BRUTAL CRIME AT NORTH SALT LAKE

Two Men Deliberately Plan Murder and Robbery of Junk Dealers.

BEAT THEM WITH A HAMMER.

Art Bowen and Dick Baker Arrested and Confess They Did the Deed.

Eddie Green Lies Dying at St. Mark's Hospital With His Skull Fractured in Five Places.

One of the most atrocious crimes in the annals of the Salt Lake police department was committed last night when two young men, Art Bowen and Dick Baker made a murderous assault upon two junk dealers, Eddie Green and Mike Globenfert, at an isolated section of the country north of the state seats grounds.

Bowen and Baker are locked in separate cells at the city jail. Green is slowly dying at St. Mark's hospital from his injuries, while Globenfert is at the emergency hospital at police headquarters suffering from numerous scalp wounds, cuts and bruises.

Globenfert is painfully though not seriously hurt, but Green is being kept alive by stimulants and, according to a statement made by City Physician Stewart in the "News" this morning, has no chance whatever for recovery.

At least he has five fractures of the skull, 12 severely split wounds, several broken bones in the hands and a broken forearm, recovery is pronounced impossible.

Bowen and Baker were arrested within a few hours after the commission of the horrible crime. They were seen at the city jail by a "News" representative.

Baker had not a word to say this morning although both thugs made a complete confession to Chief Officer C. C. Grundig at an early hour this morning. The men are locked in different parts of the jail without any communication between them.

At first they declared their innocence and swore they knew nothing about the case, but later both broke down and made a full confession.

COULD NOT IDENTIFY HIM.

This morning a "News" reporter saw Baker and Bowen in their cells at the city jail. H. H. Schofield, a young man employed in the mailing department of the "News," who was held up and robbed a few nights ago, was present for the purpose of identifying, if possible, Baker and Bowen. Schofield was unable to positively identify the men but said Baker looked like the robber. Schofield and Bowen remained together at the time of the holdup and when Schofield was conducted to Bow-en's cell the latter at once exclaimed:

"You don't think I had anything to do with that other affair, do you?"

Schofield replied:

"No, Art, I don't. If you had been mixed up in that, I would have known it."

ARRESTS MADE.

BOWEN'S PLEA.

Bowen was asked by the reporter:
"What possessed you to do this thing?"

"Oh! God! I don't know," replied the young man. "I got into bad company, that's all. I did not realize what I was doing. I only struck the man once with the hammer. Baker did the rest."

"Which man?" was asked.

"... man at the hospital. Oh! why did I do this thing? I just got into bad company."

"How long have you known this man

Baker?"

"I met him about a week ago and got along with him. I don't know whether he was the man who robbed Schofield or not."

GREEN'S CONDITION.

During the trip in the wagon Globen-fert and Green rode on the seat of the wagon. Bowen and Baker stood behind them. When they reached the certain point was reached Baker nudged Bowen and that was the signal for the attack. Bowen was armed with a hammer, while Baker had a towel roller, which they stole from the basement of Walker Brothers' store yesterday morning. Bowen struck Green a terrible blow on the head with the hammer, while Baker hit Globenfert on the head with the roller. Although the first blow from the hammer fractured Green's skull, he tried to defend himself, but blow after blow was rained upon him and he was finally pushed out of the wagon. Bowen defended himself and struck Green once with the hammer, while which time Bowen took the weapon, leaned to the ground and began beating Green. Globenfert was assaulted with the roller, fell to the ground and feigned unconsciousness.
Baker then left him and returned to Green, striking him several blows with the hammer.

PLEADED FOR LIFE.

The latter cried:

"For God's sake man don't kill me, but don't kill me." According to a statement made to the coroner this morning by Green, Baker replied:

"We intend to kill you, you son of a—"

Again he struck the prostrate man and left him for dead.

In the meantime Globenfert saw a chance to escape and ran through a swamp and concealed himself in a bunch of brush. He saw the two thugs climb into the wagon and drive toward the city. Globenfert then ran to the police headquarters. He tried to cross an ice pond but the ice broke and he was drenched to the skin. He ran and crawled for several blocks to a store where he sent word to police headquarters.

AFTER THE MEN WERE ASSAULTED AND KNOCKED OUT OF THE WAGON THEY WERE ROBBED OF $120. FROM GLODENFERT THE THUGS SECURED $65 AND FROM GREEN $52.

When the report of the affair was made to the police headquarters the police wagon and several officers rushed to the scene. Green was found in the road in a pool of blood and unconscious from the terrible beating he had received.
Globenfert was found at the store and the victims were hurried to police headquarters. They were placed in the emergency hospital and Drs.
Stewart and Paul summoned. The physicians dressed the wounds and sent Green to St. Mark's hospital.

WILL DIE, SAYS DOCTOR.

This morning Dr. Stewart operates on Green and removed more than a dozen pieces of the fractured skull from the bone. The skull was fractured in three places, the bones being crushed into the brain. Dr. Stewart said this morning:

"The hammer went through Green's skull in five places. In two places two pieces of bone the size of a half dollar were overlapped and I took out piece after piece. How the man could possibly live so long is more than I can say. He has had a chance whatever of recovery and death is only a question of a matter of time. Meningitis or brain fever will almost certainly develop and then will come death. It will surely be a murder case. We simply kept the man alive with stimulants, which have worn off and the shock is over with. I do not think the man has a chance to live."

FOUND ON SCENE.

While the injuries sustained by Globenfert were serious and painful, he was able to accompany officers in the wrecked wagon this morning to the scene of the frightful occurrence. The whip which had been dropped from the wagon, and several pools of blood were found by the officers. They also found the hammer, roller and a money sack, which Baker threw away, but some of the money could not be found.

That the young thugs planned murder and robbery is admitted by them and proven by their circumstances. They intended killing the junk dealers and planned for days to get junk dealers to accompany them to a lonely place where they could carry out their murderous design. Both Green and Globenfert were junk dealers. The latter arrived in Salt Lake a few days ago from Caliente in company with a friend named Harry Brown. He was here about two months ago and had bought junk from Bowen. Green has been here for several months following the junk business.

PLANNED ON WEDNESDAY.

On Wednesday evening while in the Success bar Globenfert was approached by young Bowen who told him an alarming tale about having a quantity of copper wire secreted in some bushes near the state fair grounds. Globenfert made an appointment to meet Bowen last evening. Green was taken in on the wagon and furnished a horse and carriage with which he had gone to the Junk. According to appointment the four met at the Success bar, and after taking a drink, the party started out.

They were on the road to the Oakley addition when Bowen and Baker suddenly drew the hammer and roller and made the murderous assault:

The arrest of Bowen and Baker was brought about by the fact that the two had made overtures to the two junk dealers. One of them, Jake Friedman, called at the police station this morning and stated that Bowen had tried several times during the early part of the week to induce him to make the trip to the place where the wire was supposed to be secreted. Friedman say Bowen at the city jail this morning and at once identified him. Bowen also recognized Friedman and spoke to him.

FRIEDMAN'S STATEMENT.

Friedman said to the "News":
"I talked to me about Monday and told me he had some wire he wanted me to sell. I put him off but he insisted on making an appointment with me.
I told him I would meet him the following morning, but he showed up in the afternoon and wanted me to get a wagon and make the trip. I told him I did not work after 3 o'clock. In the afternoon and refused to go with him.
This morning when I saw him I said, 'Well, I was a little bit too smart for you.'"

ACTION POSTPONED.

During the late afternoon the executive committee had somewhat hesitated discussing the subject for three-quarters of an hour and finally on motion of Congressman Parsons, president of the county committee, it had been decided to postpone the adjournment of the House until January 1st.

The man who has been selected by the navy department for this important duty is Capt. E. F. Greene, of the U.
S. army transport service. He is 56 years of age and has made in all 17 trips through the straits. He has been a sailor since he was 14 years of age, when he joined the confederate navy.
His first trip was made in 1896, and the last a year ago when he brought the lighthouse tender Juanita to the Pacific coast. Capt. Greene will assign charge as pilot of the new Punta Arenas about Feb. 1, according to schedule. There will be assigned to him of the fleet of the torpedo crafts with which he will lead the way through the straits. The actual passage will require about 48 hours.

Capt. Greene anticipates no danger in taking the straits, as far as the weather is concerned.

There is no danger in passing through the straits if you know the channel," he said. "It is to all intents an island sea. The water is deep and there are no heavy seas. It is of course essential that the pilot know every foot of the channel. Passing through the straits is one of the most dangerous parts of the trip between the two western coasts; namely, the rounding of Cape Horn.
The tides from the east and west meet at the Horn and in consequence it is frequently almost impossible to carry a ship around. At all times it is decidedly dangerous.
The only way to avoid danger is to pass through the straits, but a great deal of time is required to do this. The journey is shortened somewhat and having to combat no winds or seas, it is possible to drive the boats along at a greater speed."

A DETERMINED SUICIDE.

St. Louis, Dec. 19.—The dead body of Arthur Ahearn, a title investigator, was found in the bathtub of his residence here today. Ahearn had stabbed himself over the heart, cut an artery in one wrist and swallowed poison, presumably prussic acid. He had been subjected to fits of melancholy.

HUSBANDS TESTIFY.

One Had Divorce from Woman, Other Wanted One.

Chicago, Dec. 20.—A "husband of the past tense" went to the rescue of a husband of the present. The divorce suit of Mrs. Antonia Ulrich yesterday.
"Number 2" and "Number 3" formed an offensive and defensive alliance against the wife that was and is. Whereas Charles E. Hughes has displayed during his incumbency of the office of governor of state of New York a degree of executive and administrative ability, courage and devotion to duty which has secured for him the confidence and admiration not only of citizens of the state of New York, but of the people of the United States.

He is believed to be the most popular of the Republican county committee. The Republicans generally throughout this country desire the presentation of the name of Chas. E. Hughes to the next national convention of the Republican party as the choice of the Republicans of this state for the presidential nomination, and we heartily recommend him for that office and look forward to his being presented by the New York delegation.

Schofield replied:

"No, Art, I don't. If you had been

BOWEN'S PLEA.

Bowen was asked by the reporter:

"Oh! God! I don't know," replied

"How long have you known this man

know whether he was the man who
robbed Schofield or not."

GREEN'S RECORD.

This morning Asst. County Atty.
Carlson, Deputy Sheriff White and Sgt. Hempel went to the hospital to see Green. He was conscious and when asked the nature of the officials' errand was able to positively identify Bowen and Baker. The two men were taken to the police station and the coroner this morning by Carlson.

the exact boundaries of the islands and the nature of the soil and climate.
