IMPROVEMENTS IN FOREST.

Expenditure of Large Sum on Uintah Reserve—New Box Factory.

Special Correspondence.

Provo, Utah Co., Feb. 13.—J. Carl Allred of the Uintah national forest, who makes his headquarters at Provo, reports that the government will expend in the neighborhood of $25,000 in improvements upon the reserve this year for the accommodation and convenience of the rangers. Some 75 miles of telephone will be built immediately for the free use of any one living upon the said line. About 20 houses will be built upon the reserve for the use of the timbermen and cattlemen of the government. Steps are also being taken to clear the reserve of wild animals; nearly 2,000 of these were killed during the months of December and January. This information will be especially interesting in this vicinity as a great many sheep and cattlemen are located here.

DEATH OF MRS. J. CROWTHER.

Survived Her Husband but Two Weeks—Debates on School Consolidation.

Special Correspondence.

Logan, Cache Co., Feb. 12.—Yesterday morning, Mrs. Elizabeth L. Crowther of this place died of bronchitis and general debility. Mrs. Crowther is the wife of the late John Crowther who died two weeks ago. It is thought that the watchcare and worry over her husband's illness had much to do with her early decline. She was 78 years of age, having been born in England in 1829. Since she took up her abode in Logan some 30 years ago, Mrs. Crowther has been an active member of the Church, being secretary of the Relief society for several years and for the past 15 years an active worker in the temple.

EXCELLENT FOR COLDS.

Mix half pint of good whiskey with two ounces of glycerine and add one-half ounce concentrated oil of pine. The bottle is to be well shaken each time and used in doses of a teaspoonful to a tablespoonful every four hours. One-half ounce viols packed securely in tin screw top cases which are intended to protect it from light and retain all the original ozone. Don't use bulk oil of pine or imitations of concentrated, sometimes put out in wooden boxes. They are insoluble and work havoc to the kidneys. Any druggist has the concentrated oil of pine. The results of many years experimenting by one of Philadelphia's foremost doctors who after endless research at last secured a truly soluble oil of pine, so make sure to get the real thing. It also makes an excellent salve to be applied externally for colds on the chest. For this purpose a teaspoonful of the raw oil is added to a saucerful of hot lard and applied hot.

SIGNING UP BEET CONTRACTS.

Field Supt. Pingree Sets Dates for Meeting Farmers.

Ogden, Feb. 13.—Already the Amalgamated Sugar company has commenced to sign up contracts for the furnishing of sugar beets for the Ogden factory and Field Supt. Pingree will for a couple of months be busy in meeting the farmers and making the necessary contracts for this year. The prosperity of the past season in raising sugar beets was so great that little difficulty will be experienced in getting 5,000 or 6,000 acres of beets signed up for this year. Mr. Pingree will meet the farmers every Saturday at the company's office to make contracts. The company expects to pay a flat rate for the beets this year the same as in previous years. Mr. Pingree desires to meet the beet growers at the places and dates as follows: Syracuse—Monday, Feb. 17, at 11 a. m. West Weber—Tuesday, Feb. 18, at 2 p. m. Warren—Wednesday, Feb. 19, at 11 a. m. His daughter has been summoned from New York.

The doctor and nurse left for the coast last night.

ALPINE.

REMINISCENT FLAG DAY.

Historic Indian War Relic Presented to The Sunday School.

Special Correspondence.

Alpine, Utah Co., Feb. 11.—Sunday, Feb. 8, will long be remembered by the Alpine Sunday school, Joseph Walton, an aged veteran, presented to the Sabbath school the much loved old Alpine banner.

At a signal from Supt. Robert L. Ashby, Mr. Walton entered waving the flag over the congregation and repeated the words used by Capt. John Wesley Vance, when the banner was first unfurled. "Our Father who art in heaven, we pray Thee these Stars and Stripes may continue to float over this lovely land of Zion, in peace and love on this our mountain home." Then in a brief, patriotic speech he presented it to the school.

Thomas Carlisle of the superintendent responded briefly. Henry Murto, one of the Indian war veterans, James W. Vance, son of Maj. Vance, also made addresses.

When Gov. Durkee in the sixties established militia throughout Utah, John Wesley Vance was chosen captain of the Alpine company and was afterwards commissioned major. Joseph Walton was chosen color bearer, and it was due to this organization that the honored banner was brought into existence. It is a banner of Stars and Stripes. Under the field of blue is a large leech above which are the words, "Our Mountain Home," and beneath, "Alpine City." The flag was designed by Capt. Vance and his sister, Mrs. McCullough. Mr. Walton purchased the material, paying $18 for it, and Mrs. Walton made the flag. The aged couple still reside in the ward. Mr. Walton is 79 years of age and his wife is 87.

Maj. Vance was killed by the Indians at Panguitch creek in 1867. The incident relating to his death were told by Henry Murto. A day or two before he went to Sanpete to fight the Indians, he dreamed of his death by the Indians. On the day of his death he had been to Mantle to preach to the saints and in where the skeleton was found. A Miss Hall, Trumbull's niece, was also living at the ranch, and the young man was said to be in love with her, which roused Trumbull's jealousy, so rumor has it, and a quarrel occurred the night before the young man disappeared. Trumbull was suspected by some of his neighbors of playing the matter for money, and his subsequent career seems to justify the distrust of his neighbors. He served a four-year sentence in the state prison for a serious offense against his niece. After he served his term he never returned here, but went to Colorado, where it is presumed he still lives. It is very evident from the way the body was found in the hole, face downward, and legs bent over the body backward, that a foul deed was committed and the perpetrator covered his misdeed most effectively.

Mrs. Hall, the mother of the young woman already referred to, and Trumbull's sister, died on the ranch, told strange tales at her death, and there is an old-time here who will relate the whole thing if put on the witness stand.

COAL MINES IDLE

The Independent Coal & Coke company at Spring Glen is not working many men, and it is reported that it has closed up for good. It is hoped that something will turn up so it can keep running, as it means everything to this country.

Here at Holper the roundhouse has turned off three-fourths of the men, and one man is doing the work that four men were doing in the summer. Laborers are beginning to feel the want of work and wondering what they are going to do.

Sunnyside is not doing much, and there is some talk of shutting down. Elder David Bowley returned home from a mission to the Southern states, and the people of Spring Glen tendered him a rousing welcome home reception, fiddle was served and a nice dance followed.

VARIED CAREER OF BOGUS BARON

Von Veltheim, Who Must Serve Twenty Years, Given Bad Record.

SEVEN TIMES A BIGAMIST.

Police Say He Got Money from Women He Deceived and Left Them When It Ran Short.

London, Feb. 12.—Carl Ludwig von Veltheim, a German-born naturalized American, who posed as a baron, and was known also as Frank Kurtz and Carl Schneider Mauritz, was sentenced today to 20 years' penal servitude, having been convicted of attempting to blackmail Solly B. Joel, a wealthy Londoner and South African mine owner out of $50,000.

BOGUS BARON SENTENCED TO PRISON FOR BLACKMAIL

Von Veltheim, who was arrested four months ago in Paris, shot and killed Wolf Joel, a brother of Solly Joel at Cape Town in 1898. He pleaded self defense and was acquitted. Some years afterward a body recovered from the Thames was identified as Von Veltheim by his wife, but later the adventurer was discovered serving in the Bechuanaland and police.

Before sentence was passed on Von Veltheim, the police told a remarkable story of his career of crime and fraud. According to this recital Von Veltheim has committed bigamy with not less than seven women. This list includes a woman he married in 1894 at Yankton, S. D., and a young American woman, whose name is not mentioned, whom he met in 1905 on board a steamer between New York and Europe. He was married to this woman in Paris by a mock priest, who, it has been learned, was a friend of Von Veltheim. The prisoner is alleged to have obtained large sums of money from most of the women he deceived.

The police allegations against the man include charges of theft and blackmail and the assertion that he is a deserter from the German navy.
