er, Mrs, Anna Dibble, 227 Kensington ave. Real estate men are becoming chary of publicly referring to sales until the bargains have been clinched, and all names down in black and white. It has been discovered through sad ex- perience, that property owners are liable to take fright and flight from prospective deals if the suggestion about occur to them, or should it be inited to them in any way, that they are about to sell at a sacrifice of future profit. Secy. A. W. Raybould of the Elks is in receipt, for distribution, of a large mumber of southern California views arranged in a booklet, shaped and col- ored like a ripe navel orange. This is in view of the coming Los Angeles ex- cursion, when it is believed that the original estimate of 200 excursionists will be increased to nearer 500. The unique and illustrated folders in col- ors are attracting considerable atten- tion. Traulein Stolle, the German lecturer, institute, the Students' Art club and friends and New in the Realms of Art, under the auspices of the State Art institute, the Students' Art club and saturday night.
