Issued Mondays and Thursdays and Contains All the Cream of the Daily and Saturday News.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Darmer is Selected.—J. E. Darmer has been chosen to captain the "American" party forces in the coming city election.

Land Called East.—Mrs. G. A. Land of this city has been called to Utica, N. Y., on account of the serious illness of her mother.

Death of W. H. Burgess.—Mrs. William C. Jennings has received word from New York of the death there of her brother, William H. Burgess.

Big Salt Lake Realty Holder.—It is stated that Charles R. Crane of Chicago, just appointed minister to China, owns $300,000 worth of real estate in this city.

Lecture at Barratt Hall.—Mrs. Charlotte Perkins Gilman will lecture this evening in Barratt hall, under the auspices of the various women's organizations of this city.

Dairymen to Discuss Fly.—The city dairymen will meet tomorrow at 2:30 p. m. at the Kehoe where Dr. Clarence Snow will speak on the fly and its relation to the dairy.

Chair Cars for Veterans.—While Pullman cars will not be taken out to Saltair during G. A. R. week, the chair cars brought in from the coast will be utilized to carry visitors to and from the lake.

Full Fledged Lawyer Now.—Arthur E. Moreton, son of the city recorder, has returned from Yale with the degree of Bachelor of Civil Law, "cum laude." Mr. Moreton will practice law with Dr. Hoppaugh.

Burl Armstrong Resigns.—Rev. P. A. Simpkins was elected secretary and treasurer of the Salt Lake Press club Saturday evening, vice Burl Armstrong resigned. Rev. Simpkins has gone on a two weeks' vacation to California.

Burglars Visit a Store.—Thieves broke into the clothing store of S. D. Parvin, 126 West Temple street, last night, and plundered the place of a quantity of shoes and clothing. The burglars secured entrance by forcing open a rear window.

Death of J. T. Stringer.—Word has been received in this city of the death at Oakland, Calif., of a long resident of J. T. Stringer, aged 64, formerly a real estate dealer in this city. He leaves three children resident of Oakland, and a sister, Mrs. T. A. Davis of this city.

Secretary Not President.—Mrs. Emmeline B. Wells in her interview published Saturday was credited with being president of the Relief society. Her title should have read secretary, as the president of the women's organization is Mrs. Bathsheba W. Smith.

Exchange of Pupils.—The Westminster church pupil is being supplied, in the absence of Rev. McIntyre, by Mr. Van der Maaten, general field worker for the United Society of Christian Endeavor. He was one of the speakers at the St. Paul convention.

Knights of Columbus Outing.—The Knights of Columbus will give an outing at Lagoon on the 21st inst., to which the members of the Altar society of St. Mary's cathedral are invited. A special feature of the outing will be the entertainment of 200 inmates from St. Ann's orphanage.

Missionary to China.—A. Q. Adamson, for the last two years a member of the executive staff of the Y. M. C. A., will leave this fall for Foo Chow, China, where he will engage in the Y. M. C. A. work there. Mr. Adamson is a graduate of the Iowa State Agricultural college, and has done efficient work here.

Devy of Danseles Coming.—Fifteen young women selected by the St. Louis Daily Star to represent the states of Missouri and Illinois at the Seattle fair, will arrive in this city on the afternoon of the 22nd inst. The ladies will spend the evening at the lake, and resume their western journey the following morning.

Fruit Exposed to Dist.—There is complaint among householders of the way marketmen on the west First South street Row, leave their fruit laid out unprotected from the wind, dust which blows over them from the street at every strong gust of wind. It is claimed that the goods should at least be protected by netting.

Bathroom Thief Again.—When J. Steel, a bath at the lake yesterday returned to his dressing room it was to discover that a thief had broken into the bathroom and stolen a pocket-book containing a deposit slip for $600 and $4 in cash. The thief will only be the guinea of the $4 as no amount parts of the country where shallow waters are the principal source of supply, diarrhoea is quite common, and Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is in demand. One of the uses of this remedy will check the attack and prevent any serious consequences. This remedy is for sale by all druggists.

To My Friends.—I take this opportunity of expressing my thanks to all my friends and patrons who have stood by "the store" during my absence. I have just returned from a two-years' mission in England, and we are endeavoring to conduct the Drug Store on the same old basis as before. I have to greet all my old friends and many new ones at the old stand, in the same old way as of yore. Come and see us.

County Auditors are Tardy.—The state board of equalization has seven more days in which to complete its work. There is some anxiety among the members because the county auditors in several counties have not completed with the law as sent in statements of assessed valuation. Some of the counties have placed the valuation too low which makes an unfair proportion of the school tax to be borne by the cities and counties where the valuation is about equitable.

Mrs. Sarah Davis Wanted.—E. S. Thomas, who is working for the Utah Fuel company, and whose home is at Sunnyside, Utah, would like to know the present address of Mrs. Sarah Davis, or her children. Mrs. Davis left Albergale, North Wales, in the year 1854 or 1855. She started for Utah. Her husband was a shoemaker. Anyone knowing anything of the above woman or her family would confer a favor by corresponding with Mr. Thomas at the above address.

Infantry, formerly stationed at Fort Douglas, will have completed its tour of duty in the Philippines early in the coming month, and sail from Manila Aug. 15. The regiment will pass through Ogden Sept. 15, en route for station in western New York. The junior major is Henry D. Styer, son-in-law of Major Edmund Wilkes of this city, and will stop over at Ogden to visit his family. Major Styer will be in command at Fort Niagara, N. Y., with a battalion of the Twenty-ninth.

Green Aphis Rampant.—The Salt Lake county horticulturist, Mr. J. H. Saturday in the office of the county commissioners and discussed the damage to the trees from green apple aphis which had been done this year. The spraying of trees had killed considerable of the pest, but further steps will be taken to exterminate it. It was also reported that pear blight and the codling moth had done some damage. County Inspector Sorenson recommended that the blight be cut out. The use of wagon grease would help a great deal where the blight had been cut out.

AMUSEMENTS.

Theater.—F. P. Morse, business manager of Henry Miller's Associate Players, spent the morning in Salt Lake conferring with Mr. Pyper on the final details for the production next week of "The Servant in the House." It was decided to cancel the Wednesday matinee, previously announced. The Miller company is just ending a summer tour which began in Canada and has included the largest cities of the Pacific coast. The members of the company have been playing their present roles for more than a year, and have been obliged to journey hundreds of miles between the scenes of each engagement, as the play is being presented only in the large cities, and for "week stands." The company comes here direct from Los Angeles, and goes direct to Denver.

Grand.—Mr. Mack and Miss Douglas in "Tennessee's Partner" will be the attraction this evening.

Orpheum.—The season advance sale opens at the box office Wednesday morning.
