Descrets vs. Omahas.-There is a prospect that within the next two weeks, three games of base ball will be played in this city between the Omahas, who recently made a short stay here, and the Deserets. A proposition was made by the former club to play a ceries for $500, on their return east, and the Deserets immediately signified their willingness, offering to deposit a guaranty, and requesting the others to do the same. The Omahas have not yet answered this communication, but probably will agree to it, when the date of the games will be definitely fixed.

Saturday's Base Ball .- The conas aprios took place on Saturday in, the presence of a smaller crowd of than common, and the game, from the fact that the Deserets were con-coded to be the better club, was tedious and uninteresting. The 3rd. mto' 13.
