

SUMMARY.
It is expected that the Alton and Springfield Railroad will be completed by the 1st of June.
It is said that dough made of hog's head and meal will make hens lay immediately after being broken up, and all winter besides.
Deacon Hunt says that when his oxen behave badly, he goes behind the load, sits down, and sings the old hundred; and it has a much better effect than beating them over the head, as he used to do.
Russian sheet-iron is manufactured near Pittsburgh.
Dr. Baird says the Emperor of Russia is not so absolute in power as many suppose; he has 13 ministers, an imperial council of 30 men, and a senate of 100, who do many things the emperor knows nothing about.
The Mexican war cost $98,000,000, including pay to Mexico, and soldiers' bounty lands.
India-mulberry bags are said to preserve water pure a great length of time, even in hot climates. [Wish our merchants would bring a few for trial.]
Great improvements in producing silk in Europe, by recent introductions of Chinese methods.
Gold in great abundance is said to have been discovered at the Sandwich Islands.
No first class at Oxford University, Eng., this year. [Does this indicate that the wisdom of the wise is coming to nought?]
Professor Stewart, of the Andover Theological Seminary, is dead.
Eight ladies graduated at the Philadelphia Female Medical College, Dec. 30th.
Mr. F. N. Gibbons has completed his telegraphic survey through the unexplored regions of Newfoundland; when the wire is laid we shall be one-third nearer England.
New enterprise, "California Institute," at San Francisco. We wish them success.
New cure for consumption. 6 or 8 grains of the phosphate of lime, with more or less cod-liver oil, as the patient's stomach is able to bear, taken every morning, noon, and night—Professor Stone. Dr. Warren thinks phosphate of Soda, may perhaps be preferable.
The Ohio State House at Columbus was burned Jan. 1.
A plethora of goods at the Sandwich Islands.
Gold-bearing quartz discovered on Shasta and Rogue rivers, Oregon, equal to California.
Four children in Boston, reported dead by eating skins of raisins; says Dr. Dewees, "there is no stomach (except the ostrich) that can master the skins of raisins." [Very little danger from raisins at present in Deere; but knowledge is good in the store house.]
Jenny Lind, now Mrs. Goldschmidt, after a three months' residence with her husband at Northampton, Mass., will sail for Europe.
It is said that Louis Napoleon is about to marry the Princess Charlotte Augusta of Sweden, great-granddaughter of Josephine; so it seems that Bonaparte and Josephine are to be re-married.
The Austrian government has ordered a levy of 80,000 men to re-enforce the army.
Rumor says Santa Anna is about to return to Mexico for another revolution.
Many of the principle engineering manufactories in London, Manchester, and other towns, closed in January, leaving 10,000 operatives out of employ, and all for fear of a strike; price, work, and time of labor were becoming too hard. [Starve a negro, and whip him for stealing bread.]
$300,000 are subscribed for a railroad from Cleveland, Ohio, by Chagrin Falls, to Enon, on the Pennsylvania and Ohio road.
The British brig firing into the American steamer Prometheus, at San Juan de Nicaragua, has made a great noise.
60,000 chests of opium, were imported into China in 1850; cost to India $40,000,000; profits to the British India government $15,000,000. The Chinese are drunk, business suspended, vice prevails, and John Bull says to them you must take opium to quiet your nerves, while you shake the bush for us to catch the bird, or while we drink your tea.
Terrible railroad accidents at home and abroad.
Jacob Little, the "Rail-road King," of New York, is reported failed.
Debts of general and State governments of America, bonded debts of cities and counties, bonded debts of rail-road and canal companies, loans and discounts of banks, in the United States, are estimated at $920, 490,676, 15, and what will they do when pay day comes? Deseret, although older than some who are owing their hundreds of thousands, is ready to foot her bill.
Phillips' fire annihilator is reported very successful in England.
A New York paper intimates that 539 ministers are wanted annually, in the growing west; and inquires "how can this want be supplied?" [When all other means fail, call on the "Mormons?"]
The British Government is about to establish a new convict settlement at New-Caledonia, in the Southern Archipelago.
Fighting is still the foremost business at the Cape of Good Hope; 6,000 Kaffirs under arms against the British troops.
A severe storm, accompanied by rain, occurred at Cagares which lasted two weeks, and caused a rise of fifty feet in the river, washing away men, cattle, and houses, and destroyed many vessels.
Thirty buildings destroyed by fire in Raleigh, N. C.
Henry Clay has resigned his seat in the U. S. Senate.
The crystal palace for the industrial exhibition of all nations, is now in progress of erection in Madison Square, New York, to be opened in May next.
Great fires in Canadaigua, N. York, South Boston, Philadelphia, &c., &c., destroying an immense amount of property and many lives.
Marshal Saul, the last of Napoleon's generals, died lately in France, aged 82; he was once a private soldier.
The most disgraceful rows are kicked up in the halls of Congress, the members exelling the Borgia-gate fish-women, in their language to each other, if we can believe the papers.
Coal has been found in California and Oregon.
Forrest, the great actor, and his wife have been spending fortunes in trying to be divorced. They have at last accomplished it, but not before exposing their own folly and corruption, and also the corruption of the moral and modest aristocracy of the United States. The decision of the chief Justice was most curious, viz., "That Mr. Forrest pay Mrs. Forrest $3,000 per annum for life; and that Mrs. Forrest be at liberty to marry at any time, but Mr. Forrest is not allowed to marry during the lifetime of Mrs. Forrest, whether she has another husband or not."
A fire broke out in an emigrant depot, in the city of New York, and in the hurry to get out of the house six persons were crushed to death.
Louis Napoleon has appropriated 200,000,000 francs the property of the late king of the French, and has distributed it in such a manner as to secure his place as President of France, and make way to be made Emperor.
The report from China is, that the Emperor has been dethroned by the people, and the usurper is placed in his stead.
A proposition has been made to the English and French governments, by an architect, to connect the two countries by a tunnel, which will cost about £12,000,000, or $63,000,000.

The English government is taking active measures to fortify the coasts and river Thames, fearing that Napoleon will carry out the plan of his uncle, and invade that country, to keep his immense army from cutting his throat and overturning his government.
A man was arrested in Vienna for buying children, at $230 each, and taking them to London for street musicians. He had 20 on hand when arrested.
The Sultan of Turkey has issued a firmán, allowing the Christian Protestants full liberty in his dominions, to worship God as they please, and permitting their marriages and births to be registered.
It takes but 3 1-2 hours to convey intelligence from London to Vienna, Austria, via the sub-marine Telegraph.
Five hundred troops have been lately sent to California via Panama.
John C. Calloun, the younger, has come out in a lengthy letter in the New York Herald, in favor of every nation and people governing themselves, and against Russia interfering in the Hungarian struggle.

It is determined in England to fit out 3 screw steamers to make further search for Sir John Franklin.
August 21, at 1-4 past 7, a.m., a fearful shock of an earthquake occurred at Guayaquil. Every house suffered.
Dr. Williams, of Sacramento State Hospital, was shot by a policeman, for quoting Shakespeare and laughing in the streets. The oblique course of the ball caused it to be resisted by the skull; otherwise he would have been instantaneously killed.
The cars on Baltimore and Ohio road, ran off the embankment at Savage Mountains, turning several somersets, and killing 4 passengers on the spot, and 11 others dangerously wounded.
Chinese immigration to California is very popular; 150 to 250 per week are reported.
Great freshets in Connecticut river, leaving the ice on the wharf at Hartford 10 feet high.
Doct. Graham is dead.
The San Diego Herald intimates that the Mormons are about to locate a Temple on the Rio Gila river. (Thanks to the Herald, always glad to get news.)
The best way to keep out wicked thoughts, is to be employed in good ones; let your thoughts be where your happiness is; and let your heart be where your thoughts are.
The form of godliness will no more profit a man, than painted fire will warm.
Foreign Letters.
Let not the people deceive themselves, and lose their labor; foreign letters must be pre-paid, or they cannot be sent to their destination, England excepted. There is a letter dropped in Salt Lake City Post Office, directed to Maurice White, Scripture Reader, Sailor's Home, Calcutta, India, Asia; if some one does not call and pay the postage, sixty-five cents, said letter will go to the Dead Letter Office. This is a looking-glass to all who want to see the fate of their Foreign Letters, dropped in the P. O. unpaid.

Items from Abroad.
Elder Wm. J. Perkins writes from Lahaina, Sandwich Islands, January 19th, 1852, that the work was progressing with rapidity; natives and whites enquiring—that George Q. Cannon had baptized 21 the day previous, and that there was a general call from all quarters for bro. Cannon to come and preach to them, as he understands the language.
The natives are surprised that the Mormons have baptized so many whites in so short a time, as the missionaries had only added one to their congregations since they commenced, which is many years. They tell the missionaries, that they "have not told them the truth."
The missionaries pronounce heavy curses on the heads of the elders.
WANTED IMMEDIATELY.—A Millwright or joiner, for a few weeks a good workman will find it for his interest to enquire at the Post Office.
STRAY CATTLE.—On the farm west of the 10 acre lot, in the Big Field, are many cattle, which, if not immediately taken away, will be treated as strays, for they are injuring the grain. Those who have been pasturing cattle on said farm, will please to settle with George Allen, before removing them.
Elder John S. Woodberry writes from Kauhau Kona, Hawaii, S. I., December 18th, 1851. He was learning the language, and was preaching and teaching as fast as the way opened. Prospects good.
Elder P. P. Pratt wrote his friends, from Valparaiso, Chili, Dec. 22. The civil war in that country was subsiding, and apparent prospect of approaching peace. He was making progress in the language; but the way had not opened for public preaching.
Governor Young has a pocket knife, made in the valley, good enough for congress.—Joseph Buxton, maker.
Crackers, in variety, at the Bakery, one block south of the State House. Brethren about to travel, may do well to call.
Elder C. C. Rich arrived on Wednesday, the 21st April, in company with 13 others, (among whom were two brothers Cahoon, and most or all we believe were brethren, though they have not reported themselves, and we know not their names,) direct from San Bernardino, the nearest rancho to the Cahone Pass, where the brethren are settled who went out from hence with brothers Lyman and Rich. Although many went from here not according to counsel, we are glad to hear that they have become satisfied of their wrong, and design to do so no more. One small family and two or three young men are all that have left that company for the mines, and there appears to be much less thought of the mines in, that company, than with those in these valleys. They had in 1800 acres of wheat, &c. when the General left, and have probably put in near a thousand acres of potatoes, &c. before this. They have generally been prompt to pay their tithing; a united and industrious spirit prevails. More particulars hereafter.
A Mail was received on the arrival of Gen. Rich's company, per hand of Isaac Hatch, via Los Angeles, which will, as we understand, supersede one mail from Sacramento. No special news, except from the elders, as we have noticed.
Presidents Young and Kimball, O. Pratt, W. Woodruff, Geo. A. Smith, Professor Carrington, Gen. Wells, Judge Snow, Atty. Blair, Sheriff Ferguson, Doct. Sprague, Surgeon Andrews, Clerk Clayton, Chemist John Kiy and some two or three dozen more left our city on or about the 22d April, for the purpose of an out visiting the southern settlements; exploring the country; ascertaining the situation of the Indians; making roads; building bridges; killing snakes; preaching the gospel; and doing and performing all other acts and things needed to be done, as they may be led by the Good Spirit; and we pray God the Eternal Father to bless and prosper and return them in safety, when they shall have finished their mission.
Military Ball.
The Officers of the Battalion of Life Guards, paraded in the capacity of a Military Ball at the house of Lieut. N. J. Jones, on Monday the 29th, March at 2 P. M. The party was favored with the presence of His Excellency President Young, and President Kimball and Gen. Wells. A more social assembly and finer time has not been experienced in any place. The Ball was opened by prayer from the host Lieut. Jones, when the following
ADDRESS
Was delivered by Capt. James Ferguson on behalf of the Battalion of Life Guards of the Nauvoo Legion:
BRETHREN AND SISTERS:—For the first time we have assembled in the capacity of a party of the Boys. Often indeed have we all been associated in festivals and enjoyed together the song and the dance: but never as now. The tony trappings of the table in former times and the soft effeminate looks of some one that dropped in, all compared with the pleasing rudeness of a Soldier's life. This is a Military Ball. Here we have the rudeness of the camp. Here hang the colors we defend. Here hang the still honorable sabres that form our companions in the field. Around us are the household gods we have enlisted to protect; and before us are the chieftains we love to obey. And for what have we met here? What is a Military Ball? Where are your lessons? Can we find the meaning of the words in them? or will they not meet with the same response from custom in that they do in a myriad other words and customs? Dictionaries you lie. A Military Ball does not mean a Military Ball. Custom makes it an association of sashes and oaths, of epaulettes and bragadocio, of uniform and ribaldry of mustaches and seduction, of impudence and cowardice. The words imply, a convention of caution and valor, of beauty and honor, of friendship and peace! What then shall we follow? The customs of graduated corruption or the true import of the sounds? Whatever is right.
If corrupt hearts assemble together and desecrate the fireside of their friends, or the ball room to which they are invited by oaths and bitterness and seduction and villainy, it is right—that the devil should have the privilege of recognizing his own. If the noble minded come and seek to happy each other and throw off the toils of the camp or the counting house and improve the faculties of body that are given them, that they may be the more prepared for other toils and cares,—it is right,—right that the name of our Father may be honored and his children enjoy themselves. For this then we have assembled.—To honor God and refresh ourselves. How happy and how peaceful! And yet, and yet, there is a pang, and yet, there is a deep, deep sigh. I can see the tear on the roughest cheek. The stoutest heart doth palpitate. We are not all here. One is missing that would have been here. David he is gone. No more will the merry sound of the assembly echo through the brazen tubes of a mortal trumpet from his lips! No more will we hear from him the Revellie and the Tattoo. He has gone to his grave: his valizes and his quicksteeds are silent: no more prances the war horse to the time of his bugle; but will we not hear him again; will he not hail us from our sleep with a Revellie of immortality? Will he not learn for us the better music of a better world? Oh! yes! we will hear him again. The flower out down so early will bloom again. His winter has come and his spring will soon come, and bring out the buds of immortality.
Farewell, farewell to the exiled most faithful! Thy trumpet is silent the mouthpiece is gone. Yet again, Oh! so sweetly, with gestures more graceful,
Will thou play on its valves a loftier tone!
A thousand recollections crowd upon us now! The vengeful recoctions of a savage race, seems to glare wildly upon us! The horrors of a campaign in the winter, and the destroying heat of the summer desert are recalled! And that holy escort, that formed a guard on our front and our wings and rear, is recalled too and the recollections are all happy: The prayers of our leaders and friends are recalled too and we are grateful. The friendship and welcome of our chieftains are recalled too and we are devoted. We have not come as do the ungodly, to trumpet the applause of their butchery. We have come to perpetuate peace and union. We have come to talk over the toils endured and see how much we have to thank the Lord for. Ours is not a contest for honor (such honor as the world can give.) It is a contest for salvation; salvation for ourselves and for those with whom we fight. If we shed blood, it is that atonement may be made. We are soldiers that we may be saviors. We are instruments to be used.
Here then do we offer ourselves, chieftains of Israel. The follies and the faults of youth and imperfect manhood have been ours. Forgive them, command, we obey!
The simplicity of the fare, the sociability of the company and the kind and manly deportment of the few who are always ready and obedient to defend the saints and assail her brawny enemies, rendered the affair extremely agreeable. The party broke up soon after midnight and was dismissed by benediction from Gen. Wells.
Home Manufacture.
Since the first of last October, I have worked up 30 weight of wool for my own family use, into cloth and stocking yarn; and I have woven for customers, besides my own work, 53 yds of plaid cotton, and 66 yds of plaid linsey, and 73 yds of plain linsey, and I have also wove 163 yds of carpeting, of which I have doubled and twisted and colored the warp for 64 yds; making the number of yards of cloth that I have wove, in all, 376 1-2 yds.

AN ORDINANCE, establishing and regulating a City Pound.
Sec. 1. Be it ordained by the City Council of Great Salt Lake City, that there shall be, and hereby is, established a Pound in this City, the superintendent thereof, to be appointed by the Council, to superintend the same, until removed from office.
Sec. 2. It shall be the duty of the superintendent of said Pound, to keep a true and faithful account of all animals delivered to him; from whom received; and to whom delivered; the amount of damages done by said animals; and to whom paid; and make a full report of the same to the City Council, once in three months; or oftener, if required. Said superintendent shall be required to give bonds in the sum of one thousand dollars for the faithful performance of his duty.
Sec. 3. All persons taking up animals, doing damage within the limits of this city, shall use due diligence to notify the owner thereof, if known by brand or otherwise; and all animals taken up, the owners not being known, may be taken to said Pound, and placed in charge of the superintendent thereof, together with the damages done.
Sec. 4. No person shall be entitled to damages, unless a certificate of damages, signed by three persons, appointed by the Mayor, or Aldermen, be produced to the owners of said animals.
Sec. 5. No damages shall be collected from the owner of said animal or animals, unless, in the opinion of the appraisers, they have broken in through a good and lawful fence.
Sec. 6. All damages done by any animal or animals, the owners being known, and a bill of the same being presented (as required in the 4th section of this Ordinance) may be collected from said owner before the Mayor, or any Alderman of said city, as a matter of debt.
Sec. 7. And be it further ordained, that the superintendent of said Pound, is hereby authorized to collect one dollar per head for all animals delivered into his charge; the one half of which shall be paid into the city treasury monthly.
Sec. 8. The superintendent of said Pound shall be required to keep all animals delivered to his charge, (if not previously called for) for the term of not less than twelve, nor more than eighteen days, so as to have the same in said pound, evening and morning, for the inspection of all persons; and may receive from said owner six and one fourth cents per day for herding the same, after which time, he may put them in charge of some good herdsman, and receive the usual price of driving and herding the same.
Sec. 9. The superintendent of said pound shall keep a book, in which a faithful description of all animals which remain in his charge beyond the term of twelve days shall be kept; naming the herdsman in whose charge he placed said animals, and the time when delivered.—Said book shall be free for the inspection of all persons wishing to examine the same.
Sec. 10. Be it further ordained, that all animals, remaining in charge of the Superintendent more than twenty days, shall be advertised in the city paper by three insertions.
Sec. 11. All animals remaining in charge of the superintendent of said pound, six months may be brought into said city, and sold to the highest bidder at public auction, subject to redemption within six months from the day of sale, if the owner of said animal shall prove property and pay all charges.
Sec. 12. Any person neglecting, or refusing to comply with this ordinance, shall be liable to pay a fine in any sum not less than five, nor more than one hundred dollars for every such offence.
Sec. 13. Be it further ordained, That the ordinance, passed June 23d, 1851, establishing two City Pounds in said city, be, and the same is hereby repealed.
Sec. 14. This ordinance to take effect and be in force from and after its passage.
Passed April 5th, 1852-12-2a
