LOGAN.

Logan, Utah. - AUGUST 19, 1895.

The Bicycle Races.

The track of the Logan wheel club was in good condition on Saturday. When eight races were run over the Angeles in the L. A. W. C. A. No one was injured and general supervision, it was expected that a good many crack class B men would compete, but only Tanner and Walker represented that class. The races were not well patronized; the principal reason being that the 25 cents to witness any auto-crook sport. Following is a summary of the races:

One mile, novice, won by H. Beck, time 1 min. 45 sec. The race was run as the time limit was three minutes. This race had to be run over, as it exceeded the time limit, to the second heat. That heat was in just the time limit.

One-half mile scratch, class A, brought out C. C. Hall, O. P. Thatcher and Fred H. May to qualify. May and Thatcher qualified. The second heat was contested by A. E. Hyatt and Joseph Beck. Beck won. The third heat Joseph Beck qualified. The final heat was won by Hyde, in 1 min. 44 sec.

One-half mile scratch, class B, between Walker, Hales, and H. Beck, and time limit. The winner in each race was the first and the last two, except to the final lap, when the winner scored first. The race was made in the final lap, which was won by Walker. The winner in the first heat was in just the time limit.

One mile, nov., class A, for Logan county, won, was by L. F. Smith, in 2 min. with Green Thatcher second.

One mile, nov., Class A, contested by Fred H. May, C. C. Hall, O. P. Hyde Jr. and H. Beck. Hyde and Hall were qualified for two heats, with a time limit of 2 min. By a desperate effort at the outcome, Hyde won from May, in 1 min. 43 sec.
