BRUTAL - Yesterday, about noon, two usa, supposed to be prospectors, drove up new ADVERTISEMENTS. uk, and turned their animals into the sinisis with them regarding the trespass, when one of them maltreated him in a most thameful manner, by striking him with his fists and then pounding him over the head with a pistol. The two men then left on their way to the city, and Mrs. Hards, wife of the injured man, a lady somewhat advanced in years, mounted a horse and followed them clear into town, arriving at about six o'clock in the evening. Her purpose in following them was to have them arrested and punished; unfortunately, however, she lost sight of them somewhere in the First Ward. It is to be hoped the party who assaulted Mr. Hards will yet be found and punished according to his deserts. Miss s pasture land. Mr. Hards remon-

On his journey he saw a few at City Hall, will be suimbly rewarded, dies grasshoppers on the Upper Kanab and in Just Valley. Everywhere the waters were higher and the country appeared more bisoming than ever he saw them before, crops generally looking uncommonly thrifty. He spoke in high terms of the beauty and magnificence of the scenery down that way, instancing particularly the head of Long Valley and the Upper Sevier tall stately pines, water, grass, hills, vales, deflies and mountains combining to present most striking scenery. He is of the opinion that when the railroad reaches those regions many persons will visit them for the sake of seeing the country and admiring its natural beauty and grandeur.

RUNAWAY,-This afternoon a man nam-First South street, belonging to Mr. John R. Clawson, when a boy got into the wagon and frightened the animals. Hancock was knocked down and the team and wagon passed over him, yet strange to say he was unhurt. The runaway went eastward past the Theatre, then north up First East Street and west along South Temple streeet, where the wagon came in contact with a telegraph pole at the corner of the Council House. The violence of the shock broke the harness and freed the horses from the wagon. The boy who was in the wagon when it started jumped out, when a short distance north of the Theatre, and was unisjured.
