SCARLET FEVER EPIDEMIC

At State Industrial School-Death of Mrs. Nancy N. Perry-Young Couple Lost in Monntains.

Ogden, Aug. 18 .- The troubles of th ogden High school, which have oc the public limelight since the remptory dismissal of Principal D. E yd, and the latter's claims, through press, that he had not even been a fair hearing before the board education, came to a climax yesterafternoon, with a disgraceful filsti-mounter between the city superin-endent of schools, William Allison, and he discharged principal, D. E. Cloyd. Prof. Cloyd and Superintendent Alliet by chance in the High school ng. The professor says that he Mr. Allison "a dirty lying lding. led Mr. lying the first blow. The ex-prin-and superintendent differ on and points regarding the conflict, but Allison admits having struck the blow, after Cloyd, so he says, him a nasty name, which rea on not only upon the superinsuperintendent says, regarding

He retaliated by scratching my ace severely with his fingernalls, when thers who were present, stepped bethers who were present, stepped be-ween us, and the affair ended right tween us, and the affair ended right there." Prof. Cloyd's version of the combat is entirely different. He says: 'I was in the High school building straighten-ing up some matters of business when I found Allison talking to Prof. Smoth-ers. He stood there, glaring at me in an insolent manner, and I said: 'I m awfully sorry, Prof. Smothers, that I brought you here from Spekane, where you will have to associate with this dirty, lying scoundrel, Allison. "I started down the hail and Allison came sneaking up behind me with his fist clenched, roady to strike. He was using dirty, filty, low language, and after an interchange of hot and uncomplimentary opinions. Allison struck me in the side of the face with his fist. Then I setzed him by the throat and jubbed him in the eye. He continued using profanity, and after the others in the room had separated us, the superintendent pleked up a plece of lumber about two feet long and tried to strike me with it. I grabbed him again by the throat, backed him against the wall and made him admit that he was to it." SCARLET FEYER EPIDEMIC

PIONEER PASSES AWAY.

PIONEER PASSES AWAY. Mrs. Nancy N. Perry, aged 75 years, succumbed to illness at her home in Slaterville yesterday morning, general debility being the cause of her demise. Her husband, the late Sylvester Perry, died about one month ago. They leave a large family, and many grandchil-dren. Mr. and Mrs. Perry were Utah pioneers and aided by strict Christian lives in the upbuilding of the inter-mountain region, enduring many of the numerous early hardships of this sec-tion. Bishop James Slater will conduct the funeral which will take place from the family residence, this afternoon. Interment in Ogden city cemetery. LOST IN MOUNTAINS.

LOST IN MOUNTAINS.

Relatives and friends of a well known Ogden woman were considerably alarmed all of yesterday, when the lady failed to put in an appearance until late last evening, after having gone-for a drive with a gentleman friend to Ma-lan's Heights. The young people be-came lost, when they sought to re-turn home and were forced to spend a cold and unpleasant night in the moun-tains to the east of the city. Special Correspondence. Moroni, Sanpete Co., Aug. 15.—On the 11th, 12th, 13th and 14th inst. Moroni and Fountain Green posts of Indian war veterans held an enjoyable reunion in Maple canyon, ear Freedom, in what is now a part of the Payson forest re-serve. The location is an ideal one for such a purpose. The canyon is famed for its grand and inspiring scenery, natural bridges and cozy retreats, and on this occasion "Old Glory" waved in the breeze to cheer the hearts of the veterans and their many friends. The exercises consisted of songs, spir-ited addresses by veterans and friends, music by the old veteran martial band and Moroni brass band, the singing for the meetings being rendered by the veteran choirs and a company of sweet singers from Wales. With the excep-tion of a tew drenching showers and the rugged canyon road, the reunion was a very enjoyable one and will leave many pleasant memories to those who were present. The posts decided to take steps to obtain a grant from the government to use the canyon for its future annual reunlons. DEATH OF YOUNG MOTHER. DEATH OF YOUNG MOTHER.
