LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Will Close.—The present session of the Legislature will close one week from to-day.

All Well.—This morning we were pleased to meet with our old friend Bishop George Halliday, of Santaquin. All well in his pleasant and prosperous little ward.

Change of County Seat.—Justice W. P. Nebeker, of Box Elder County, is in the city. He brings with him a petition for presentation to the Legislature, asking that the county seat be changed from Randolph to Lake View.

Mis-Statement Refuted.—This morning, by permission of the House of Representatives, the clerk, Mr. Arthur Stayner, stated that an assertion, published in a morning paper to the effect that he had secreted a committee report, with a view of preventing a reporter having access to it, is unqualifiedly untrue.

"Scandinavia."—A crowded audience assembled to listen to the lecture of Hon. W. W. Cluff, on "Scandinavia," delivered under the auspices of the Ward Young Men's Literary Association last evening. The Scandinavian choir supplied excellent music on the occasion.

Supposed Suicide.—On Wednesday a woman put up at the Valley House, registered as Mrs. E. Landt and stayed till last evening, when the proprietor of the house told her she must leave. About ten minutes after her departure Mr. Sorenson found the following note, in the room she had occupied:

"Mr. Sorenson: You have done a cruel wrong. Letting me stay on credit you might have saved my life. I have just taken one ounce of laudanum. I have no friends in the city and if I did I am too proud to ask for assistance from them. I have no money. To-morrow ade[illegible] my friend will come, but I have no place to stop to-night. I can not spend the night in the streets alive. If you had been a little more lenient you might have saved my life, as it is, I bear no malice.

"ANNA [illegible]."

Mr. Sorenson notified the police and they have been on the look out for the woman.

George Francis.—Many of our citizens remember the erratic and singular utterances of George Francis Train, when a speech he made in this city. Recently he addressed an audience composed entirely of ladies, in the New York Grand Opera House. Here is an extract from a published report of the proceedings:

"Don't take that baby, sir," cried Mr. Train, interrupting himself. "I've psychologized him, that's all." Then Mr. Train selected a long note, and cried, "A broken-hearted maiden," asking Mr. Train's advice in her trouble. Her accepted lover was poor in purse and her parents would not let her marry him. "A broken-hearted maiden!" said Mr. Train, scornfully. "Tisn't the heart—it's the stomach. The proper title to use the term heart is because it is easy to get a rhyme for it—and so hard to get one for the stomach. Dyspepsia is called a broken heart. Here's a couple to be married," and Mr. Train pantomimed the priest, saying, "Are you willing to take this woman from this miserable fraud, called a man, this tobacco flavored, gin smelling carcass for your beloved husband?" Then with a simper, Mr. Train responded "Yes," for the bride. Turning to the supposed bridegroom he said, fiercely: "And will you take this bunch of millinery, these false teeth, this false hair, this miserable specimen of adulteration for your beloved wife?" The bridegroom said "yes," through the speaker, and then Mr. Train blarted out: "What God has put together, let the next bed man run away with!" (Hysterical laughter.) "Whoever is satisfied with this talk so far, say aye." Approval was unanimous.

The Wool Tariff.—Last night a goodly number of wool growers of Utah and others interested in the question of the proposed reduction or removal by Congress, of the existing tariff on imported wool and woolen goods assembled in convention, at the Council House.

Hon. A. H. Raleigh was elected chairman and M. C. E. Silverwood, secretary.

The chairman stated briefly the object of the convention.

Mr. H. B. Clawson spoke clearly and pointedly upon the likely injury that would result to the infant and growing industry—the wool raising and the manufacture of woolen cloths, were the tariff on woolen goods importations removed or even to any extent modified. Not only would it seriously injure these branches, but the depressing effects of such a measure would be felt in every department of trade throughout the country. Utah, essentially a wool growing Territory, would feel the deleterious effects of such a measure strongly. It has been demonstrated at the Centennial Exposition that as fine woolen fabrics were being manufactured in the United States as in any part of the world. The removal or diminution of the protective tariff would impede the growth of this most important industry. The wool growers, unable to compete with foreign producers, would almost give up their business, and take to other and more profitable pursuits. The wool growers of Utah, in conjunction with those of every other section of the country should enter a vigorous protest against the passage of any such legislation of the kind referred to.

On motion a committee was appointed to draft appropriate resolutions. The committee retired and after an absence of about half an hour, returned with the following report, which was unanimously adopted:

Whereas, The Congress of the United States has under consideration the question of the modification or removal of the tariff on wool and woolen goods,

Resolved, By the wool growers of Utah, in convention assembled, that in this attempt we recognize an imminent danger to the prosperity of one of the most important industries in this Territory and the country at large.

Resolved, That we do protest against the abolition or any material reduction of the existing protective tariff on wool and woolen goods.

Resolved, That we most unqualifiedly endorse the resolutions adopted by the joint conference of the members of the National Association of Woolen Manufacturers, and the National Wool Growers' Association, held in Rochester, N. Y., and the convention of the Rocky Mountain Wool Growers' Association, held at Denver, Colorado.

Resolved, That a certified copy of these resolutions be forwarded to Hon. George Q. Cannon, Delegate in Congress from this Territory, with a request that he use his best endeavors to further the interests herein expressed.

D. DAVIDSON,
JOSEPH HARKER,
SAML. R. BENNION,
WM. C. RYDALCH,
J. W. CUMMINGS,
H. B. CLAWSON,
JOHN NICHOLSON,
Committee.

Remarks were made by Messrs. Buxhaum, Davidson and others, and some interesting figures were given in relation to the wool-growing interest in Utah, which we are unable to give at present.

A very able, logical speech was made by Mr. James W. Cummings. He reasoned upon the supposed advantages that, according to the views of some people, would accrue from the reduction or removal of the protective tariff, by cheapening certain classes of goods. He then showed that such seeming advantage was insignificant and superficial, in view of the unqualifiedly bad effects that would follow the want of protection to the home wool interests. Business both in the productive and manufacturing departments would be impeded, stultified and probably destroyed. If the markets were flooded with cheap imported goods, the sheep would be killed off, the factories closed, the people thrown out of employment or compelled to work at starvation wages, and the production of machinery impeded. Rather than have such results it would be far more profitable for all classes of consumers to pay a higher price for woolen goods. When factories were compelled to close, and there was little or no machinery, then the people would be at the mercy, in relation to prices, of monopolists who would have control of the business. The speaker was of the opinion that the removal or material modification of the tariff would be little else than a national calamity.

The chairman, Hon. A. H. Raleigh discharged the duties of the position in an efficient and therefore satisfactory manner.

The secretary, Mr. Silverwood, was instructed to forward to Delegate Cannon a certified copy of the resolutions adopted by the convention, and the assemblage adjourned sine die.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

COUNCIL.

February 14, afternoon.

Council resumed consideration of striking out section 3 of C. F. 10, "amending city charters," and the section was amended and the House was notified of this action; also the amendment to section 9, together with the Council concurrence, to all other House amendments.

A message was received from the House, announcing that that body did not concur in the Council amendments to H. F. 10, "amending sections 338 and 339 of the Compiled Laws," and returning it to the Council for its further action thereon.

The Council then reconsidered the said amendments, and the bill was laid on the table for the present.

Minutes read and accepted.

Council adjourned till Friday morning, at 10 o'clock.

Benediction.

HOUSE.

February 14th.

The committee to whom was referred that portion of the Governor's message relating to polygamy reported the following:

COMMITTEE ROOM, CITY HALL,
Salt Lake City, Feb. 14, 1878.

To the Hon. Speaker and Members of the House of Representatives.

GENTLEMEN—Your committee on the judiciary, to whom was referred that part of the Governor's message relating to polygamy, marriages, or to that class of marriages wherein two or more women, voluntarily and contemporaneously, enter into the marital relations with one man, beg leave to report to your honorable body that we have had the subject under careful consideration, and have unanimously come to the following conclusions:

First—That while the Divine law most plainly announces directions, admonitions, and commandments, it does in no instance condemn the class of marriages above referred to; but, on the contrary, such marriages were established, approved, blessed and greatly multiplied by revelations commanded by the Great Lawgiver himself.

Second—That while illegitimate children, or bastards, were under the curse of the Divine law, and debarred from entering the congregations of the Lord for ten generations, the children of polygamic wives were called of God, and by his Divine appointment were made prophets, rulers and judges in Israel.

Third—That there was no distinction in the Divine law in the inheritance of property between polygamic and monogamic children.

Fourth—That the law of God emphatically declares the marriage ordinance to be a Divine ordinance, as in most clearly established in the following quotation: "What God hath joined together," etc. Millions of Christians among civilized nations who are unwilling to receive this holy sacrament and enter into the marriage covenant with the ordinance should be considered by their own majority ordained ecclesiastical authorities, being invested with the same constitutions and religious views which they have in regard to other religious sacraments. An overwhelming majority of the people of this Territory, like other religious bodies, believe in the divinity of the marriage ordinance. They also conscientiously and religiously believe in both forms of matrimonial relations, namely, the monogamic and polygamic, and desire to practice the same, according to the Divine institutions and laws of God.

Fifth—That your committee, having sworn to support the constitution of the United States, do not consider themselves empowered to legislate against the religious belief and practices of any conscientious communication who may wish to indulge in the privilege of marriage.

Your committee, therefore, with all due respect to the opinions of any representative in the message of his Excellency, respectfully ask to be discharged from any further consideration of the subject.

HOUSE.

Feb. 15, 10 a. m.

House met pursuant to adjournment.

Roll call, quorum present.

Prayer by the Chaplain.

On motion of Mr. Carrington, John Jaques was elected assistant clerk for the remainder of the session, vice Gen. M. Clark, dismissed.

The following communication from the Council was received and read:

The Council concurs in your amendments to C. F. 10, amending charters of incorporated cities; they also accept sec. 90, which they have amended; have also reconsidered sec. 5 of said bill, and amended the same.

The amendments to C. F. 10, amending the charters of incorporated cities were then read and,

On motion of Mr. Farr, the amendment was not concurred in.

The oath of office was administered to Mr. John Jaques, assistant clerk, by the Speaker.

The following motion was then made and carried:

The committee on municipal incorporations and townsites to whom was referred H. F. 17, substitute bill to amend the charter of Beaver City, report the same back and recommend that it do not pass, and that the representative from Beaver County be allowed to withdraw the same.

The following was received from the Council and read—

Council has passed H. F 16, "a bill in relation to smelting furnaces, etc," with amendments as per enclosed statement, and returned for concurrence.

The amendments of the Council to H. F 16 were then read and concurred in, and the Council notified accordingly.

The following report was received and adopted—

The committee on private incorporations, to whom was referred petition of President and Secretary of the Utah Mutual Tunnel and Silver Mining Company, asking for grant or charter for mining road in Markham's Fork of Bingham Cañon, etc., report back said petition, with recommendation that the committee be released from further consideration, for the reasons that Legislative Assemblies of Territories are forbidden by law of Congress from granting private charters, and that the law of the Territory requires an incorporation for the construction of such a work, which does not appear to exist in this case.

Mr. Petersen presented petition of citizens of Mount Pleasant, Sanpete County, asking amendment to the charter of said city, which was read, and

On motion of Mr. Petersen, referred to the committee on municipal corporations and townsites.

Theatre.—The Union Square Company closed their engagement last evening before a crowded house. The comedy of "The Pink Dominoes," which is merely a three-act farce, was admirably played and received with roars of laughter. It is worked up with great dramatic skill, and the perfect playing of all who took part in it, down to the waiters who merely carried trays, gave it an interest which was kept up from beginning to end. Yet it is a piece that contains no sentiments to be admired and its effects upon the public mind, apart from the fun and amusement it imparts, can be nothing but deleterious.

The company is the best we have seen for many years, and their engagement at Salt Lake has been a thorough success.

The next novelty for the boards is Miss Louise Buckingham and her famous horse James Melville in the play of "Mazeppa."

An Opportunity.—A man with a small family, acquainted with and able to do farm work, also a man capable of managing a carding machine, can obtain situations in the country.

Apply to Bishop Edward Hunter.

From Byrum.—Brother J. Uesworth, superintendent of the Byrum, Cache County, co-operative store, called to-day. All well in Byrum.
