robbers covered them with two six shooters. The remainder of the gang went to the express car.

NERVOUS MESSENGER.

Messenger D. M. Shea of this city, refused to open the car upon demand and piled the baggage of the car up to the front of the car. The robbers placed a stick of dynamite at the side door of the car. The entire door was blown away with a terrific crash. Half a dozen trunks which had been piled up against the door were demolished and their burning contents scattered over the car.

KNEW THEIR BUSINESS.

The great iron combination safe was the only one in the car. The robbers showed that they were conversant with conditions on the road, for they did not even demand the messenger to open the safe. They knew that he did not have the combination. This safe can only be opened in Denver and Salt Lake.

BRAKEMAN SHOT.

Just at this point brakeman Shellenberger, who had been ordered to remain with the passenger coaches, two miles behind, came running up the track carrying a lantern. One of the robbers shot at him. He was wounded in the leg and is now in the Sisters hospital at Grand Junction.

ROBBERS FLED.

When the robbers saw that the train crew were coming they fled to the mountains. One of them was seen to jump from the express car grabbed one sealed bag which had been blown clear out of the safe. This was the only plunder which was taken.

The engineer and others who had been under the aim of the robbers went to the aid of Shellenberger, who had fallen where he was shot.

ALARM RAISED.

After the hold up, the engine, baggage and express cars backed to Parachute, where the alarm was given to the railroad officials.

Headquarters at Grand Junction, Salida, Pueblo and Denver were notified.

USED A BOAT.

The scene of the robbery was but 600 yards from the flow of the Grand river, and it is believed that the robbers had a boat hidden in the Grand and that they used this to cross the river, destroying it after they had crossed. The robbers who held up the Rio Grande train at Unaweep a year ago escaped in a similar manner.

Sheriff Struthers believes that the robbers escaped on horseback after crossing the Grand.

MANAGER EDSON THERE.

J. A. Edson, manager of the Denver & Rio Grande Railway, who was on the train that was held up, has sent the following report of the robbery:

"Grand Junction, June 7.—St. K. Hooper, general passenger and ticket agent; No. 5 was held up by three men two and a half miles west of Parachute. Baggage car dynamited and very badly damaged. Robbers got nothing of value. Twelve of 15 pieces of baggage quite badly damaged. The baggage was transferred to mail car and went forward on same train."

MESSANGER'S REPORT.

Express Messenger D. J. Shea has reported as follows to D. D. Mayo, the manager of the Globe Express company:

"Express car and through safe were badly demolished with dynamite. No valuable or express goods taken, except one sealed package for C. Gaky, Grand Junction, from Salida. Several pieces of baggage damaged, but no express goods injured. I was not hurt."

Detectives were sent from this city today to join in the search for the robbers. All incoming trains are being watched.

Bloodhounds have been sent from Leadville to the scene of the robbery.

It was reported here that the robbers taken by the robbers contained $5,000, but Manager Mayo of the express company says that they secured only a small sum.

St. Louis, June 8.—The historic liberty bell arrived here today in response to the petition of 90,000 public school children of this city, and will remain in the Pennsylvania building until the close of the world's fair.

It is estimated that over 50,000 schoolchildren formed a portion of the great throngs that greeted the bell when it entered the grounds. The ceremonies were held in the Plaza of St. Louis. A chorus of 1,000 high school pupils sang "Concord," after which the mayor declared the day of the joint special committee of councils of Philadelphia, presented liberty bell to the exposition. Three of the children are at Ciudad, Juarez, for which point Mrs. Emma S. Woodruff, mother of Apostle Woodruff, left last night, accompanied by her son-in-law, William McEwan. The other child, a baby a few months old, was with its mother when she died, but will likely be removed to Ciudad, whence all four will be brought home.

As stated in last night's "News," the remains of Mrs. Woodruff were laid away yesterday, though whether by regular interment or cremation is not known, as it is reported that the laws of Mexico demand that in fatal cases of smallpox the bodies must be cremated. On this point particulars will be awaited with much interest.

Travis drove further than during the amateur championship contest, but his putting was inferior.

Thus far Thomsen, a professional, leads with a score of 75. The score of E. M. Myers, American, was 81.

MILES B. McDONNELL KILLED.

R. E. Preusser Shoots Him and Surrenders Himself.

Albany, N. Y., June 8.—Richard E. Preusser, of the broker firm of R. E. Preusser & Co., today shot and instantly killed Miles B. McDonnell, a traveling man of Albany, in his hotel's room on the second floor of the Teneyck hotel. Preusser then quietly walked down the stairs, through the lobby where a dozen persons were sitting, and out to the street to police headquarters. At the entrance of the latter building he met two officers who were on duty to take him to the Teneyck, having been telephoned for.

To them Preusser said in a quiet tone: "I've just killed McDonnell, and I came here to surrender myself."

He then obtained permission to use the telephone and informed his wife that he had killed McDonnell and had given himself up. Mrs. Preusser arrived at headquarters and remained afterwards and the two had a long talk in Chief Hyatt's private office, after which Preusser was placed behind the bars.

In court later Preusser's counsel waived examination, and he was sent to jail on a charge of murder in the first degree. His friends claim that his mind is affected.

Boston, June 8.—Persons associated with Miles McDonnell, the victim of last night's shooting at Albany, in the management of the Metropolitan Stock exchange here, say that Preusser arranged at headquarters with McDonnell and they attribute the shooting only to intoxication or insanity.

It has been learned that McDonnell had been in New York since the New York case Dec. 27, 1903. In a street over gambling matters, McDonnell surrendered to the police, claiming that he acted in self-defense and was acquitted after a brief trial.

FREE POWER AT FAIR.

Utah's Concentrating Plant New Ruus Full Blast Without Expense.

Secretary John Q. Cannon of the Utah Louisiana Purchase exposition commission, received a telegram today from Director General Whitaker that he had been granted free electrical power to operate the model concentrating plant which is the feature of Utah's mining exhibit at the fair. The news was received with much satisfaction by the directors and other members of the Utah commission as it means a saving to the state of about $500 per month, as it would have cost that much to secure power for the mill.

Decker of the branch normal at Cedar City also addressed the teachers in a strong talk. The music of the day was furnished by the Misses Daniquist, and included both vocal and instrumental selections. Dr. Vincent inspected all departments of the institute today.

MARTIAL LAW REIGNS SUPREME.

Teller County Once Again Under The Control of the Military.

IT HAS A SALUTARY EFFECT.

Acting Governor Haggott's Proclamation Recites Condition of Affairs.

INSURRECTION AND REBELLION.

Declared to Exist—Dispute Has Arisen Over Right to Hold Inquest on Bodies of Victims of Explosion.

Cripple Creek, Colo., June 8.—Teller county is once more under martial law and the military is in supreme command. Adj.-Gen. Sherman M. Bell and staff arrived in Victor early today and immediately promulgated military rule by posting on the door of the armory, where a large number of union men and sympathizers are imprisoned, Act. Gov. Warren A. Haggott's proclamation. Gen. Bell is in command and will be assisted by Col. Edward Verdeckberg. Two companies of infantry are on duty, company L of Victor and company H of this city, both of which had been called out by the local authorities before martial law was proclaimed, and had been assisting in making numerous arrests during the past two days.

Declaration of military rule has already had a salutary effect. All factions in the camp are tired of the long drawn out controversy and are planning a settlement. That the union miners who went on strike Aug. 10, 1902, would be glad to bury the hatchet is shown by the publication of a two-column editorial in the Victor Record, the mouth piece of the Western Federation of Miners, urging that the strike be called off.

Gen. Bell has assumed command of the military and control of the district and has called a council of the officers of the local military company officers. He has also ordered Col. Verdeckberg, who had charge of affairs in the district when martial law ended there several months ago, to the district.

THE PROCLAMATION.

The proclamation reads: "Whereas, There exists in Telluride county, Colorado, a large number of armed persons acting in conjunction with a large number of persons outside of that county who are lawless and acting together for unlawful purposes, and

"Whereas, Open riot and insurrection now exist in said county of Teller and lawless and murder have already been committed by such persons and are threatening to commit murders and felonies and are offering violence to the citizens and property in said county, and are resisting the laws of the state of Colorado, and

"Whereas, At divers and other sundry times various crimes have been committed in said county of Teller by such persons and are threatening to commit murders and felonies and are offering violence to the citizens and property in said county, and are resisting the laws of the state of Colorado, and

"Whereas, Threats, intimidations and violence are threatened and believed to be resorted to by said lawless class of individuals, and

"Whereas, It is represented to me by the sheriff of said Teller county that the civil authorities within said county are unable to enforce the laws to secure peace and order in said county, and that it is necessary to put the military into said county for the purpose of enforcing the laws and restoring peace and order."

Now, therefore, I, Warren A. Haggott, acting governor and commander-in-chief of the military forces of the state of Colorado, by virtue of the power and authority in me vested, do hereby proclaim and declare the said county of Teller in the state of Colorado to be in a state of insurrection and rebellion.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the great seal of the state of Colorado to be affixed at Denver, the state capital, this seventh day of June, A. D. 1904.

(Signed) "WARREN A. HAGGOTT."

"SHERMAN M. BELL, Brigadier-General and Adjutant General."

At 2:30 o'clock this morning Gen. Bell and the mine operators, led by Charles M. MacNeill and C. C. Hamlin, were preparing to take a secret trip down the Short Line railway, their destination being unknown, every member of the party taking the greatest pains to conceal the purpose of the trip. No sooner had Gen. Bell arrived than the trip was suggested.

DISPUTE OVER INQUEST.

A dispute has arisen over the inquest on the bodies of the victims of the Friday night explosion. Corner James Doran, who resigned under pressure, brought to bear by the Citizens' Alliance, the pressure being a noose around his neck, according to his statement, now says that his resignation does not go, and that he will hold the Independence inquest. He has empaneled a jury for that purpose. George Hall, the new coroner, appointed as Doran's successor, is also proceeding to conduct an inquest.

Gen. Bell said today: "We will not bring any outside troops here unless the situation becomes worse than it is at present. These strikers did not appreciate the treatment we gave them when before. No resistance from them will be tolerated, and if necessary they will be shot down."

Gen. Bell intimated that further negotiations will be made today. The Citizens' Alliance and the mine owners, who are in control of the camp and county, upon the receipt of word of the military, have determined to support all idle men except those against whom information charging crimes will be filed.

Maj. H. A. Naylor, the new marshal
