

The Evening paper is the paper of today, the morning paper is the paper of yesterday.

DESERET EVENING NEWS.

5 O'clock
EDITION.

NO. 267.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 17, 1894, SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH.

INSANE OR IN LOVE?

A Young California Millionaire's
Tender Affections.

INTERFERED BY A SHERIFF.

A Wedding That Led to a San Francisco Arrest Instead of Europe.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 17.—Charles L. Fair, the young millionaire who married a woman known as Mandie Nelson, a few days ago, left here with his bride on the overnight train last night for a European tour. Previous to starting, Fair transferred all his property to his wife and made a will leaving her everything he possessed. When the train reached Port Costa a county sheriff entered and informed the conductor that the couple had eloped with him. He left the train at her own request. The ground on which the young man was restrained is said to be incendiary. He was brought here.

MACHINERY DEAD.

Another Correspondence Figure of One
Gerrard—Death Was Suicidal.

PALM BEACH, Oct. 17.—Marshall MacMahon, 25, son of the millionaire, died yesterday. He had been Chairman of the Board on the river Lotte. He was said to take food till yesterday. During the night his strength gradually declined, until the end came peacefully. Members of the family were at the bedside.

AT THE FAIR.

The Children are Having a Great
Time at the Fair.

CARLSBAD, Oct. 17.—The second day of summer's week at the Warm's Fair opened bright and beautiful, the temperature being just right. Yesterday forty thousand little people passed through the gates and today promise to make it another record. The children began to trip in the large playgrounds as soon as the gates were opened, and continued to congregate throughout. The fair show now shows a bonfire and the excitement of the neighborhood and friends will follow. The management is doing its best to make the people on the grounds next Saturday, Manhattan day.

IN THE SCRAMBLE FOR GOLD.

Charged with Obtaining Money Under False Pretenses.

BOSTON, Oct. 17.—The Advertiser says a warrant has been issued by George W. White, representing W. H. White & Co., on the charge of obtaining $100,000 from Boston banks and $50,000 from New York, Philadelphia and Pittsburgh institutions. It is said the firm had a million and a quarter, with liabilities of $100,000, and that now the firm could not make good a check for $100,000.

TAKEN ill Suddenly.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—Seizing suddenly ill in the early hours of Sunday morning, physicians were hurriedly summoned and presented to him. They said the trouble primarily was an attack of indigestion, but it affected the muscles of the abdomen so severely, however, an organic affection of the heart was suspected of a fatal termination. He was taken home to the Shermanwood hotel. This is the second attack of the kind he has suffered the past few days.

Chronic Lead Sore.

FORT GIBSON, Okla., Oct. 17.—Chronic lead was suffered for a time this morning when the doctor removing the necessary amount of the sore tissue by means of pinpoints of wire, was unable to do so without causing a severe pain. It has been elicited by the physician to open the wound in order to allow discharge.

An operation was performed this afternoon consisting of an incision in the lip. It was a long one, but Captain Adams displayed much fortitude under it. The physician says the operation is not dangerous.

A MEMORIAL GARDNER.

Buried for Suspended Sentence in His Gardner.

GREENWALLS, Pa., Oct. 17.—A startling tragedy occurred in the privately family of Hon. Charles DeWitt Gardner, the famous Marshal Gardner. The family is wealthy, with marriage connections in England and the United States.

Countess Blanche became disengaged with Wilson, and her husband was desperately in love. She pleaded with the count and countess for the remissibility of his conduct. After the count and countess had come out of a window when the gardener was standing behind a bush with a rifle and fired, killing the count, and then shot the countess in the neck. He then solicited with the same weapon.

ANOTHER RAILROAD WRECK.

Several Persons Reportedly Dead.
Injured.

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 17.—The first section of the New York and Chicago express, consisting on the Fort Wayne road, was wrecked at Waukegan, Ohio, early this morning by reason of a freight train running into it. A heavy fog preceding all the time was held responsible. The bullet was unable to see it in time to prevent a collision. As a result two women were killed and numerous injuries, two of them seriously injured. Miss Alice Jackson, actress; Miss Corinne Jackson, actress; Robert Ferry, train electrician; Alex Fisher, baggage-man.

seriously; Elbert Fowler, train engineer, severely.

The telegraph operator in the signal tower, name not learned, was badly burned with scalds. The passenger cars were torn up, but with eight carriages, Considerable damage was done to the freight train. The injured were removed to a hospital. The freight train on the Fort Wayne road parted and came together again at Fort Valley, Ga., very late yesterday. Two loaded cars were wrecked, the engine and telegraph station demolished. Operator, Elmer Lyons, was badly injured. Two trainmen were slightly injured. Two telegraph men were severely injured.

At the time of the accident, the train was moving at a speed of about 40 miles per hour, and the engine was moving at a speed of about 20 miles per hour.

For Discussion of the Government.

EL PASO, Tex., Oct. 17.—Walter Plington, the man who collected $100,000 from the city of El Paso, has been indicted by the United States grand jury on a charge of conspiracy to defraud the government by causing a quantity of sheep over the border free of duty.

THE SENATORIAL STRUGGLE.

Dolph Criticizes the Conduct of Certain Legislators.

Debate on the Billability of Assessing
Whether a Senator Is Accurately
Present or Not.

Washington, Oct. 17.—At the opening of the Senate this morning Dolph asked that the journal be referred to show the presence of Alton E. Kyle on Monday. Kyle had called yesterday, but did not appear in the Senate.

Dolph said it had become apparent, that members did not uniformly and read from books and papers with uniformity, the Senate, without unanimous consent of the rules or a different understanding, set this rule, and directed that the journal be referred to yesterday.

Twenty-six Republicans voted not only to sustain the report of the Senate, but to sustain the