SOME pretty hard things are said of the North Carolina election, and if the half is true, we may with reason exclaim: O tempora! O mores! One of the most popular of New York papers, the Herald, says there has been no election of late in which from all appearances, there have been such gross irregularities and tampering with the ballot box as in the recent election in North Carolina; that the politicians there beat those of old Tammany in unscrupulousness and bold dishonesty of ballot-box manipulation; that they know how to keep a ballot box up and running and counted in certain localities, carrying the boxes home with them, till they learn what number of votes are required to accomplish their object; that the law requiring the authoritative public announcement, from the court house door, of the vote cast for all the candidates within a specified time after the election, has not been complied with in several localities in Warren county, the only place where the law, carried home the ballot boxes, and did not count the votes till the day after; that in the First Congressional district the boxes were held till it was found convenient to count the ballots; that in several (Republican) counties the vote cast exceeded the voting population; that in Duplin County the voting population is put down at 2,959, but the number of votes reported is 3,435, and so on in Cumberland, Franklin, Halifax, Lenoir, Nash, Robeson, and other counties; that the mass of illegal and fraudulent votes polled appears to be in the counties where the big game is most numerous and have the political power; that under such a state of things the ballot box is a farce; that the Legislature when it meets will undoubtedly investigate the matter; and that Harrison may after all be elected governor by a handsome majority. The administration is warned not to interfere, but to leave the local authorities to decide upon and control their own affairs.

Here are some grave charges, which, for the credit of the country, it is to be hoped are not true.

WHAT a splendid thing it is for the rising generation to have politicians for their parents! It is computed that 60 per cent of the boy babies of Cincinnati, born since the Cincinnati convention, bear the name of Horace Greeley, to say nothing of the pig postage in other cities, towns and villages. Won't many a boy of all that army of boys yet wish he was a Pitt? Besides, the venerated name of the benevolent sage of Champaign will become so common as to fall decidedly below par! The man who becomes politically famous incurs a fearful nomenclature responsibility. One cannot wonder that poor Colfax was so pathetically importunate to be permitted to retire to private life, when the throngs of little schoolboys, retrospective and prospective, for whose existence he was not responsible, are called to mind with calculating consideration.

SOMEWHAT it pays more handsomely to contest a seat in the English Parliament than it has done to contest a seat in the Congress of the United States. In this country it was the custom for both contestants to have their expenses liberally liquidated by the government, and the successful contestant not only secured the seat but the back pay that might have been drawn by his rival. In a late contested case in Great Britain the unsuccessful contestant did far better than that. Captain Smith, recently ousted from his seat in Parliament as the member for Galway, by Mr. Justice Keogh, found £70,000 contributed by public subscription to defray his (Nolan's) expenses. (As the members of Parliament sit without pay, one would imagine that it may be made a better thing pecuniarily for candidates for a seat to contest and not sit, than to run and sit.)

WYOMING has been holding two political conventions, one Republican, at Green, and another, at Cheyenne, Democratic, at Cheyenne, Wyo., Aug. 15. The latter sitting three days and one night, and having, says the Cheyenne Leader, a very stormy time.

The Republican Convention, Col. Downey, President, informally gave Judge Jones fifteen votes, and Col. Downing, fifteen to Dr. Dwyer, to Congress for the Territory.

Judge Wm. T. Jones, the present Delegate, was then formally and unanimously nominated Delegate.

The convention adopted resolutions endorsing the Philadelphia platform and the action of the delegates.

The following is the Republican Territorial Central Committee for the ensuing two years: E. W. O'Connell, Chairman, S. M. Downey, Thomas Campbell, Orlando North, R. J. Downey, J. Foster, J. H. Nason, W. L. Jones, James France and E. P. Snow.

The Democratic Convention, on the 10th inst., elected for Delegate, W. R. Steele, Attorney of the Union Pacific Railroad in the Territory, and a two year old Democrat, his opponents being Messrs. Morrin and Shanks.

THE MEETINGS AT LOGAN.

LAST Friday morning, President Brigham Young and Geo. A. Smith, accompanied by Elders John Taylor, Wilford Woodruff, Geo. Q. Cannon, B. Young, Jr., and Joseph F. Smith, of the quorum of the Twelve, and a number of other Elders left the depot of the U. C. R. R. by the regular train at 5 o'clock for the purpose of attending the holding meetings on Saturday and Sunday. On reaching Ogden the party stopped for breakfast, and having been joined by Elders F. D. Richards and L. and A. F. Peters, and a few other leading Elders from Ogden, took train on the C. P. R. R. to the junction of the Utah Northern, where they changed carriages and proceeded to Hampton's, where they were conveyed to Logan in vehicles brought by Messrs. Logan and purpose. The distance from Hampton's to Logan was quickly made, the party reaching the end of the journey shortly before 2 o'clock. Upon arriving at Logan the party were greeted by the enthusiastic strains of the brass band, and a procession of the children of the Sunday schools of the city. The next morning the town presented an unusually quiet, holiday appearance, business being in great part suspended, and long before 10 o'clock the people were to be seen flocking to the bowerly to attend meeting, there being a large attendance of the citizens of Logan, many from Provo, Smithfield, Hyrum, Paradise, and probably from every settlement of the county.

On the stand besides the President party were President L. Snow, of Box Elder, W. B. Preston, Presiding Bishop of Cache County, Bishops Hyde, of Hyde Park, Pitkin, of Millville, Lillington, of Hyrum, Hammond, of Providence, Hughes, of Mesquite, Richkely of Smithfield, Merrill, of Richmond, Hatch, of Franklin, and Maughan, of Wellsville, and a large number of other local authorities.

The choir of Logan, Smithfield and Hyrum were in attendance, and added greatly to the pleasure of the meetings by their very excellent singing.

The congregation on Saturday morning was addressed by Elders Geo. Q. Cannon and F. D. Richards, and President Geo. A. Smith, after which the meeting was dismissed for two hours.

At 2 o'clock the bowerly was well filled, and after the usual preliminary exercises, the congregation was addressed by Elders Joseph F. Smith, R. F. Neelen and Henry W. Nelsbitt, when an adjournment took place until 10 o'clock on Sunday morning.

On Sunday morning a meeting of the children attending the Sunday schools of the several wards of Logan City was held in the bowerly, commencing about half-past 8, there being present on the occasion several hundred pupils, very neatly dressed and presenting a beautiful appearance. After singing and prayer, Elder Card, Superintendent of Sunday Schools in Logan City, examined the children on the life, mission and death of the Redeemer, and the principles of the gospel which he and his followers promulgated; the history of the Latter-day Church; the birth of the Prophet Joseph Smith, the first appearance to him of the angel, the discovery of the plates from which the Book of Mormon was translated, the date of the organization of the church, the death of the prophet Joseph and Hyrum, the exodus of the Saints to the Rocky Mountains under the guidance of President Young, and other points in the general church history, a prompt and correct reply being given to each question by nearly every scholar present, evincing an acquaintance with the principles of the gospel and church history which we feel satisfied many adult members of the community do not possess.

Addresses were then delivered to the children by President George A. Smith and Elder George Q. Cannon, explaining the advantages of early education and of proper training in youth, and exhorting them to refrain from every evil practice, be diligent in study and obedient to their parents and teachers. This meeting was one of the most interesting we ever attended, and the appearance, conduct and proficiency of the children were creditable to the highest degree to themselves and to their parents and teachers.

At 10 o'clock the religious services for the people commenced, and by that hour every seat and most of the standing room within the bowerly were occupied, the attendance being much more numerous than on the preceding day, owing to the much larger influx of visitors from the surrounding settlements.

The first speaker was Elder John Taylor. At the close of his discourse Bishop L. D. Young attempted to address the congregation, but as he was still weak and suffering from the effects of the injuries he received when thrown from his carriage a few weeks since, he was compelled to desist.

Elder Wilford Woodruff was the next speaker, the morning's services being brought to a close by a "ten minutes' sermon" from President Brigham Young.

Dismissed until 2 o'clock. At 2 o'clock the bowerly was filled to overflowing, many being unable to obtain admittance, the congregation being about five thousand persons.

The first speaker was President Young, who addressed the people on a variety of topics, among others on the advisability of establishing in Logan City, a branch of the Z. C. M. I. wholesale department, so that all the settlements in the northern portion of the Territory might obtain their goods at wholesale prices at Logan, and avoid the trouble and expense of freightage from Salt Lake City. A motion to carry out this project was put to the meeting and carried unanimously.

President Geo. A. Smith then addressed the people at some length, and was followed by Elder Geo. Q. Cannon, bringing to a close one of the most enjoyable seasons of the kind that we ever had the privilege of attending. The meetings throughout were lively, the teachings were pointed and pertinent—just what the times required, calculated to rouse the lukewarm, and to make the diligent more so, and were unmistakably dictated by the Holy Spirit; the general feeling of the people in regard to the meetings was that they really had had a time of refreshing from the presence of the Lord.

The company left Logan at about a quarter past 2 o'clock, and were conveyed in carriages to Hampton's, where they embarked on the Utah Northern, and were rapidly conveyed to the Junction, and thence on to the C. P. R. R. line to Ogden, arriving there at about a quarter past three in the afternoon. Here the party remained for two hours, and then left Ogden for the purpose of attending the holding meetings on Saturday and Sunday. On reaching Ogden the party stopped for breakfast, and having been joined by Elders F. D. Richards and L. and A. F. Peters, and a few other leading Elders from Ogden, took train on the C. P. R. R. to the junction of the Utah Northern, where they changed carriages and proceeded to Hampton's, where they were conveyed to Logan in vehicles brought by Messrs. Logan and purpose. The distance from Hampton's to Logan was quickly made, the

NEW YORK.—Rio Janeiro advices state that the fear of war between Brazil and the Argentine Confederation is being dispelled. A band of engineers, splendidly equipped, have left Rio Janeiro for Paraná and Uruguay, to make surveys across the southern section of Brazil, up the northern line to Paraguay, and perhaps on to the Pacific coast, and the construction of the Brazilian railroad to the Pacific; English capitalists furnish the funds.

There has been great destruction of property in the city of right, New York. The storm in Sullivan county was a mile wide, rooting up trees and destroying everything. At Youngville and Liberty, in the same county, many fruit orchards were destroyed. Stephens and Thorne's machine works, at Stamford, were destroyed by lightning, together with $4,000 worth of property. Henry Reed and his family of six persons were prostrated by the shock, but none fatally.

There was a large gathering of his friends at the Grand Central Hotel, Santiago, and Senator Palmer, who voted for impeachment, were called for, and each sought to express regret at the vote they thought necessary to give. The judge rejected them with scorn.

There were seventeen cases of amoebic dysentery in this city and Brooklyn. The weather this morning continues extremely hot and sultry, notwithstanding a heavy rain last night.

Mrs. and O'Neil left here last night for some business. The referees have not yet left, and the fight will not come off for a day or two. There is a panic in the wheat market here. A combination of cliques have had the largest success ever known in this market on wheat. The price of wheat delivery, and the price was run up to $1.60 per bushel. Yesterday the heavy receipts of grain and the prospect of the continuance weakened the corner and broke the price down to $1.25.

This morning the market is broken entirely and wheat is now selling at $1.15. There is intense excitement, and many rumors of firms having suspended.

CHICAGO, 20.—The panic in the wheat market continues, and the price has reached 112, being a decline of 43 cents per bushel from yesterday morning. Many strong firms are reported to have failed, and an intense feeling of anxiety is prevalent among operators, many of whom, who have been in no way identified with the market, are now loaning to a greater or less extent by the failure of parties to whom they sold grain for their customers, at high prices, and who are now unable to pay.
