DESERET EVENING NEWS SATURDAY FEBRUARY 2 1907

Issued Mondays and Thursdays and Contains All the Cream of the Daily and Saturday News.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Coal Dealers' Allegation-A local coal dealer claims that 20 per cent of the citizens of this city have two months' supply of coal in their bins.

Called on the Weather Man-Miss Ethel Bonnion, a Taylorsville school teacher, brought her pupils to this city yesterday afternoon and with them visited the local weather office.

Amended Articles—An amendment to the articles of incorporation of the Utah Lithographing company has been filed with the county clerk by which its capital stock is increased from $15,000 to $25,000.

Veteran Firemen-The Veteran Volunteer Fireman's association will hold its regular monthly meeting Monday, Feb. 4, 1907, at the hall, 271 Canyon road, at 8 o'clock p. m. All volunteer firemen invited to attend; important business,

Fifteen Cars of Coal-Only 15 cars of coal reached this city yesterday, and were it not for the mildness of the weather, there would be much suffering. The Central Coal and Coke company received 19 of these

Main Street Illumination-Z. C. M and Zion's Savings bank will erect steel lamp posts surmounted by clus-ters of incandescent lamps in front of their establishments on upper Main street. The posts will be 20 feet apart

Eight "Rode the Goat"—The first of the Y. M. C. A. monthly initiatory dinners was held last evening, when eight new members "rode the goat." The guest of honor was B. M. Bur-gess who is a member of the associa-tion in several foreign countries.

Capital Stock Increased—The Stre-vell-Paterson Hardware company has filed an amendment to its articles of incorporation with the county clerk by which its capital stock is increas-ed from $200,000 to $500,000, divided into shares of the par value of $100 each each Jamior Promenade U. of U.—The junior promenade to be given next Friday evening at the state university is considered the social function of the year. This is in accord with the custom adopted by the leading col-leges of giving the promenade first grand march.

Teamsters Quit Work—The team-sters working on the Railroad Ex-change building excavation struck and quit work yesterday, as their de-mands for $4.50 per day were not ac-ceeded to. The contractor has been paying $5 cents per load, and the teamsters claim they can only haul four loads a day four loads a day,

Harris Takes Umbrage--Manager C. O. Harris of the M. & M. associa-tion calls attention to the fact that the tion calls attention to the fact that the resolution passed in yesterday after-noon's meeting of the grain dealers in registering that body as opposed to the establishment of a Commerce as-sociation in this state, was hardly apropos, as there is no move being made toward the organization of such an association. an association.

U, of U. Chronicle-The Jan. 31 number of the University of Utah U, of U, Chronicle—The Jan, 31 number of the University of Utah Chronicle is out, and very readable. A taking feature is the cut at the head of the reading matter, consisting of a large "U. of U.," with buildog heads between the arms of the letters. The issue is well supplied with a vari-city of reading matter of special in-terest to the undergraduates. It is a creditable number.

Church Dotices. Regular services of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints will be held tomorrow, Sunday: Fast meet-ings being held in the respective wards at 2 o'clock p.m.; Sunday school at 10 a.m., and meetings in the city ward assembly rooms and adjacent wards as follows: follows: TIME
