NEWS OF THE VARIOUS TEAMS.

Squibs Worth Reading Taken From Here and There That Will Interest the Fans.

It will be remembered that when Frank Seale was in this city with his Chicago Nationals, he had quite a bunch on the string, and was trying them out with a view to making definite selections before they reached St. Louis.

While there hasn't been much coming down in the National league as yet, the following gentlemen, all of whom took part in fifteen or more games last season, are not now visible on the payroll.

Aggie, Steve, Schwartz, Albert, Herd, Roseman, Bevil, O'Brien, Robinson, Miller, Mike, McCracken, McLean, Woodford, J. Gilbert, Hulawit, Roth, Hill, Doyle, Donahue, Byers, Dillon, and Cooley.

THE CATCHER'S GLOVE.

Mitt, as known today, made its appearance 15 years ago.

It is now about fifteen years since the baseball catchers first knew today that mitt was made under the name of "Decker."

Anyone who has ever watched a professional catcher manipulate his big glove must have noted the almost continuous pounding of the palm of the glove to form just a pocket as the inventor here provides ready made.

Nervousness.

Read My Offer—A Full Dollar's Worth of My Remedy Free to Try—Without Deposit, or Risk, or Promise to Pay.

Nervousness, fretfulness, restlessness, sleeplessness, irritability—all are the outward signs of inward disturbances.

I have not room here to explain how these tender, tiny nerves control and operate the stomach, the bowels, the kidneys, the liver, how excesses and strains and overindulgences destroy their delicate fibers.

How, through the use of my remedy, weakness in the center is converted to strength in the other centers.

How this same remedy cures the outward signs of nervousness, which should warn us of the trouble within, if we do not know how these nerves may be reached and strengthened and vitalized and made well.
