but a nation; not a government of limited and defined powers, but of unlimited duration. He believed the Union not only destined, but intended, to be perpetual, and that the great war, there ever any reasonable doubt as to the nature of that union, had settled that doubt for ever. He then spoke of the Cincinnati Convention, praising the platform adopted, and declaring that he felt an honor to assist in any capacity in forwarding the principles there laid down.

Gov. Randolph, of New Jersey, made a brief speech. Greeley goes to Louisville to-morrow, and Indianapolis on Monday.

COLUMBIA, O., 20.—Joseph Ordish, of California, en route home from New York, was robbed somewhere on his way of a pocket-book, containing $10,000 in currency and large amounts in notes.

INDIANAPOLIS, 20.—The National Education Convention closed today. C. E. Miles, of Massachusetts, was chosen President. Adjourned to meet at Columbus, Ohio, on the last Wednesday in June.

ST. PAUL, 20.—The State Fair has closed. There were five thousand entries. Total receipts, $15,000. The society is free from debt.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., 20.—There were 10,000 people at the closing to-day of the State Fair. Total receipts, $18,000.

BALTIMORE, 20.—In the afternoon session of the Grand Lodge of O. E. B.

lows, it was decided to be necessary for only the elective officers and subordinate lodges to receive the Rebekah degree before installation, and so determined it expedient to change the terms of the subordinate from six to twelve months. New regalia was adopted for the Past Grand who is also Past Chief Patriarch. It was voted to be expedient to have a subordinate lodge to enact local law providing for the payment of a specified sum as does and relieve a member from further obligation during his membership.

WESTERN DISPATCHES.

There are indications of a scarcity of money for wheat purposes, leading exporters to raise prices. Large crops during the last few weeks, and they now hold immense quantities, all that they can carry. Wheat and flour exports are at a low level. A large portion of the wheat is now being exported to Europe.

During the last twelve months the price of iron risen more than 50 per cent, resulting in an increased price for castings and machinery.

West has invented a pump that throws water with great force to a height of 150 feet.

AN ARIZONA stage passenger reports a fight between

Gen. Crook and the Indians at date creek reservation. Two Apache chiefs were detected by Gen. Crook in leaving the reservation, and going on the war path, and an order was issued to Jacobs, an attache of Collier's, endorsed by Howard and the Indian agent, to arrest the Indian chiefs. The Apache chief, who was named, refused to be taken into custody, but Jacobs declined to give them up, whereupon Gen. Crook proceeded in person to Date Creek and ordered a corporal's guard to arrest the
