

FIFTY-FIRST YEAR

NO FILIPINO JUNTA
IN HONGKONG.

English Foreign Office Says Authorities
Can't Find One—Gen. Funston Charges
Across Nehico River Routing Rebels.

London, Dec. 7.—In response to Secretary Hay's representations, through United States Ambassador Choate, the British Foreign Office has replied that the authorities at Hongkong have been unable to discover a Filipino junta there.

FUNSTON ROUTS REBELS.

Manila, Dec. 7.—More activity is shown in the operations in northern and southern Luzon. The reports from the former district come in more quickly and telegraphic interruptions are fewer.

Gen. Funston, with troop A, of the Fourth cavalry, and a score of scouts, last Thursday, encountered a hundred insurgents posted on the opposite bank of the Nehico river. The Americans charged across the stream and the enemy retreated, firing from cover. A native who was captured reported that Fagin, a deserter from the Twenty-fourth infantry, who has been active with the Filipinos, with a party of two cavalrymen, has been wounded.

Lieut. Morrow, with fifty men from the Forty-seventh regiment, attacked and occupied Bulacan. While returning these troops encountered Col. Victorio, occupying an entrenched position with thirty rifles and 300 holmen. Lieut. Morrow's force charged and drove the enemy from their position. It is believed the expedition had captured Maj. Flores and several of his followers.

An engagement is reported to have occurred near San Roque, in which, according to natives, fifty rebels were killed.

Several minor encounters and captures are also reported. The American casualties have been very slight.

The island of Bohol has recently been the scene of more activity on the part of the insurgents than formerly, and a company has been sent to reinforce the battalion stationed there.

The members of the Philippine commission and several military officials will go to Dagupan, tomorrow as guests of the railway management. Their families have been sent to Manila. They will return Sunday.

BOERS BEING
RECONCENTRATED

Four Thousand in a Lager in Johannesburg.

MAXIM GUNS IN POSITION.

Everything in Readiness for a Disturbance
at Capetown—Why England
Gave No Notice of Annexation.

Johannesburg, Dec. 7.—In pursuance of the reconcentration policy, the authorities here are preparing accommodation on the race course for four thousand people from farms in the vicinity of the Rand. The burghers will be herded in a laager and will be strictly watched.

A notification appears in the Gazette to the effect that all able-bodied British subjects are liable to be conscripted for service in the Rand rifles.

MAXIM GUNS IN POSITION.

Capetown, Dec. 7.—Owing to the attempts of sympathizers to communicate with the Boer prisoners at Greenpoint camp, Maxim guns have been placed in position on the surrounding heights, in readiness for a disturbance.

WHY POWERS NOT NOTIFIED.

London, Dec. 7.—In the house of commons today, Viscount Cranborne, parliamentary secretary for the foreign office, replying to a question, said the government had not notified any foreign power of the annexation of the Transvaal or Orange Free State. An examination of precedents, he said, showed that notification was not necessary, and foreign recognition of the annexation was not dependent on a formal notification.

GOVERNMENT FOR TRANSVAAL.

London, Dec. 7.—The secretary of state for the colonies, Mr. Joseph Chamberlain, announced in the house of commons today that civil government will shortly be established in the Transvaal and Orange River colony.

The Czar Improves.

Livadia, European Russia, Dec. 7.—The following bulletin was issued by the czar's physicians this morning: "The czar passed the last 24 hours very well. His temperature and pulse are normal and his condition is very satisfactory."

Federation of Labor Convention.

Louisville, Ky., Dec. 7.—Immediately after the call in the American Federation of Labor convention this morning, President Gompers called Miss Esther King, one of the women delegates from Indiana, to the chair, and she presided for half an hour.

The question of the jurisdiction of the different unions will occupy much of the convention's time. There are differences between the brewery workers and stationary engineers and stationery engineers; the carpenters, woodworkers and box makers; the painters and decorators and the paper hangers; plumbers, gas and steam fitters; the printers and machinists; the miners and hoisting engineers; and the garment workers and tailors.

The credentials committee recommended that the protests against the seating of the delegates from the brewery workers and stationary engineers and from the paper hangers be referred to the grievance committee.

A vigorous protest was made by the United Garment Workers against the seating of delegates from the Chicago Federation of Labor for having admitted the custom clothing makers.

The protest resulted in the Chicago Federation receiving instructions to throw out the custom clothing makers on penalty of being themselves expelled from the American Federation.

Hungarian Murderer Beheaded.

Berlin, December 7.—August Goenzel, the Hungarian who murdered a wealthy widow named Schultz and her daughter here in 1897, was beheaded this morning in the prison of Ploetzensee. The murder was an atrocious one and was committed in the center of Berlin. The cessive number of articles registered free by the executive departments, and the abuse of the registered mail in this respect will continue until Congress acts in the matter. It is said that could the amount paid as indemnity for lost registered first class domestic mail be raised to the full value, not exceeding $200, many letters which now pass in the ordinary mails would be gathered into the registered mails. An indemnity fund not exceeding $5,000 is estimated to be sufficient for this purpose.

English Army Estimates.

London, Dec. 7.—The second supplementary estimate of sixteen millions issued this morning makes the total army estimates for the year, £24,299,153.

Stores for Philippine Troops.

Washington, Dec. 7.—Quartermaster General Ludington has arranged to have the transport Thomas, now at San Francisco make an extra trip to the Philippines for the purpose of carrying a large supply of military stores needed by the troops in the archipelago. She will start for Manila on the 17th instant. The transport Logan will leave for Manila on her regular trip on the 15th instant.

Demonstrations at a Russian Theatre.

St. Petersburg, Dec. 7.—The first performance yesterday evening of an anti Jewish play entitled "The Contrabandists," led to an extraordinary demonstration. A portion of the audience at first angrily protested and then hurled all kinds of missiles at the actors. Personal conflicts followed and the performance had to be stopped.

JESSIE MORRISON'S STORY

She Takes the Stand and Tells Her Version of the Quarrel With Mrs. Castle.

Contradicts the Testimony of Castle—Declares She Never Said She "Would Fix Him."

Kansas City, Dec. 7.—A special to the Star from Eldorado, Kansas, says: Jessie Morrison, pale and weak, her eyes red, from crying, took the stand today and told her version of the story of the quarrel that ended in Mrs. Castle being mortally wounded. As she testified she faced the widower, Olin Castle, who, surrounded by Mrs. Wiley, mother of the murdered woman, Mrs. Castle, and other members of the Castle and Wiley families, occupied a front seat in the court room.

The first part of Miss Morrison's testimony contradicted much that Castle had said on the stand. It disclosed, however, nothing sensational. At first her voice was harsh, but it afterwards became more soft and was very low.

Witness said she had known Castle since July, 1897, when she began to work in the racket store, where he was employed, and that she had known Mrs. Castle for about six years before her death. During the summer of 1899 Castle had come to see her at her brother-in-law's house from one to three times a week and had taken her riding frequently. He had written her a letter while he was at Whitewater, and she had answered it. She told about going to Excelsior Springs last January, and of Castle's asking to come to see her on the night before she went away.

"Just before he left did you tell him you would fix him?" was asked.

"I did not," replied Miss Morrison firmly.

"Did you ever tell him you would fix him, or use words of similar import?" "I did not."

She told of the interview in the racket store with Castle, who said on the witness stand that she had threatened him.

She said she had asked him to return her letters from the racket store and he had replied: "You need not worry; nobody has ever seen your letters and I guess I'll return them."

"Were either of you angry?" "No sir."

"Did you use any expression or make any threatening movement, or say if you don't, you'll wish you had?" "No sir."

Witness denied urging him to keep his promise and come and see her, or that she had told him she was in trouble.

Miss Morrison denied having taken any razor from the racket store or having a razor or knife when, as she passed the Castle house, Mrs. Castle called her in. After she entered, she said, Mrs. Castle fastened the screen door, and she said she had taken her seat herself upon the lounge.

"Clara sat down in front of me," said witness, and asked "What do you mean by following Olin around?"

"I said I was not. That she said 'I know you hate me and I hate you and I am no friend of yours.' I rose to go. She said: 'Don't go yet, Olin is coming in a minute. It's too bad for you to run after that party boy. I'll tell you he was the one who caused her to be so bitter toward me. She said: 'I know better. You tried to separate us.' I said I had not and she said: 'You are a liar.' I said: 'You tell me a liar.' Then we both rose up together."

The witness paused.

"What was done then," asked Judge Redden.

"My handkerchief dropped and I stooped to pick it up. She moved quickly in the same direction and then she cut me with the razor."

"You had no razor, knife or weapon?" "No, sir."

"Then what happened?" "She cut me twice with the razor across the throat, said Miss Morrison.

"I grabbed at her and screamed. Then Clara and I rushed together and she threw me and I raised my knees to protect myself, and she kept striking me at all the time. She fell over on me and I got the razor away from her. After that we rolled over on the floor."

Jessie Morrison told her story in a clear, steady voice, without hesitation, but she paused at the threshold of the most bloody part of it.

"Then what did you do?" asked Judge Redden.

"I cut her," answered the witness, in a conversational tone.

"Do you know how many times?" "No, sir."

"Do you know what became of the razor?"

"She may have knocked it from my hand or I may have dropped it."

Then Miss Morrison told of Mrs. Morrison and Mrs. Spangler entering the house.

She denied much of the evidence given by these two women.

TALKED ABOUT
OLEOMARGARINE

House Listens to Arguments for the Groat Bill.

CHARGES OF THE MINORITY

Declares the Majority is Anxious to Destroy the Industry and Not to Regulate It.

Washington, Dec. 7.—Under the arrangement made yesterday the Groat oleomargarine bill, which was postponed to allow the army reorganization bill to be disposed of, came up for consideration in the House immediately after the reading of the journal. The bill makes all articles known as oleomargarine, butterine, imitation butter or imitation cheese transported into any State or Territory subject to the police powers of such State or Territory. It increases the tax on manufactured butter colored in imitation of butter from two to ten cents per pound and decreases the tax on manufactured butter uncolored from two cents to one-fourth cent per pound.

An attempt was made to reach an agreement for final vote this afternoon but it failed. Mr. Henry (Conn.), who is in charge of the measure, opened the debate in its support. He explained the features of the bill. The increase of the tax on colored imitation butter, he said, the majority of the committee on agriculture believed was absolutely necessary to protect the dairy interests of the country.

Mr. Henry produced figures to show that the cost of manufacturing oleomargarine, including the payment of the present internal revenue tax of two cents, was not more than ten cents a pound.

Mr. Wadsworth, New York, chairman of the committee on agriculture, who with six other members of the committee, signed the minority report against the Groat bill, explained the substitute which the minority would offer for it. Mr. Wadsworth asserted with the greatest emphasis that the purpose of the bill was to suppress the sale of a food product by preventing the coloring of oleomargarine in imitation of butter.

Mr. Groat, Vermont, the author of the bill, at this point, assumed charge of the measure and spoke in support of it. He declared that the purpose of the bill was to suppress the sale of a food product by preventing the coloring of oleomargarine in imitation of butter.

He said he did not think that the enactment of the substitute would prevent fraud in the sale of oleomargarine.

SENATE PROCEEDINGS.

Washington, Dec. 7.—It was decided today that when the Senate adjourned this afternoon it will be until next Monday.

Callinger presented a telegram addressed to the president of the Senate from N. F. Thompson, secretary of the Southern Industrial commission, now in session at New Orleans, to the effect that the commission had passed a resolution favoring the early passage by Congress of a ship subsidy bill for all American vessels which shall be equitably based upon the tonnage actually carried, besides compensation for carrying the mails.

At 12:35, on motion of Mr. Lodge, the Senate went into executive session.

The Senate resumed consideration of the Hay-Panama treaty upon going into executive session today and Senator Morgan continued the speech in support of the treaty which he began yesterday.

The Senate today agreed to take a vote next Thursday on the amendment offered by the committee on foreign relations to the Hay-Panama treaty. The proposition to this effect was made by Mr. Lodge, who is in charge of the treaty and was agreed to without much discussion.

Senate to Consider Army Bill.

Washington, Dec. 7.—Senator Hawley, chairman of the Senate committee on military affairs, said today that his committee would have its first sitting for the consideration of the army bill next Monday morning. It was not the purpose he said, to grant a conference if the House should ask it on the bill as now stands, and that he did not believe to be the purpose of the House to ask a conference.

THIS ONE IS PENITENT.

Youth Who Robbed a Store Anxious to Make Restitution.

A Case Wherein the Good Work of the Salvation Army Workers Bore Fruit.

Several weeks ago, the store of Mrs. M. J. Harding on west, South Temple street, was broken into and sundry articles to the value of $25 were stolen. Efforts to locate the guilty parties have been unsuccessful, until yesterday, when the captain of the Salvation Army corps went to Mrs. Harding and informed her that the person who stole the goods from her store had been stopping at the Salvation Army shelter in this city. It appears the members of the local army corps have been diligent in their efforts to convert this young man, and in this way they have got him to renounce evil and confess his faults, one of which is as above recorded. He has sold the goods which he purloined, but being installed in a good position in the city he has promised to pay, in weekly installments, the amount at which the articles were valued, and further to show his good intentions he made the first payment of $5.00 to Mrs. Harding, yesterday.

Judge Norrell went East several weeks ago suffering with stomach trouble, hoping the change of air and rest would restore him to health.

TIMMONY WAS SEVERE.

Two Boys Are Given 100 Days for Petit Larceny.

They Stole Copper and Brass from the Railroad Shop—Smithy Goes to Industrial School.

Judge Timmony has threatened for a long time to deal out punishment in large doses to boys who have a penchant for taking other people's property. Today, his honor made good the threat in three cases.

Wednesday night, Officer Gillespie arrested John Smithy, Eli Webb and Tom Brown for stealing brass and copper. The boys pleaded guilty to the charge yesterday afternoon, but were remanded until today. Meanwhile it had been learned that Smithy was released from the State Industrial school at Ogden on parole about a year ago. He will be sent back to that institution this evening or tomorrow.

"Stand up," ordered the court, addressing Brown and Webb.

"How old are you?" he asked.

Brown said he was sixteen and Webb said he was seventeen years of age.

"The sentence of the court is," said Judge Timmony, "that you each be confined in the city jail at hard labor for and during a period of 100 days."

The boys took their medicine philosophically and marched out to the battle with an air of carelessness.

City Wins Airplane Suit.

The action in which A. B. Sawyer sued Salt Lake City to recover $5,000 damages for personal injuries, alleged to have been sustained through stumbling over a stake in the sidewalk on East Fifth South street, resulted in the jury today finding the issues in favor of the defendant. A letter to President Snow from President Haight of the Society Islands mission, conveys the information that Elders Heber J. Sheffield, Jr. and Edward S. Hall arrived safely and in good health, at Papeete, Society Islands.

Complaints are made to the "News" of a physician who goes to patients in a house that is quarantined for "smallpox," and when he leaves the house, gets aboard the first street car that comes along and then exposes passengers to "smallpox" germs that may be carried in or about his clothing.

NETHERLANDS AND PORTUGAL AT OUTS

Ministers to Either Country Quit their Posts
—A Hague Explanation—Considered
Serious in Madrid.

Lisbon, Dec. 7.—The minister of the Netherlands to Portugal and the Portuguese minister at The Hague, have left their respective posts. It is believed that a difference has arisen on the subject of the exequatur to the Dutch consul at Lorenzo Marques, which the Portuguese government has withdrawn.

Tension between Portugal and Holland appears to have been emphasized, perhaps not altogether unintentionally, by the peculiar warmth of King Charles' toast to Queen Victoria at the banquet given yesterday evening at the royal palace to Vice Admiral Sir Harry Boddsworth Rawson, and the officers of the British fleet, now in the river Tagus, and by the telegram which the king afterwards dispatched to Victoria, thanking her majesty for sending the fleet and for the friendship thus demonstrated.

"I beg to record," telegraphed the king, "my great satisfaction at the frank and loyal alliance uniting England and Portugal."

In the course of his speech, when he toasted Queen Victoria, the king said among other things:

"England has often shared the efforts and glories of Portugal. Our mutual friendship and close alliance are strengthened by history and the blood shed together in causes which have always been just."

Admiral Rawson replied that the words of the king harmonized with the thoughts of the government and people of Great Britain.

HAVE LEFT THEIR POSTS.

The Hague, Dec. 7.—While it is not denied that the minister of the Netherlands at Lisbon and the minister of Portugal here are temporarily leaving their posts, it is semi-officially declared that there is no question of the ministers being recalled. It is explained that Count de Seir, the Portuguese minister, is proceeding to Lisbon on a few days' visit to verbally explain the difficulties which have arisen in connection with the Netherlands consul, Herr Pott, at Lorenzo Marques.

RUPTURE CONSIDERED SERIOUS.

Madrid, Dec. 7.—The Imperial says it considers the rupture of relations between Holland and Portugal to be very serious. It adds that it was due to this rupture that Portugal is now under the tutelage of Lord Salisbury.

Observers think that the speech and telegram constitute an intimation to the world that Portugal can count on strong support if necessary.

Gibson, both vice presidents and directors of the new Salt Lake railroad company, have announced the selection of Henry Hawgood as chief engineer of that company, with headquarters in this city. H. American Society of Engineers, and has had charge of some very important work. He was consulting engineer for the Free Harbor league, and did much good work in securing the harbor at San Pedro. Mr. McCartney is also a man of much experience in engineering, especially that which relates to railroad work. For years he has held a high position in the employ of the Union Pacific Railroad company, and is thoroughly familiar with the needs of a railroad, from an engineering standpoint. He is now here consulting with the local directors of the new line. Mr. Hawgood was formerly division engineer here for the Southern Pacific.

SALE OF OLD UNIVERSITY GROUNDS

Land Board Appraises Property and Will Sell it on January
12th Next—Union Square Worth $125,000—Laboratory
Placed at $30,000—Place for the High School.

The State land board held a meeting today and made an appraisal of the old University buildings and site and decided to offer the same for sale at public auction at noon Saturday January 12, 1901. The old University buildings, including the ten-acre of land upon which it is located, the board has appraised at $125,000, and the laboratory building, where the old museum is located, at $30,000. The property will be sold to the highest bidder, providing the bid is not less than the appraised value.

The board is desirous of selling the property to the board of education for high school purposes, and it may be successful in this if the school board members can get their present high school lease cancelled. It is considered a good site and the building, it is claimed, would give ample accommodations for the higher grade students for years to come.

Prepared by an Armenian Scholar, and May be Completed Before End of 1901.

Elder Hintze being particularly well fitted for the work, from his having been trained in the Turkish tongue and having had a
