DESERET EVENING NEWS: SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 18, 1905.

Mrs. George Sutherland was guest of honor at a delightful lunch-tof honor at a delightful lunch-tof on Thursday, given by Mrs. G. W. Snow, covers being laid for 10. The table was bounti-fully decorated in violets and the place-cards were hand-painted in the same design. Besides Mrs. Sutherland, there were present Mrs. J. R. Sutherland, Mrs. Thomas Marioneaux, Mrs. Ernest A. Greenwood, Mrs. J. B. Evans, Mrs. R. P. Morris, Mrs. J. B. Evans, Mrs. H. C. Williams.

given next week,

Cupid's emblems have been the distinguishing signs in the week's social. festivities, nearly avery function honoring the day which has come to be regarded as belonging to his petite but potent majesty. The celebration was not confined to the day alone, but commenced on Manday and continued through the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ledyard M. Balley gave a valentine dinner on Monday, the valentine idea being carried out in decorations and menu. The place cards were valentlnes, and here verses appropriate to each guest. Present were Mr. and Mrs. John Weir, Dr. and Mrs. T. B. Beatty, Mr. and Mrs. William Igicheart, and Mrs. R. C. Woodruff.

On Tuesday Mrs. J. C. McClain en-tertained at a preity luncheon in honor of Mrs. Moorinan of Kentucky, covers being laid for 10. Red rosss with crys-tal citadiesticks shaded in white, were the decorations, and the guests beside Mrs. Moorinan were Mrs. Leigh. Miss Margaret Pointer, Mrs. E. O. Lee, Mrs. F. N. Hess and Mrs. Shaw of Ogden. Mrs. Hackney, Mrs. C. E. Blanchard and Miss Mary Tabot. The girls of the Latter-day Saints' university gave a pretty evening party Monday night at the gymnasium build-ing, the hall being transformed by an artistic arrangement of drapes and flags. A large number was present, and a most delightful time spont.

a most delightful time spont. Mrs. B. A. McMillen was hostess at a card party on Tuesday, the prevali-ing idea in the decorations being car-ried out in honor of the day. Hearts was the game played, the rooms were festooned in hearts, and tallies and scores were in harmonious design. Prizes were won by Mrs. La Forgee, Mrs. C. F. Richards, and Mrs. Samuei Paul. Eight tables were played.

Another preity valentine party on Tuesday was that given by Mrs. W. H. Bramel, the event being in honor of Miss Sadie Merrill, and combining the nature of a china shower as well. A delightful time was enjoyed.

Miss Marge Ellerbeck was a "valen-tine hostess," entertaining the mem-bers of her club at a preity affair on Wednesday night.

Mrs. D. J. Sharp entertained at a din-ner on Monday in honor of the birth-day of her mother, Mrs. Sprague.

One of the prettlest valentine parties of the week was that given by Miss Lennie Taylor at her rooms in Temple-ton block on Tuesday. The decorations were chiefly in red hearts, which ware strung from the chandeliers to the four corners of the room, and on curtains and every available place for artistic effect. The talkes in the card contest were hearts, and the loc cream was in heart shape, and thitd red. The prizes were won by Mrs. L. P. Christensen and Mr. C. H. Eved. About 25 guests were present. were present. * * *

The young people of St. Paul's gave a pretty valentine affair on Tuesday * * *

The notable event of next week will be the reception to be given by Senator and Mrs. Sutherland at the Kenyon on Monday night.

Two other large events are listed for next week, in the dancing party to be given for the benefit of St. Faul's guild, and the one to be given by the High School alumni association at Unity Gall.

Last night the sophomores of the Uni

Early next week Mrs. Reed Smoot, Miss Mannie Eldredge and Harold Smoot wil leave for the east. They will visit Chicago.

Ex-Senator J. L. Rawlins and his bughter, Leda, will leave shortly for "actine Grove to join Mrs. Rawlins, yhe have spent the past few months

Mrs. John C. Cutler and children have left for Los Angeles to pais the remain-der of the cold season in their cottage.

Joseph H. Siegel has returned to the

Mr. and Mrs. J. Moritz have gone to San Francisco, to be away some weeks. They may go to Henolulu before re-

Mr. and Mrs. George Nolan have moved from M street and use now at home at the Fifth East hotel.

Miss Myrtle Jack leaves on Wednes-day next for Los Angeles to visit Mr. and Mrs. Waits.

Mr. and Mrs. Le Roi Snow enteriain-ed at luncheon yesterday in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cowles. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cowles.

April.

Chaplain and Mrs. John T. Axton left for Fort Leavenworth this weeke.

Miss Luin Houts of Prove is in the city visiting at the home of Judge and Mrs. W. H. King.

Mrs. C. fra Tuttle la at hame after a very pleasant trip to New York and Beaton.

Mrs. T. A. Plympton, who has been the guest of her son and daughter, Capt, and Mrs. E. A. Wedgewood, has returned to her home in Lowell, Mass.

Mrs. M. S. Woodward and Miss Lillian Woodward have issued invitations for several small bridge affairs to be

At Rowland hall on Thursday, Miss Mrs. Martha Groe, who has been vis-

A RARE PICTURE!

The wedding of Miss Leonie D. Prati and George W. Bargener will take place next Saturday at the home of the brides parents, Mr. and Mrs. Milando Pratt.

The engagement is announced of Miss Sadie Merrili to Franks E. White. The marriage will take place some time in

The marriage of Miss Sarah Parsons and Frank E. Heffernan took place on Wednesday night at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Belle Parsons, with Rov. Benjamin Young officiating. Cut flowers and greens adorned the rooms, and the family and intimate friends "were present." were present.

OGDEN.

Mrs. D. H. Peery gave an elaborate luncheon Tueschy afternoan at her ele-sant home on Adams avenue in honor of her daughter, Miss Louise Peery, whose engagement to Mr. Emmett Ful-terson of Chicago, was announced. The marriage will take place in June. There were present at the luncheon about 20 of Miss Peery's hady friends, who ex-tended their congratulations, after which a sumptuous repast was served. The home was a profusion of carna-tions, roses and smilax. On the table stood an elegant bouquet of La Prance roses sent from Chicago by the groom to be who is a wealthy stock dealer. On Wednesday Mrs. Peery gave a euchre party to a large number of her lady friends. The prizes were won by Mrs. H. H. Spencer, Mrs. Scott aud Mrs. S. L. Brick, Dainty refreshments were served. were served. 1.1.1.1.1.

Mrs. Gates and Mrs. Joseph Jen-kins of Salt Lake City spent this week in Ogden the guests of Miss Louise Peery.

. . . A birthday party was given Monday evening at the home of George Loch-head, sr., in honor of Mrs. Lochhead who elebrated her 54th birthday. There were present a large number of her frends who spent an enjoyable evening at various kinds of games, vocal and instrumental music, and so-cial chat. A bounteous repast was served in the dining room.

Mrs. J. S. Corlew gave a card party last Saturday afternoon at her home on Jefferson avenue. Five hundred was the game, a new departure in cards which proved very enjoyable. Each guest present received a souvenir cup and saucer. Delicious refreshments were served. * * *

Mrs. R. T. Harris entertained a few of her friends last Saturday evening in honor of Mrs. Will Johnson of Cor-inne. A pleasant time was had in playing cards.

The leading social function of the week was the valentine party given Monday afternoon by Mrs. Hugh M. Rowe at the Virginia hotel which was participated in by 50 of her lady friends. The decorations were unique and ar-listic consisting of streamers of hearts draped and entwined with red and white carnations. The refreshments were served, cut in heart shapes carry-ing out the valentine idea in every particular. The principal pleasure of the afternoon was cards, euchre. The prizes were awarded to Mrs. E. M. Conroy, Mrs. Tom Fitzgerald and Mrs. Nat Kuhn. The prizes were of cut glass. glass . . .

Mrs. F. J. Kiesel and Miss Kiesel have invitations out for a tea next Wednesday afternoon at the Kiesel home on Twenty-fifth street.

Mrs. J. S. Corlew was hostens at

THE TEA GOWN IS WITH US ONCE AGAIN.

0.0.8

LOGAN.

Logan, Feb. 17 .- Mrs. Capt. Styer was

Logan, Feb. 17.--Mrs. Capt. Styer was hostess at a most delightful Kensing-ton hast Saturday afternoon, given for the teachers of the New Jersey Acad-emy. The time was very pleasantly spent in games, social chat and swing, dainty refreshments were served. Miss Kyle, Mrs. Flemming and Mrs Bezell were the prize utmose in a suitesting

16

City. She will remain until after Tues-day evening for the purpose of acting as bridesmaid to Miss Lillie Gates. * * * A large delegation of Ltah legisla-A large delegation of Ltah legisla-A large delegation of Utah legisla-tors were guests of Dr. and Mrs. M. H. Hardy at the state mental hospital yes-terday afternoon. They arrived on a special at 9.80 Friday morning, where conveyances were in waiting to take them out to the hospital. After going through the building they were nvit-ed to the large dipingroom, where a was given Thursday evening at the home of the bride's parents, when many relatives assembled and enjoyed de lightful wedding festivities. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson are most estimable young people, and a large circle of friends unite in anticipating for them a happy and successful future. ed to the large dhingroom, where a splendid dinner was served. Dr. Hardy, in his usual characteristic way, suc-cessfully arranged everything for the - A large number of the friends of Mr, and Mrs. Jacob I. Jacobson of the Sec-ond ward surprised him at his home pleasure and comfort of his guests. on the evening of the 13th, the occasion The ladies of the Rebecca lodge gave of the fifty-second birthday analyer-sary. A happy evening was passed with music, songs and games, and partaking Mrs. Ed Jones a pleasant surprise par-ty on Wednesday afternoon, About 30 were present to enjoy with Mrs. Jones the afternoon's pleasures. of a fine supper.

wity gave a "moonlight the affair being a most delightful one.

The week's notable event may be said to have been the arrunal breakfast of the Ladies' Literary society yesterday, the affair being only what would be expected from the women in charge, and the other members, and guests.

On Tuesday Mrs. R. A. Keyes enter-tained informally at bridge in honor of Miss Lillian Waller of Kentucky prizes being won by Miss Waller, Mrs. R. J. Glendinning, and Mrs. C. D. Rook-R. J. Glendinning, and Mrs. C. D. Rook-lidge. Her guests were besides Miss Waller, Mrs. David R. Gray, Mrs. C. D. Rooklidge, Mrs. H. L. Miller, Mrs. C. W. Fineld, Mrs. J. E. Galigher, Mrs. W. C. Alexander, Miss Reinhart of Iu-diana, Mrs. J. T. Harris, Miss Sarah Alexander, Mrs. Robert Glendinning, Mrs. S. V. Hum, Mrs. Wing B. Allen, Mrs. W. W. Flagg, Mrs. Lewis Cocil Robinson and Miss Katherine Judge. Sarah Spalding was guest of honor at a reception given by Mrs. J. B. Eddie and Miss Clara Colburne. The rooms were bright with palms and flowers, daffodils being used with the green in charming effect. An orchestra render-ed music during the afternoon, and a number of the young girls of the senior class assisted in entertaining.

Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Cary entertained at an elaborate dinner in honor of Bishop and Miss Spalding on Tuesday hight, covers being laid for 12.

Mrs. W. W. Chun, are, John Pawids and Mrs. Frank Olsen entertained at cards on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week. The rooms were daintily adorned with hearts and cut flowers, and the prize-winners were Mrs. W. H. King and W. M. Dotkin, Mrs. Ellaworth Daggett and Mrs. H. A. Whitney were among the many hostesses on Tuesday, entertaining at informal affairs at their respective nomes

Gov. and Mrs. Cutler and party oc cupied stalls at the theater on Thurs Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Weir enterday hight. tained at dinner on Monday, the occa-sion being the birthday of the host.

Invitations are out for the grand dance and county fair to be given by the university students body on the eve of Washington's birthday. The offair is to be of the old colonial style and a large portion of the students will ap-pear in colonial costume. Mrs. J. M. Bidwell is one of today's hostesses. Mrs. John N. Sharp entertained at a Rensington on Wednesday, in honor of Mrs. J. H. Young, who leaves shortly to reside in Denver. The rooms were wffectively decorated, and a guessing game was one of the pleasant features, the prize being won by Mrs. Walter Vennings.

Mr. and Mrs. George Y. Wallace en-tertained at dinner on Wednesday in bonor of Bishop Spalding and Miss Spalding, their guests numbering 12. The table was artistic in decornions The table was arbitle in decornions of red carnations and violets, the latter being at each place, and tied with red ribbons. Present hesides the guest of honor were Dean and Mrs J. B. Eddie, Mr, and Mrs. William Iglebeart. Miss Clara Colburne, Miss Adelaide Nason, Leo Marix and George Y. Wallace, Jr,

The hop at the post on Wednesday was the usual picasant affult, and a large number enjoyed it. The guests were received by Captain and Mrs. S. V. Ham, Lieutenant and Mrs. A. L. Easton, Lieutenant and Mrs. A. B. Bloan, Lieutenant C. F. Saunders and Lieutenant B. P. Oswalt. 8 4 X

Mrs. C. von Knobloch was hostes at a large card party on Wednesda at a large card party on Weineausy afternoon, given in honor of her guest, Miss Fox of Philadelphia. The rooms were prettly decorated in the Valentine idea, and the scores and tailies were in the same design. Prizes in the con-test were won by Mrs. T. L. Hammer, Mrs. Arthur Brown, Mrs. W. E. Jones, Mrs. Forgee, Mrs. Boxrud and Miss Fox.

. . .

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Pearsall and Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Terry were hosts last right at an informal gathering at the Country club, the guests being chiefly members of a social circle which has been meeting together for some time. The evening was devoted to charades, cards, etc., and a delightful time spent

A most enolyable affair was the reception tendered Rev. and Mrs. Mc-Clain Davis on Thursday night, when the members of their church met tugether to tender cordial greetings to will be resumed the week following.

1.2.3.

Mrs. R. W. Young entertained the

Mrs. W. W. Chiff. Mrs. John Pawlas

[10] A. K. A. K.

8.18.19

Watter next Tuesday and Mrs. H. L. Miller will be the hostess at a small

Mrs. John Clark and Mrs. C. H. Mc Coy have issued invitations for a card party to be given at the home of Mrs. McCoy next Wednesday afternoon,

Mr. and Mrs. George K. Smith will entertain at a diamer this evening at the Enery-Holmes, followed by a box party at the play in convilument to their brother, James Robinson of Mon-

Mrs. A. L. Roppaugh has beened in-vitations for two card partiese hext, week, one on Tuesday, the second on Wednesday afternoon.

3 3 4

Mrs. J. W. Robinson entertained a party of 14 friends on Thursday even-

Miss Eleanor Crawford entertained a few friends informally at cards Wed-uesday afternoon.

. . . Mrs. Wilbur W. Flagg entertained the Bridge club at the Kergon this week.

Mrs. Fine P. Ernest of St. Louis in in the city, the guest of her daughter, Mrs. J. O. Reber at the Emery-Holmes, Mrs. Julia Kimball entertained at luncheon on Tuesday in honor of Mrs. Kirkpatrick, covers being laid for 18. The two tables were effectively decor-ated in violets and lines of the valley.

The Christennen, Wednesday solree continues to be a pleasant informal event. Next Wednesday there will be the usual matines, and holiday party. Washington's birthday. The scirces

- K - K - 2

ireal, who is this guest.

today.

Mrs. Fineld will entertain for Miss athering in honor of the same visitor

Sewing club yesterday.

Mrs. Richard Croker might be truthfully characterized as one of the "Unknown Wives of Well-known Men." Her picture has been seen by but very few people. This is the first picture taken of Mrs. Croker in many years.

Sarah Spalding was guest of honor at | iting her sister, Mrs. E. S. Wright left yesterday for her home in Idaho. Miss Georgia Hartley has returned from Ploche and De Lamar, Nev.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Curtis have returned from California and with them is Mrs. James Chandler Roach of Philadelphia. They are at home at the Louise flats, with Miss Mury Rider and Miss Flats. Curtis Miss Eliza Curtis.

Mrs. C. K. Knoblech will leave this week for a visit with her mother in Philadelphia. Miss Eleanor Fox will reinnin for some time with Dr. and Mrs. Landenberger.

Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Cary and Mrs. Page are now at home to their friends at 71 Tweith East street.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Macdonald of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Macdonald of Oakland, Cal., are visiting Mr. Mac-donald's parents in this city, but will leave early in the week to visit Mrs. Macdonald's parents, Key, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Maynard.

Miss Sara Reid Park left for Call-Misa Bara Mock.

Mrs. J. J. Buswell left Tuesday for California, where she will visit with friends for the next three months. with

The marriage of Miss Maud Frame ad Mr. Stanley Hanks was selemnized a the Temple on Thursday, F. M. Jyman, the groom's grandfather, ofciating. Later a reception was held at he home of the bride's parents, Mr, nod Mrs. Archibald Frame, at Taylors-Ule, where a large number of relatives

" I give him his Mellin's Food and he sleeps ' til morning." How many mothers can say this of their babies? If your baby does not sleep well it may be that he is not properly fed. A poorly nourished baby is a poor sleeper. Mellin's Food babies are good sleepers. Our book the "Care & Feeding of Infants," seat free of charge.

Meilin's Food is the ONLY Infants' Food, which received the Grand Priss, the highest award of the Louisiana Pur-chase Exposition, St. Louis, 1904. High-er than a gold medal.

MELLIN'S FOOD CO., BOSTON, MASS.

pretty Kensington given InFare number of friends last Monday.

Mrs. David Byrne of Uintah celebrat-ed her 50th birthday Friday. A large circle of her relatives and friends gathred at her home and enjoyed her hos pitallty, 8 8 8

One of the prettiest dancing parties of the season was given Monday evening at Talker's Dancing academy by the alumnt of the Ogden High school. There were present over 100 couples, who tripped the light fantastic until midnight. Refreshments were served by Mathews. The hall was a profusion of hearts, bows and arrows and cupids, artistically arranged. artistically arranged.

Mrs. Adolph Schaunsenbach enter-tained the Ladics' Aid society of the Presbyterian church at her pretty home on Adams avenue yesterday

The engagement of Miss Hattic The engagement of Miss Hattie Hincheliffe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mathias Hincheliffe, was announced this week. The marriage will be solemnized next Wednesday in the Salt Lake Temple. They will be given an elaborate reception at the home of the bride-elect's parents, 165 west Twenty-seventh street. Thursday. Both par-tles are very popular in the city. . . .

An elegant wedding reception was given Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Hughes, in honor of their daughter Miss Jennie Hughes who was wedded Wednesday in the Salt Lake Temple to Mr. Albert Brockbank. A large number of guests attended the recention to extend their congratulations and best wishes for a long and prosperous life. A sumption ong and prosperous life. A sumptuous wodding repast was served. The par-ors were preifily decorated with cut lors were prettilly decorated with cut flowers, evergreens and potted plants. Twenty relatives came to Ogden in a special car from Spanish Fork to at-tend the reception. They received many beautiful and costly presents. The contracting parties are both very popular in Utah. The bride is a charm-ing and accomplished young lady of Ogden, but who had spent most of her life at Spanish Fork, where the groom's home is and he is prominent in social circles. Mr. and Mrs. Brockbank will make their home at Spanish Fork. make their home at Spanish Fork. 1 1 1

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Isaacs, Jr., left this week for California where they will make their future home.

PROVO.

Provo.-Miss Margaret Thurman en-tertained Friday afternoon in honor of Miss Nins Bean. The home was beau-tifully decorated with carnations, ferns and potted plants. The luncheon table was in plnk, roses and carnations furn-ishing a most beautiful centerpiece. Games and music made the hours pass pleasantly. pleasantly.

. . . Miss Lillie Gates of Salt Lake City was in Provo on Sunday, the guest of Miss Merium Nelke. Miss Gates has many friends in Provo, who, after next Tuesday, will extend congratulations as invitations are issued to her wedding reception on that date.

Miss Bertha Kunz Baker gave a re-cital this afternoon at the B. Y. uni-versity. She will appear again this eve-ning, when she is assured a large nthusiastic audience.

The Commercial club are making ex-The Commercial club is making ex-tensive preparations for a social eve-ning Feb. 21. It will be given in the club rooms, where they expect to en-tertain a number of their friends.

Miss Lena Bachman is in Salt Lake

Mrs. R. E. Knowlden entertained a children's party on Wednesday after-noon in honor of the birthday anni-versary of her little daughter, Leucelle, There were many amusing games ar-ranged, which pleased the merry party, and with the music and luncheon, made on Friday evening, in honor of the out-ging and incoming boards of education. The class rooms in the Maeser school were artistically decorated, and many toasta were cleverly given.

The officers of the Fifth ward mutual The oncors of the Fifth ward mitual gave a linen and china shower in honor-of Miss Nina Bean on Thursdny eve-ning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wil-liams. A musical program was given during the forepart of the evening, after which huncheen, sontiments and best wishes from all of her co-workers made wishes from all of her co-workers made the hours pass pleasantly. Those pres-ent were Mrs. Bessie Williams, Eisle Bennett, Birdie Cluff, Fern Cluff, Nora Meldrum, Mary J. Cluff, Hattle T. Snow, Emma Newell, Agnes Everett, Jean Noyes, Margaret Thurman, Mrs. Olive Bean, Mrs. Pauline Bean, Mary Snyder, Virgie Bean, Violate Eillott, Margaret Bean, Fanny McLean and Azua Bean.

Azua Bean.

The Sorosis club mot with Mrs. Sam The Sorosis club mot with Mrs. Sam King on Wedneaday atternoor. Mrs. Speckari gave a paper, subject, "Cam-paign in New York and New Jersey." Miss Hoagiand's review of "The Con-queror" was an instructive and enter-taining number.

The Henry Hour club met on Wed-nesday evening with Dr, and Mrs, Sny-der. Old fashioned games created much of the evening's merriment. High five of the evening's merriment. High five was the game played during part of the evening. Mr. Hyrum Jensen and Mrs. David Openshaw winning first prizes. The consolation prizes going to Mr. Green and Mrs. Louise McBride. Be-side the club members the invited guests were Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Bar-ney, Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Taft, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Sparks, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Twelves, Mayor and Mrs. Roylance, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Allman, Mrs. Hindley and Mrs. McBride.

. . .

Mrs. Clark, Mrs. Gardner, Mrs. Ev. ans. Mrs. Goodman, Mrs. Davis and Miss Kendal of Lehi were visiting Provo friends on Thursday, 8 8 8

Miss Annie Newell entertained at din-ner on Sunday evening. The table dec-orations were red roses and smilax. Covers were laid for seven.

Miss Beulah Keeler entertained on Friday evening at an old fashioned candy pull. From the beginning to the end of the evening merriment served the object of the gathering.

The Nineteenth Century club met cith Mrs. Newell on Friday afternoon. Mrs. Haverchamp gave an excellent re-view of Shakespeare's sollioquy, fol-lowed by Miss Pond's review of Shakespeare's sonnets.

. . . .

The Rebecca lodge arranged a suc-cessful surprise party on Mrs. Eph Homer, About 50 of the ladies and gentiemen of the lodge, with well filled funcheon baskets, slipped into the cozy little home of Mr, and Mrs. Homer, last Tuesday evening, in remembrance of Mrs. Homer's birthday anniversary, Songs, games dancing and music rends Songs, games, dancing and music made the evening a delightful one.

Mrs. Reed Smoot and son Harold left | and Mrs. Joel A. Johnson of the Third |

Miss Victoria Otteson entertained the Myster club and a number of their gentleman friends at a valentine party on Friday evening. The color scheme of pink and while was carried out in all the decorations, luncheon, and games obsed. As each set the set of the set o all the decorations, luncheon, and games played. As each gentleman arrived he was given a booklet and requested, lat-er in the evening, to retire alone and write out a description of the gown worn by his partner. The heads were cut off from a number of mock valen-tines, and the guests were expected to draw a head corresponding to the body of the valentine. Refreshments were served, and games and songs completed a merry evening's entertainment. a merry evening's entertainment.

clous luncheon was served.

8.1.4

Miss Iona Knight entertained at a valentine party on Wednesday evening. The decorations were ferns and carna-tions, with a large number of different evening.

ning,

Kyle, Mrs. Flemming and Mrs Bexeli were the prize winners in a guessing contest. Those present besides the hostess were Mosdames W. S. Lang-ton, T. W. Naylor, G. W. Thatcher, J. N. Smith, A. M. Flemming, G. H. Champ, R. L. Campbell, D. C. Budge, F. W. Thatcher, J. E. Shepherd, B. G. Thatcher, Bexell, J. F. Engle, L. A. Ostein, Earratt; Misses Agnes Cassidy, Susie Filgram, DeGraff, Annie Ray-mond, Elizabeth Smith, Jensen, Kyle, Lyone, McBride. Miss Rose entertained a number of friends at a Dutch supper on Tuesday

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Farrer enter-tained a number of friends at their home on Monday evening. Each room was beautifully decorated with paims, potted plants and carnations. Card Lyane, McBride.

There was a very pleasant family party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McAllster last Saturday evening, the occasion being a farewell to their son Frank, who left Monday morning to fill a mission in Germany playing, guessing games and music was Miss Violet Wendelboe was the host-Miss Erma Loose, Miss DeLlille Cluff, Miss Violet Wendelboe was the host-ess at a very pleasant evening party last Monday. Cards were played and most appropriate refreshments were served. The invited guests were Misses Kate Thatcher, Eva Knox, Mrs. Lulu Johnson; Messrs. John Chris-tiansen, Art Jenkins, Sylvan Needham, Charles Wendelboe, Cooley. Miss Zella Farrer and Miss Fay Loose entertained at a dancing party at the First ward social hall on Monday eve-ning. The hall was decorated with red and white hear's hanging from the cen-ter to the four corners of the room. The valentine idea was carried out in the different amusements during the eve-

Mr. and Mrs. Ell Bell entertained a Mr. and Mrs. Sam King entertained the Card club on Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Ell Bell entertained a number of their friends in a very hos-pitable manner last Tuesday evening. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Davidson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Earl, Mr. E. W. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. George Lindquist. The Misses Mrs. George Lindquist. The Misses Hattle, Alice, Flo and Dan Smith, Miss Eurice Jacobson, Mr. and Mrs. Dell Bell.

. . . Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Naylor enter-tained at dinner on Wednesday evening. Their guests were Mr. ad Mrs. W. S. Langton, Miss Rampton and Dr. Einels * * *

Mr. Hyrum Hayball has gone to Los Angeles, where he will meet Mrs. Hay-ball and Mr. George Hayball.

Mr. John A. McAllister has gone to Mexico on business.

Miss Zula Houiz is in Salt Lake City, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. King.

Mayor Robinson gave a most inter-esting lecture on Palestine before the Y. L. M. I. A. of the First ward last Thursday evening. An event which Miss Nellie Johnson, daughter of Mr.

Mrs. Susie Y. Gates and Mrs. Minule J. Snow, were in Logan the first part of the week having come up from Salt Lake to attend the M. I. A. confer-ence. They were the guests of Mrs. J. A. Widtsoe and Mrs. Alf Cole.

tions, with a large number of different sizes and colors of paper hearts hung in different parts of the room. An ideal postoffice was arranged, fitted up with electric hights and drapings of red, white and blue bunting. A guessing contest was arranged, Josiah Thomma and Nellie Wilkens winning first prizes. Those present were Annie Wilkins, Vera Taft, Nettle Adams, Eva Jones, Della Walker, Beulah Giles, Devere Ro-zelle, Nellie Watkins, Emma Watkins, Grace Carter, Hazel Leftler, Edith Cluff, Nams Farrer, Laura Barney, Fern Pet-

Mrs. Pyper of Salt Lake is the guest of her daughter Mrs. W. B. Preston, Grace Carter, Hazei Leffler, Edith Cluff, Nana Farrer, Laura Barney, Fern Pet-ers, Florence Hollbrock, Lizzle Wat-kins, Leoma Worsley, Cloe Jones, Kate Taylor, Irane Basseit, Leonea Wilson, Stabley Jones, Lyman Noyes, James McMurrin, Berg Jorgenzen, Ellwood Houtz, Josiah Thomas, Emmett Cluff, Delos Paxman, Leland Farrer, Lyman Strong, Orrin Walter, Allen Thurman, Hartow Smoot, Ray Van Wagner, Wil-le Albred, Heber Taylor, Milton Fletch-er, Don Schwab, Elwood Bachman, Ed-win Loose, Shirley Adams, Lester Lef-fler, and Victor Thurman.

the afternoon a happy one. The Provo City teachers entertained successfully planned amusements ar-ranged. A college luncheon was served, at which time responses to several