

THE SEMI-WEEKLY NEWS

Issued Mondays and Thursdays and Contains All the Cream of the Daily and Saturday News.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Hiked 15 Miles—The entire Port Douglas hiked a 15 mile hike yesterday.

Miss O'Connor to Sing—Miss Martha O'Connor will sing this evening, at a social function to be held in Federation of Labor hall.

Rapidly Recovering—Mrs. Torkelson, the lady who was badly injured in a railway accident here some time ago, and who was taken to the L. D. S. hospital, is reported to be recovering rapidly from her injuries.

Endorse Civic League—The Salt Lake Real Estate association held a smoker last night, at the Commercial club building, assisted by Mrs. Lillian Schaeffer, Mrs. K. B. Anderson and Mrs. C. E. Richards, with Miss Judith Anderson as accompanist.

Musical Evening—The Treble Clef club will give an informal musical evening, in the Commercial club building, assisted by Mrs. Lillian Schaeffer, Mrs. K. B. Anderson and Mrs. C. E. Richards, with Miss Judith Anderson as accompanist.

A Feeling Tribute—Engrossed resolutions of regret and condolence drawn up by the Salt Lake Society of Christian Endeavor on the death of Miss Jessie Drew, have been framed and presented to Mrs. Hal Brown, cousin of the deceased, as representing the family.

Musical Lecture—Rubin Goldmark, the lecturer musician, is always a welcome visitor in Salt Lake, and will be in this city once more in May next to lecture on the Wagnerian legend. He will speak particularly on "Lohengrin," under the auspices of the Ladies' Literary club and the Unity circle.

Brown Goes to Helena—Herbert B. Brown of the Independent Telephone company left last night for Helena, where he will be manager of the new independent company being organized in Montana, with headquarters at Helena, and notice of which has been given in the daily press. Construction will begin early in the spring.

Meeting Called—President Frank B. Stephens of the Salt Lake Civic league has called a meeting of the league for tomorrow night, in the rooms of the Manufacturers and Merchants' association. What should be first done in the line of civic work will be discussed, such as streets and alley cleaning, parking, the streets, etc.

A Sketch Club—A sketch club has been organized under the direction of M. M. Young, the well known sculptor and artist, and the number is increasing. The members of the club go out in the country sketching landscape views, and various objects of interest, and are making excellent progress under Prof. Young's direction.

To Improve Building—It is understood that the directors of the Utah Savings bank and company are contemplating the increase of the height of their new main street building to six or seven stories. This will make an imposing structure, and it is believed every office will be spoken for long before the building is completed.

Prof. Clark Arrives—Prof. S. H. Clark of the University of Chicago arrived in town today from Ogden where he has concluded a series of lectures and dramatic readings before large audiences. He speaks this afternoon, in Berratt hall, on "The Elements of Beauty in Literature," and this evening, on the "Book of Job." Prof. Clark is a great favorite in Salt Lake literary circles.

Dramatic Evening—The First Unitarian society announces a dramatic evening and social on Friday next, at 8:15 o'clock, when a two act comedy of "Naval Engagements" will be presented by Harry Taylor, F. H. Wright, Jr., O. P. Thompson, Harry Halsey, Mrs. Frank Larson and Miss Ethel Sturgis. The evening will conclude with ball room dancing. Mrs. Frank Larson will have the direction of the events of the evening.

Will Support Wells—The Salt Lake Ministerial association has instructed its committee on public morals, of which Rev. D. A. Brown of the First Baptist church is the chairman, to appear before the municipal laws committee of the city council and city attorney associated to support Councilman Wells in his advocacy of the proposed ordinance shutting up the Sunday theaters. The council committee meets tonight, when an interesting conference is expected.

New Pickle Company—Articles of incorporation of the Mount Pickle company have been filed in the county clerk's office. The capital stock of the company is $50,000, divided into shares of the par value of $1.00 each. C. W. Mount is president; J. B. Cosgriff, vice president; H. P. Clark, secretary and treasurer. The company is now operating a pickle and vinegar plant at the corner of West street and expects to make rapid strides in that industry in this state.

German Reading Club—A movement of some note in German student circles, is the organization of a German club in this city, by young people who have been in Germany and have some acquaintance with the language. A temporary organization has been effected, with Edward Kimball as chairman and Russell Rossiter secretary; committee on permanent organization, Messrs. Edward Kimball, Winslow Smith, and Albert Toronto; committee on invitations, Serge Campbell, Will Wetzel and M. Rossiter.

Needed Improvements—H. B. Windsor has returned home from Milwaukee where he went to settle losses by the recent fire amounting to $2,000, with George Atkins on his return, and lodging house building. Mr. Windsor reports that Mr. Atkins will rebuild in the shape of a two story brick structure which will be an improvement to the town; and that the town corporation is putting in hydrants, a reservoir and pumping plant, in addition to organizing a fire department. The city council is to pass a brick chimney ordinance, and will also pass an ordinance forbidding the erection of any more frame buildings within the established fire limits.

Capt. Hammond Home—Capt. G. A. Hammond of the reclamation survey returned last evening, from a Wyoming and southwestern trip. The captain experienced some variations in temperature may be inferred from the fact that in Wyoming he struck a blizzard with the mercury 20 degrees below zero, while at Phoenix, A. T., he witnessed a roving contest with the

THE COMING CONFERENCE

Advance reports from all railroads entering Salt Lake indicate that the coming Conference traffic will be unusually heavy. Visitors from all over the west will take advantage of the low rates offered to come to Salt Lake the first week in April.

Business men having bargains to offer country visitors, should remember that the one paper which reaches the people of the great west is the Semi-Weekly News, published every Monday and Thursday afternoon. Special rates will be accorded advertisers in the Daily and Saturday News.

TWENTY YEARS AGO TODAY.

DO YOU REMEMBER?

No trains were allowed to move out of East St. Louis. Master Workman Powderley of the Knights had ordered the strikers to go to work on all Gould lines, but the men took time to consider the matter.

TEN YEARS AGO TODAY.

At Talmadge, O., Anton Strong beat to death an aged couple named Stone, and seriously injured their daughter and a nephew of the couple. Strong had been sent to prison by the Stouers for horse stealing.

FIVE YEARS AGO TODAY.

The Countess Russell was granted a divorce in London from the Earl of Russell. The latter had contracted a bigamous marriage with a Mrs. Somerville, at Reno, Nev.

Afflicted with Rheumatism. "I was and am yet afflicted with rheumatism," says Mr. J. C. Bayne, editor of the Herald-Examiner, "Indian Territory," but thanks to Chamberlain's Pain Balm, I am able once more to attend to business. It is the best of liniments. If troubled with rheumatism, or any other ailment, you are certain to be more than pleased with the prompt relief which it affords. One application relieves the pain. For Sale by all druggists.

Humors. Come to the surface in the spring in no other season. It's a pity they don't run themselves all off that way; but in spite of pimples and other eruptions, they mostly remain in the system. That's bad. Hood's Sarsaparilla removes them and cures all the painful and disgusting troubles they cause. Nothing else cleanses the system and clears the complexion like Hood's.
