10 THE The Great SEMI-Country Paper WEEKLY of the West. NEWS Issued Mondays and Thursdays and Costains All the Cream of the Daily and Saturday News. LOCAL BRIEFS. Realty Dealers Meet—The Real Estate association will hold its de-ferred semi-monthly meeting tomor-row afternoon at the Commercial club. Crushed Between Cars-John Lakos was caught between two moving cars at Bingham yesterday, sustaining severe injuries. He was brought to St. Mark's hospital. St. mark's hospital. Improvements at Hospital—A per-mit was taken out yesterday after-noon, for the new $29,000 heating plant and temporary orthopedic sur-gery ward for the Dr. Groves L. D. S. hospital, to be erected at the corner of D street and Ninth avenue. Annual High Jinks—Cards are out announcing the "Annual High Jinks" at the University club next Thursday evening, New Year's eve: "strictly in-formal. Stringed quartet in attend-mee; members and gentleman friends invited." Every member of the club in town-and out of town, as far as possible, is expected to be there. nuisance. Duck Club Turned Down-The New State Gun club yesterday applied to Judge Morse for a restraining order proventing Ansel Hatch and others from hunting duck at the mouth of the Jordan river. The petition was denied on the ground that there was webling to show that the defendants nothing to show that the defendants named intended to persevere in the practise. Functal of Mrs. Anderson — Mrs. Christinia Anderson was buried yes-terday in South Cottonwood cemetery, after funeral services held at the Holliday meetinghouse. The obsequies were conducted by Bishop Milo Anwere conducted by Bishop Milo An-drus, who also was one of the speak-ers, others being John Sutherland Charles Harper, A. Guuderson, J. A. Brinton and Francis McDonaid. The funeral had been delayed on account of the absence of children, but they arrived in time for the services yes-torder. terday.

Logan is Interested—There are other cities besides Salt Lake vitally interested in the question of whether or not the bonding power of cities is to be raised or not. Among these is Logan, the mayor of which, William Edwards, and the members of his council, called on Governor Cutler yesterday for the purpose of discussing with him the plan for placing in com-mission a sewor system in Logan. The matter depends largely upon new legislation anet the increased bonding power of cities.

Children's Cantata—At last night's Christmas entertainment of the Phillips Congregational Sunday school, a can-tata was given by 60 members of the school, under the direction of Miss Edith Walker, and 14 children who did not miss a Sunday attendance in the year received special awards, in the shape of silver spoons for the nine girls and a silver pencil for each of girls and a silver pend for the fine girls and a silver pend for each of the five boys. Supt. L. H. Page re-ceived a gold mounted fountain pen from the teachers and officers. The membership of the school is 250.

Morse Should Be Permanent.

The citizens of the west side, who have been the most vigorous in their protests against the introduction of a red light, stockaded district into their midst, won the first skirmish in their great fight for decency, when Judge Morse granted their petition asking for a temporary restraining order, preventing the promoters of the nefarious traftic, from occupying the newly erected monuments to shame, under the law which provides against a common law

This temporary order was granted This temporary order was granted several days ago, and late last night the second great battle of the action commenced when the attorneys for the plaintiffs issued subpoenas commanding 16 of the more active promoters of in-decency, and those who have been in-timately associated with their plans in timately associated with their plans in timately associated with their plans in one way or another, to come before the court of Judge Morse tomorrow morn-ing. These witnesses are summoned to appear and testify in the matter, because at that time the plaintiffs must show cause for making the restraining order against the promoters of the red light crime, permanent. MARTIN'S PLANS.

light crime, permanent. MARTIN'S PLANS. Among those summoned by the plain-tiffs for the purpose of proving that the proposed wholesale deal in unblush-ing crime is a common law nuisance, the name of Counciliman L. D. Martin, "American" party member of the city cuncil, prominent in the management if machine politics, and also the archi-tect for the castles of prostitution, who is commanded to appear before the court and produce the plans for the cribs of the Citizens' Investment com-pany, Belle London, et al. Nearly all the names appearing on the list of summoned witnesses are those appearing in the complaint of the original action. They are: Ada Wil-son, the keeper of a Commercial street disorderly house, ex-Chief of Police Tom D. Pitt, Madge Daniels, L. D. Martin, Edna Prescott, M. M. Wolsin-ger, Dora B. Topham, Martin E. Mul-vey, Beatrice Bartlett, C. E. Raybould, Lou Shepard, Irene McDonald, R. S. McDonald, H. B. Crandall, George Gray and Mayor John S. Bransford. With the exception of Dora Topham, the women named in the list of wit-nesses for the plaintiff, are keepers of houses of ilifame in Victoria alley and Commercial street, and are being called to the witness stand in consequence of having been broached on the subject of removing to the stockade. Mayor Bransford and Tom D. Pitt have both been more or less officially connected with the stockade proposition. If the plaintiffs are able to establish the facts alleged in their petition for the restraining order, that the proposed stockade is illegal, immoral and in-decent, there is every reason to believe and hope that the court will make the order perpetual, in which case the de-cent citizens who object to the estab-lishing of the iniquitous place in the midst of their district, will have won 1909.

Over 600 entries have been registered for the fine and fat sheep show, and additions sufficient to accommodate the large number of thoroughbreds have been built on the show barn by the committee in charge. One of the most successful sheep exhibits in the history of the organization is looked for. Prize sheep from Utah have been entered for exhibition, by W. Hansen of Fielding, Allen Bros. of Draper, John H. Seely of Mt. Pleasant and others.

CHOKED TO DEATH Is commonly said of babies who have died of the croup. How unnecessary this is. No child ever had croup without having a cold or cough at the start. If you will stop the first symp-tom of the cough with Ballard's Horehound Syrup there is no danger whatever of croup. Sold by Z. C. M. I. Drug Store, 112 and 114 South Main Street.

BABY AS A SHIELD.

Burglar Runs Behind Utah Woman And Child to Escape Bullets, New York papers tell the story of ow a Gotham burglar fled from the clutches of a policeman and escaped clutches of a policeman and escaped being shot by keeping between him-self and the minion of the law a'Utah woman and her two children. Mrs. Oscar A. Kirkham, who is residing in that city with her husband, had been out shoping and had with her her daughters Carol and Grace, aged three and one year respectively. The her daughters Carol and Grace, aged three and one year, respectively. The baby being wheeled in a go-cart, when suddenly a man rushed past the mother and ran in front of the go-cart, the policeman not daring to shoot because of the intervening woman and children. The fugitive ran into an alley and escaped. He had been caught in the act of burg-larizing a flat, and was being taken to the police station when he broke loose from the officer and ran.
