Holden, Millard Co., Dec. 3.-Thanks-slving day was observed in an appro-priate manner. At 16 a. m. the people assembled in the meeting house, where an interesting program was carried ou under the auspices of the Ladies' Relief Society. During these exercises ar elegant dinner was being spread in the Relief Society's hall. To the latter place all over fifty years of age adjourned and partook of a bountiful repast. The old folks then returned to the meeting house and another enjoyable program was carried out, after which a number Hart. of useful presents were distributed among the aged. Adjourning to the school house the semi-centenarians danced to the excellent music of Prof. Giles and son. The day was most pleasantly spent, and much credit is
