

SOCIETY

Mrs. Charles Rhodes held an informal reception at the Kenyon on Wednesday afternoon, and many people who had been charmed by the lecture given by the hostess the previous evening were pleased to embrace the opportunity of meeting her.

Mr. McCutcheon entertained a party of friends at dinner at the Country club on Tuesday.

Mrs. Stanley Price gave an informal musicale on Monday afternoon.

Miss Carrie Lamson entertained at a pleasant evening party on Wednesday.

THE NEW SILK COAT.

Loose jacket of black peau de soie, laid in plaits back and front, sleeves tucked. Deep cape trimmed with white silk cords, fronts of Cluny lace. Turn-back coat on wide sleeves trimmed with cords and lace. Black cord rosettes and tassels on front. White satin lining. Hat of fancy straw trimmed with satin ribbon and white and orange daisies.

A pretty affair of the week was the luncheon given by Mrs. George Forrester in honor of her sister, Mrs. George Becker of Ogden. The table was prettily decorated with pink carnations and covers were laid for 15 guests.

Mrs. Egan entertained the card club at her home this afternoon.

Miss Lucile Jennings is at home with Mrs. Frisella Jennings.

Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Fenton entertained informally at dinner on Wednesday evening.

Miss Eleanor Cannon gave a pretty children's party this week.

Mrs. Jesse Badger will give a shower party next week in honor of Miss Lucile Badger.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Nelden gave a luncheon at the Commercial club on Tuesday, their guests being Mrs. Charles Rhodes, Mr. Adolph Glose, and Miss Blanche Kimball.

Tonight at the Alta club Mr. J. H. White will give a dinner in honor of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Reber.

Mr. and Mrs. John Judson entertained at dinner on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ferman entertained at a Welsh rabbit supper at the post on Monday night.

Miss Burke entertained informally at luncheon on Thursday.

On Tuesday evening Mrs. W. H. Jones was the impromptu hostess at a pleasant party, about 20 of her friends gathered unexpectedly at her home and spending an enjoyable time.

Dr. and Mrs. L. W. Snow entertained the Card club at their home on Thursday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Melton entertained at cards on Tuesday night.

Mrs. David S. Murray entertained informally on Tuesday evening in honor of Capt. and Mrs. Marx and Miss Marx.

Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Thatcher of Los gan will spend the next week with Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Whitney.

Misses Edna and Kate Dwyer entertained informally on Monday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Frank Jennings.

Mr. and Mrs. George Thatcher of Logan, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Spencer and will spend a week with them.

The athletic association of the High school will give a dancing party at the Armory on Friday, April 17. Elaborate preparations are being made and the event promises to be a most successful one.

On Thursday night the wedding of Miss Jessie Jones and Mr. Elias Hansen took place at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Rodney Badger. The ceremony was performed by Hon. F. S. Richards and following a wedding supper was served. The immediate relatives and friends being present. The rooms were decorated in pink and white, roses and carnations being used with smilax. The bride was gowned in white Swiss and carried flowers. She had no attendants. Miss Lena Badger, Gertrude Moyle and Lena Moore assisted in serving refreshments. Mr. and Mrs. Hansen will be at home to their friends after April 15 at 254 West Seventh South street.

Another of Wednesday's weddings was that of Miss Adelaide Eldredge and Mr. Rufus Hardy, the ceremony being performed in the Temple and an informal reception being held later at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Williams. The rooms were prettily decorated, and a number of their friends were present to enjoy the pleasant affair. Mr. and Mrs. Hardy will reside in Salt Lake.

Miss Golda Miller and Mr. Luther Gordy were married on Thursday, the ceremony being performed at the home of the bride, by Rev. John Richelson. The wedding was a quiet one, only members of the family and the intimate friends being present. Both have many friends who will extend good wishes for their happiness.

An exceedingly pretty wedding was that of Miss Laura Madsen and Mr. Roy Hardy on Thursday. The ceremony was performed in the Temple at noon, and in the evening a large reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Madsen. The rooms were beautifully decorated. In the parlor white prevailed, and all about were Easter and daisy lilies, the flowers forming a great wedding bell, which hung from an arch done also in the lilies.

The room beyond was brilliant with American beauty roses, while in the diningroom were pink roses and carnations, pink ribbons, used with artistic effect. Daffodils decorated the hall and the palms and ferns added in the pretty effect. An orchestra stationed on the upper landing furnished music during the evening.

The bride wore a charming gown of white crepe de chine over tulle, and carried a bouquet of Easter lilies.

Mr. and Mrs. Madsen and Mrs. O. R. Hardy received the guests and Mrs. R. W. Madsen and Mrs. E. M. Madsen and Miss Madsen presided in the diningroom, assisted by Miss Rose Morris, Miss Florence Armstrong, Miss Mary Ann, Miss Lulu Penrose, Miss Vera Felt, Miss Nell Geary, Miss Aften Kimball, Mr. and Mrs. Hardy left today for a trip to the coast, after which they will return here to reside. They have many friends who will extend best wishes for their happiness.

The marriage of Miss Lucile Clark Taylor and Mr. Richard Royal Romney will take place next Thursday morning in the Temple, the young couple leaving shortly afterward for a month's stay in California.

Miss Lucile Badger and Mr. Samuel Taylor will be married on Wednesday, April 15.

Another wedding to take place on April 15 is that of Miss Mae E. Barrell and Mr. Arthur Price.

The wedding of Miss Bertha Shores of Ashland, Wis., and Mr. Guy Eldridge of this city will take place at the bride's home in the latter place on next Wednesday and a number of the bride's relatives have gone to attend the function, among them Mrs. C. E. Eldridge, Miss Eldridge, Mr. Harold Eldridge and Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Eldridge of Portland.

COMING AND GOING

Mrs. Wilbur Fieger, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Jennie in Los Angeles has returned.

Mrs. W. R. H. Paxman, who has been staying with her daughter, Mrs. Bert Bush, in this city, left for her home in Provo last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Brown have returned from their eastern trip.

Mrs. Farnsworth, Mrs. E. Stewart and Miss Schenck of Ogden were in the city during the week.

Capt. Adolph Marx, U. S. N., and Miss Marx arrived from San Francisco early in the week to visit with Mrs. David Murray.

Miss Donahoe and Miss Zola Miller of Wilmington, Del., are the guests of Miss Nan Short.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Druehl are at home for the present with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Druehl. In May they will leave for a year's stay in Europe.

Mrs. Carlton is down from Ogden visiting with her sister, Miss Snow.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Schwab of Provo and the Misses Bachman of the same place spent Monday in the city.

Mrs. W. W. Mackintosh left this week for Scotland.

Mrs. Harry Ayer has gone to Salt Lake to make her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Bartling have returned from California.

Mrs. R. S. Harrison and son, Harry, and Miss Ida McFarlane are down from Park City, the guests of Mrs. Elwood Bailey.

Mrs. F. E. Sharp of Bingham has returned to her home, after a visit of several months in Indiana.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Reber are back from their wedding trip and will be at home to their friends at the Fifth East hotel.

Mr. J. H. White has returned to the city after a stay of some weeks in the east.

Miss Miriam Neils of New York will be the guest next week of Captain and Mrs. E. A. Wedgewood.

Dr. and Mrs. J. C. E. King leave early in May for New York, and will sail from there for a six months' stay in Europe.

Miss Ida Lyon of Ogden is a guest at the home of her father, J. D. Lyon, on Fifth East street.

Mrs. Henderson Green of Elko, Nev., is visiting friends in this city.

Miss Kathie Douglas returned on Thursday from a week's stay in Ogden as the guest of Miss Eccles.

The Misses Lulu and Lexia Trane spent last week in this city, visiting friends.

Miss Lulu Trane came up from Lehi last week to attend the recitals of Prof. Clark of Chicago, and will remain here for some weeks as the guest of Miss Nora Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. De Wolf of Beaver are visiting friends in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Shepherd have returned from their bridal trip.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. McCune are expected to arrive shortly.

Mrs. A. N. McKay has returned from California, where she has been spending some time past.

Mrs. W. M. Paul and Miss Paul will leave shortly for a European trip.

Mrs. H. F. Hoyt has gone to Indian Territory to join her husband, Dr. Hoyt.

Dr. and Mrs. Hepburn of Fort Douglas will leave tomorrow morning for California, and will spend the next two months on the coast.

Mrs. I. O. Rhodes will leave some time during the coming week for a visit in the east.

Judge and Mrs. James A. Miner left this week for a brief visit in Boston and New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry will spend the next month in California.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Van Buyn of Waterloo, Ia., are visiting their daughter, Mrs. L. L. Downing. They are on their way home from California.

Capt. and Mrs. Marx and Miss Marx, who have been the guests of Mrs. David S. Murray for the past few days, left Thursday for the east.

Mrs. W. H. Dickson left this week for St. Louis to visit with relatives.

Mrs. Olive S. Gaylord has returned from California and is at home at the Fifth East hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Miles and family are visiting friends in San Francisco.

John K. Hardy is down from Boise to spend a few days visiting relatives and friends.

A number of functions are planned for the days following closely upon Easter, some of them of an elaborate and other of a more quiet nature. The spring season from all accounts promises to be a gay one in social circles.

Mrs. Eugene W. Whitney will entertain at a series of afternoon parties shortly after Easter.

Mrs. George Phelps Holman has issued invitations for an Easter tea, to be given on Monday afternoon, April 13.

Mrs. D. M. Fulop and L. E. Boukowsky will give a charity card party at the B. B. Lodge rooms Tuesday, April 7, at 2 p. m.

THE LARGER OUTSIDE CITIES

PROVO SOCIAL NEWS.

Mayor Thomas N. Taylor on last Friday performed the ceremony uniting Miss Sophia Robey of Colton and Mr. John G. Smith of Provo, at the home of the bride's parents, 215 West Center street. The two families were served with a sumptuous supper and a pleasant evening was passed. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Robey lately of Colton, Utah. The young couple was presented with many presents and good wishes for a bright career and future happiness.

Mrs. Eleanor R. Moore has gone to San Francisco to visit her daughter, Mrs. Herman Martin.

Ed Knowlton of Robinson spent Sunday with his family in Provo.

Elma and Emma Sutton of Park City, are visiting relatives in Provo.

R. A. Noyes was over from Lehi Sunday for a short visit with his family.

Miss Sibbie McBride has returned to Provo from Salt Lake City for a few months' visit with her brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. McBride.

Mrs. Nellie Jones of Nebraska, formerly Nellie McBride of Filmore, is in Provo visiting relatives and friends. Mr. and Mrs. Jones are thinking of locating in Utah.

Mr. and Mrs. Burford, Mesdames Sam Schwab and Wm. Roberts, the Misses Bachman and Felix Bashman went to Salt Lake Monday and during their stay purchased furniture for the elegant quarters of the Elk Lodge in the Central block of our city.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Strong of Alpine are in Provo visiting their daughters, Mrs. J. M. Jensen, and Mrs. O. U. Hyde.

Geo. W. Craig the O. S. L. agent of Provo, returned from his eastern trip Monday evening accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. O. Kearns. Mrs. Kearns husband will join her in Provo presently and they will establish a permanent residence in our city. Mr. Craig spent a very pleasant time with his relatives in the east.

Geo. Havercamp and Bert Thurman were visiting Zion Monday.

LOGAN SOCIAL NEWS.

The members of the Beacon Light society were pleasantly entertained Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. J. H. Linford. A meeting was held at this lady's home at which the following program was rendered:

Lecture on Domestic Science—Miss Rose Homer.

Life and Works of Herbert Spencer—Mrs. Rose Hall.

The ladies then engaged in a bird guessing contest and the prize for guessing the highest number of birds, a beautiful bouquet of carnations, was won by Mrs. George Smith, who named twenty.

A dainty lunch was served after the contest, after which conversation was enjoyed for an hour, when the guests departed, unanimous in the expression that Mrs. Linford is one of the most delightful of entertainers.

Among the invited guests were Mesdames Maria C. Ritter, Rose Hall, Jennie L. Clemenson, Clara Carlisle, Amelia Chamberlain, Lulu Carpenter, Tilla Pe-

WALKER'S STORE.

AGAIN A REMARKABLE SALE OF SILKS AND DRESS GOODS!

Should Interest Every Woman.

NO MATTER what your dress goods wish may be, you will surely find it in this wide reaching sale. Not that alone, but a splendid price saving on whatever you may select. Note the varied assortment and the cheapness thereof for Monday and all the week:

85-Cent Pongee Silk—48 Cents a Yard.

Just so long as fashion decrees that soft clinging fabrics must be, just so long will Pongee be a favorite. Five hundred yards of the pure silk Shantung, or Pongee as it is oftener called, natural color and 22 inches wide, 85c a yard value—Monday and week—48c.

46-Cent Dress Goods Sale Continued.

UP TO 75 CENTS A YARD KIND.

The west window has been showing thousands of yards of new spring dress stuffs at this price. Mixtures, plain colors, checks and no end of other weave novelties and very hard indeed must be the one who cannot find a pleasing selection in such variety. A great quantity dwindled during sale last week, but there's still every kind now that the offering held then and up to 75c a yard grades. Monday and week—again in—46c.

Up to $3 Dress Goods—$1.25.

From these select the handsomest gown you will want. Rich novelty weaves of every kind, French plaids, fancy mistral, the newest check effects, cloth suitings in splendid array and many others. The choice dress fabrics of the season up to $3 a yard, one week longer—$1.25.

Sale of Easter Lillies,

MONDAY AND UNTIL ONE THOUSAND ARE GONE.

We have secured this number of very fine Easter Lillies from the Huddard Floral company; all were raised right here at home, hence every bloom is fresh and perfect—not bruised or wilted as those shipped in from a distance.

VERY CHEAP AT 25c PER BLOOM, OR $3 A DOZEN.

Exquisite Cotton Dress Fabrics Greatly Price Lowered.

Silk Mousseline de Soie and silk dimities—the daintiest, cobwebby things looms can produce; white, black, pink, blue, corn, gray, green and lavender, sold until now at 40c and 50c a yard, Monday and week—25c.

50-Cent and 75-Cent Mercerized Goods—40 Cents.

Soft and fine, one of the most charming cotton dress fabrics. White and delicate color grounds with dotted stripes, sell regularly at 50c and 75c a yard, Monday and the week—40c.

12½-Cent and 15-cent Zephyr Ginghams—10 Cents.

The best of zephyr ginghams made—Toil du Nord and Red Seal. A broad variety of colorings and patterns in this sale lot. The usual 12½c and 15c reduced to—10c.

Again White Cotton Dress Goods.

Until the graduation days are over these will be in demand. Again a sale on them for this week—

25c white India Linens—19c; the 15c for—9c.

40c white Swiss Batiste, forty inches wide—30c.

25c figured white Madras—18c.

Table Damask and Napkins.

Pure linen table damask, bleached or cream, heavy, 72 inches wide; general pretty pattern designs. This grade of damask gives splendid satisfaction to house keepers for the reason that it improves with age. $1.25 quality—$1.00.

Two splendid lots of napkins, dinner size, desirable pattern designs. Those worth $1 a dozen for $3, the $3 for—$2.25.

Men's Shirt Reductions.

A few dozen madras negligees—tan with colored stripes, white with neat figures or stripes; new season patterns. Carefully made shirts, cut to fit satisfactorily. $1.50 grade reduced to—$1.12.

Men's white unlaundered shirts, good muslin with linen bosoms, continuous facings at all openings. Instead of 50c, Monday and week—35c.

Men's working shirts, light and dark colors, made of stout chevot, strongly sewed. Reduced from 50c and 60c each to—30c.

Boys' 75c and $1.00 Shirts—39c.

Only a little bunch—a miscellaneous gathering of several different lines; percales and madras, light and dark colors, soft and stiff bosom shirts in sizes 12, 13½ and 14 only. Formerly 75c and $1, Clearance price—39c.

Boys' 35c Waists—25c.

Shirt waists and blouses. Made of percale—red, blue, gray, in figure and stripe patterns, also some plain colors. Mother Friend bands on all waists, pocket in front, pearl buttons, attached collars; sizes 4 to 12 years. Instead of 35c—25c.

Girls' Separate Skirts and Coats.

Girls' blue, brown and oxford gray cloth skirts, lined, new fared shape, well cut, hang well; 28 to 33 lengths. Formerly $1, now—HALF THESE PRICES.

Girls' box coats—tan, blue and red, neatly trimmed with white or black soutache braid, coat collars and sailor collars; sizes 4 to 10 years. The $3.50 reduced to $2.75; the $7 to $4.50.

Another Shipment of Wash Silks, and Down They Go Another Price Notch—35 Cents a Yard.

A tremendous lot arrived on Friday last—shouldn't have come here until much later in the season and so the whole stock tumbles in price. Remember these are the best quality made, woven to sell at 65c a yard. A trade happening brought them lower for us, that's all. White and every color, for the daintiest of waists or children's frocks. Monday and week—35c a yard.

More 85-Cent Changeable Taffetas Again Lowered—59 Cents a Yard.

All those offered last week did not go away—we had a mammoth gathering—for its a great favorite for the shirt waist suit, linings and petticoats. Complete variety of color combinations and this week again a splendid sale. Worth every penny of 85c, but 59c a yard.

Women's Suits Up to $18.75 for—$8.75.

Twenty-five in the group. No more, no less. Any one a genteel pretty frock, in present season style. Venetian, Homespun and Tweeds; tan color, blue, black and several mixture effects. Two styles of blouse and close fitted jackets. Suits up to $18.75, commencing Monday—$8.75.

Women's Walking Skirts $6.50

UP TO $15.00 KINDS.

Twenty-five. Light weight for spring time. Plain colors and mixture cloths; some of the skirts effectively trimmed with buttons, handsome stitching and tailor straps. New shapes. Up to $15 for—$6.50.

Women's $10 Jackets for $3.

THE $12.50 TO $25 FOR—$6.95.

A wind fall to those who find their size. Broken lines. Every one a good looking, splendid garment, indeed some are quite handsome. Tight fitting, box and blouse styles. Tan, black, mode, brown, the colors. Monday and while here, the $12.50 to $25 one priced—$6.95; the $10—$3.

Embroidery Remnants at Half Price.

Never a sale, but leaves wreckage behind. Hundreds of remnants is the result of last week's embroidery sale. All are cambric and in infinite variety, it would seem, of widths and patterns—just as good a choosing as the whole sale presented. But of course in these you must take the piece. Lengths vary from one yard to four and a half yards. Edgings, insertions, flouncings, 1 to 9 inches wide, 10c to $1 a yard—HALF PRICE.

Fifty Rugs at Fourth off Prices.

A choice lot and appreciative house furnishers will find them quickly. Small and medium size real Orientals and some American-Oriental Botany Worsted priced from $4 to $50 each. Monday and Tuesday—ONE FOURTH OF PRICE WILL BE TAKEN OFF ANY.

Snappy Corset News.

Only a few of each. So advertised for while they last. Commencing Monday:

Two dozens of the good "W. B." white and black saten, straight front gored—not the latest model, but excellent shape for stout figures; all sizes; were $2.50, reduced to $1.50.

"W. B." corsets, summer ventilated, straight front, medium hips, were $1.25, until gone—80c.

Towel Clearance.

We have been making sales on several lots of towels and that means there are some left-overs to be cleared away. Monday and until gone:

15c Huck Towels, 20x40 inches, 10c.

25c Turkish bath towels, full bleached, 22x45 inch size—15c.

All Kinds of Pretty Jewelry Pieces at Clean-Up Prices.

Hundreds—looks as though there might be thousands—of brooches, stick pins, belt pins, pin set cuff buttons, hat pins, baby pin sets and a whole lot of others, in all the settings and shapes ever known are gathered together for this clearance.

At 5c. Stick pins, brooches, belt pins that formerly sold at 15c to 25c each.

At 15c. Brooches, belt pins, hat pins, stick pins, pin set cuff buttons that were 25c and 35c each.

At 27c. Brooches, belt pins, stick pins, baby pin sets, cuff buttons, Egyptian watch fobs that were 35c to 50c each.

At 3c. Hat pins of every style sold at 15c each.

Walker Brothers Dry Goods Co.