SCHETTLER HAS MANY CREDITORS.

List of Depositors is Filed With The Referee in Bankruptcy.

SOME AMOUNTS ARE SMALL.

Recting of Interested Parties Will be Called Early This Month to Consider Report.

In complying with the order of the District court B. H. Schettler has filed with the referee in bankruptcy appointed by Judge Marshall of the U. S. court a full list of his creditors. At the time of the bank's failure the list was not made public at the request of many of the creditors, who did not care to have it known how much they were velved in the failure. For this reason, while it has been known that the total mount of the deposits approached 100,000 and who some of the principal reditors were, the list in full has not sen printed until filed with the refree. The complete list follows:

KILLING OF OMAN.

Austrian Government Inquiring Into Affair at Castle Gate.

Shortly before leaving for Portland Governor Cutier received from the Austrian consul at San Francisco, a letter requesting full information as to the death of Jacob Oman at Castle Gate, Utah, on Jan. 17, with the findings of the coroner's jury. It appears that Oman was shot

Attorney General Breeden states that in his belief the Austrian government has no cause for action, as the killing was apparently accidental and by an officer of the law in its enforcement.

The letter from the Austro-Hungarian consul is as follows:

Your Excellency: Information has reached this office that one Jacob Oman from Ratschach, Providence of Carniola, Austria, a late arrival from that country, was kept with others in quarantine in a dwelling supposedly infected by smallpox at Castle Gate, in your state. On the 17th of January of the current year, the aforenamed having observed that others were granted the privilege to leave the premises by the overseer, endeavored to depart for the purpose of obtaining work in the town. Passing a special police officer, who was stationed there to guard the infected dwellings, he was approached and deliberately shot by the latter, dying instantly of the wound infleted. Several bystanders even go so far in their assertions as to claim that Oman, who saw the officer approach, had already turned back towards the building from whence he came, when he was shot. The brothers of the deceased, summoned by friends, were not allowed to view the remains, it evidently being the endeavor of the parties most interested in the case to conceal the nature of the wound.

If the circumstances were correctly reported to the consulate this killing is Finally, I also beg to mention that I would greatly appreciate the receipt of the copy of the coroner's inquest and verdict of the jury.

With the assurance of my highest consideration, I beg to remain your excellency's most obedient servant, KIJONIZ, Acting Consul.

Considering the heavy drain that the peckets of theater goers have sustained of late, the audience that attended the opening of "The Marriage of Kitty" at the theater last night was a fairly good one. The company that presents the New York success is bright and capable, and Mr. Figman, an experienced comedian, has done nothing in years that better stamps him as an artist. The amusing complications of the coinedy were well brought out by Mr. Figman in the part of the baronet, Mr. Hall in the part of the lawyer.
