

OGDEN

The Startup Boys SHIPPED THE FIRST Utah Candy

To Denver, St. Louis, Chicago, and the Coast country Eight Years Ago.

"HOT AIR" doesn't "land goods" with the big jobbers and experienced buyers. QUALITY ALONE has made it possible for the Startup Candy Company to market their products in all the centers of commerce of America and Mexico, among the wholesale trade.

You should visit their wonderful factory at Provo, "The Candy City," and see what wonders they perform with sugar, fruit and chocolate.

Free sample in fancy box cheerfully sent anyone on receipt of five 2-cent stamps, for mailing, and dealers' name and address.

MEETING OF FRUIT GROWERS

John F. Moore Will Address Growers of Three Counties in Ogden Saturday.

OPEN NEW BANK AT HYRUM

Ogden Financiers Back of Institution—First Registration Day Tuesday, August 11—News Briefs.

Ogden, Aug. 7.—Tomorrow, Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, in the courtroom at the courthouse, the fruit-growers of Ogden city and Weber county will be addressed by John F. Moore, manager of the Grand Junction Fruit Growers' association. The meeting will be one of great importance and it is expected that all the fruit-growers in the county as well as Davis and Boxelder counties will be present.

At the time of the meeting steps will also be made to increase the membership of the local fruit-growers' association, which at the present time has a membership of less than 100. Members of the local association will deliver addresses upon their experience in the handling of fruit and the marketing of the same.

According to Mr. Moore, the Grand Junction association handled a million dollars' worth of fruit last year and will probably do considerable more this year as it will handle much of the Utah crop. The association, he says, has a paid-up capital of $100,000 and more than $800,000 was paid to the members last year, for their produce.

At Willard last evening Mr. Moore addressed an enthusiastic meeting of the fruit-growers of that vicinity. He confined his remarks to the benefits derived from organizing as well as the sorting, handling and marketing of fruit. A number of fruit-growers from the northern part of this county were present at the meeting.

BANK AT HYRUM.
On Aug. 15 the First National bank of Hyrum, Utah, will open its doors for business. The bank is composed of a number of local capitalists. J. P. Corry, who is to be cashier, is one of the well known young men of the city, and has been employed at the First National bank of Ogden. The Hyrum bank will have a capital stock of $25,000. The officers are David Eccles, president; M. S. Browning, vice president; J. L. Baxter, vice president; J. P. Corry, cashier.

BOEKWEG HELD.
After the hearing of the testimony at the preliminary hearing yesterday afternoon, Judge Murphy entered an order holding Jacob Boekweg to answer to the district court upon the charge of assault with a deadly weapon. Boekweg's bail was fixed at $500. The defendant was charged with making an assault upon his nephew, Heiko Boekweg, with a knife, on July 25. When Deputy Sheriff Naylin went to Boekweg's house about a week ago members of the family turned a dog loose and he bit the sheriff. The dog was subsequently killed.

FIRST REGISTRATION DAY.
The first registration day of the year will be Tuesday, Aug. 11, at which time the voters of Ogden City and Weber county will have the opportunity to register. There are eight days for registration this year and the members of the parties are urging an early registration. Aug. 29 will be the second day, after that there will be no opportunity to register until Oct. 6, 7, 13, 27 and 28.

JUNCTION CITY BRIEFS.

U. F. L. at Saltair.—About 200 people went from Ogden to Saltair yesterday afternoon to attend the annual outing of the Utah Federation of Labor.

Eagles Will Entertain.—The local acrobats of Eagles is making arrangements to entertain a flock of Pittsburgh Eagles who will pass through Ogden Aug. 21 and who are en route to the annual meeting in Seattle.

Wedding.—Belle, marriage licenses were issued yesterday afternoon to the following couples by the county clerk: Lisle Hadlock and Maud Hunt, both of Ogden.

Larney E. Sprague of Los Angeles and Hattie Smith of Kansas City.

Costley Estate.—In the estate of the late Daniel J. Costley, a partial report has been filed in the probate division of the district court by William Costley the administrator. The appraised valuation of the property is $36,796.19 and the administrator asks the court to fix the estate inheritance tax at $1,090.97 and authorize him to pay the same. The sum of $1,090.97 is asked for the payment of fees for the attorney the administrator and other expenses in the administering of the property.

Object of Charity.—Fletcher Williams, a colored boy, 18 years of age who had his right leg cut off by a Short Line train near the Twenty-first street tank about five weeks ago, is hobbling around the city on a crutch seeking contributions which will enable him to pay his fare to Illinois where he has relatives. Efforts are being made to interest the railroad company in the lad's case and furnish him transportation east.

Realty Transfer.—H. C. Bigelow as trustee for the H. D. Wise estate has sold to James Ballard the property on the corner of Washington avenue and Twenty-sixth street for the sum of $5,000.

Funeral of M. Stoltz.—A large number of railroad men in Ogden left last evening for Grand Junction where they went to attend the funeral of M. Stoltz the Rio Grande Western conductor who was killed near Grand Junction, Wednesday. The funeral will be held this afternoon.

Zeppelin's Schoolmates.—The flight of the Zeppelin airship in Germany on Wednesday was more than interesting to a number of Ogdenites on account of the acquaintance between Count Zeppelin and Ogden people. The Kieles and the Schenkenbachs are from the same town in Wurtemberg as the count and William Schenkenbach and the count went to the same school as boys in Ludwigsburg.

Cloudburst at Avenal.—According to the advices received in the local railroad offices yesterday morning the Harriman special escaped the cloudburst at Avenal, a small station on the Southern Pacific between Montello and Carlin by a very short time. The special train which was wrecked at the good rate of speed had just passed the little station when the great flood came and for more than 30 minutes the track was buried by the flood. The damage to the road bed which was slight was repaired by section men from the near-by stations.

MURRAY.

SUCCESSION IN PRESIDENCY

Brigham Young Shown to Be Legal Successor of Church Founder, Special Correspondence.

Murray, Aug. 7.—The third night of the Sanders-Curtis debate on the legal succession in the presidency of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints was continued with great earnestness last night. The audience was larger than the other two nights and was more interested.

Elder Sanders, for the affirmative, opened the question, "Resolved, That Brigham Young was the legal successor to the Prophet Joseph Smith in the Church," and was successful in substantiating every claim made by him, and refuting the contentions of the opposition.

As Mr. Curtis, the two nights previous, had avoided every question pertaining to the subject, Elder Sanders challenged the answer of 12 questions which he propounded. Mr. Curtis failed to answer them. Mr. Sanders proved his position from every standpoint. The Lord said, in setting the Church in order the first time: (Sec. 124, verse 127) "I give unto my servant Brigham Young to be president over the twelve traveling council." In section 107, v. 24, it is said, speaking of the Twelve: "And they shall have a quorum equal in authority and power to the presidents previously mentioned." "Now," said the speaker, "when the prophet bestowed all keys, power and authority on the Twelve, he turned to Brigham Young, president of the quorum, and said: 'Upon you I bestow a special key—the key pertaining to the presidency.'"

Elder Sanders proved from the Doctrine and Covenants that the presidency of quorums naturally grew out of the quorums themselves, and were ordained by its members.

These are some of the points Mr. Curtis avoided. Mr. Curtis, for the negative, claimed that the original Church was rejected in that it had failed to abide in the law in not completing the temple at Nauvoo; that the leaders had fallen from grace; and therefore were not accepted by the Lord, necessitating a reorganization; that Brigham Young advocated, taught and practiced polygamy, which, the speaker said, was contrary to the commandments of God; that Brigham Young advanced the idea of Adam-God, and permitted and practiced many other innovations. There are some of the reasons, contended the speaker, that Brigham Young did not legitimately ascend to the presidency of the Church. All those allegations, however, were so incoherently put together and given as bald statements without proof, reason or argument, they had little weight with the audience.

The discussion closes tonight.
