Anarchist Literature Found.

New York, Sept. 3.-Anarchist literature, including several autograph let-ters from Emma Goldman and Johann Most, together with a mysterious iron chest, have been found in this city be-side the dead body of a woman about 40 years old and known as Mrs. Freda

The woman was well dressed and wore a quantity of jewelry. The chest resisted all attempts that were made to force it with means at hand and experts will be employed. It was persistently rumored that the woman was a leading Anarchist, but her body has not yet been identified.

Andrews Wants Verdict Set Aside.

Detroit, Mich., Sept. 2.-Frank C, Andrews, who has been convicted of misappropriating and misapplying funds of the wrecked City Savings bank, of which he was vice president, this afternoon filed in the recorder's court a petition to have the verdict of guilty set aside. Forty-nine reasons why his request should be granted are given

The most important of them charges that Juror Geo. W. Brock was preju-diced and swore that he could give an impartial hearing for the purpose of getting on the jury, and that he was really bent on convicting the respon-

The petition also alleges that William A. McCarron, one of the witnesses, re-lied on to establish the fact of Brock's prejudice, had been placed under arrest for the purpose of intimidating him. McCarron has been locked up at the Central station since last Friday. The charge of deserting from the navy three years ago is registered against him.

VERMONT ELECTION.

It is Thrown into the Assembly, Being None by People.

White River Junction, Vt., Sept. 2.-There is no election by the people for a governor, and lieutenant-governor, as a result of the state election held in Vermont today. The return up to midnight indicated that Percival W. Clement, high-license-option candidate, was run-ning very close to Gen. John G. Mc-Cullough (Rep.). The returns from 200 cities and towns cut of 246 give the vote for governor; Gen, John G. McCullough (Rep.), 26,497; Felix W. McGettrick (Dem.), 6,117; Ferelval W. Clement GEN. Washington, Sept. 2.-A change has been made in the plan of Lieut.-Gen. Milles announced last week. It was ex-pected originally that he would leave on his tour of inspection of the Philippines tomorrow and sall from San Francisco on the transport Thomas on the 16th. The pressure of work in his flice at present is so great, however, that he feels he will not be able to leave Washington before next Wednesday.

Gen. Miles has called a special meeting of the army board on ordinances and fortification for Sept. 9, at which time it will begin the preparation of its report and recommendation upon the subject of a new field gun for the army. The date named has been selected in order to insure the atlend-ance of those members of the board who are at present engaged in the joint maneuver

British Trades Unions.

London, Sept. 2.—W. C. Steadman's presidential address at the Trades Union congress today denied that trades unionism was destructive to trades commercial supremacy charged by the London Times and other papers. The only means by which the working people could hope to secure relief from their burdens was, Mr. Steadman said, to constitute themselves great political force.

New York, Sept. 3 .- Henry White, secretary of American embassy in London, who has just arrived here, laughed at the report recently circulated that King Edward will send a personal representative to this country with the title of ambassador, but to act only in social matters. "That is the greatest nonsense I even heard," said he. "It strikes me that Sir Michael Herbert will be able to represent Great Britain in a social sense quite as well as in a diplomatic. He is eminently fitted for the position from every point of view. A Thief Terrorizes Passengers.

New York, Sept. 3 .- Slashing to right and left with a razor a thief on the Third avenue elevated road terrorized a car full of passengers and held them at bay until he could make his escape from the train. He seriously injured a passenger and guard. After the train passed Forty-seventh street Edward Bergen, a passenger, saw the thief take Bergen, a passenger, saw the thief take another passenger's watch. He called the guard and together they attempted to capture the pickpocket. As they closed on him he drew a razor and slashed Bergen twice,cutting frightful gashes in his arms and right thigh. His activity with the weapon caused tramendary avitament around the pass

Prest. Coleman Issues a Statement Regarding Its Affairs.

New York, Sept. 3 .- President R. L. Coleman of the American Bicycle Co. has issued a statement in regard to the affairs of the company and plans under consideration for the reorganization of the combination. It says: "Interest on the company's debenture bonds, due Sept. 2, will not be paid at this time.

"Proceedings have been instituted looking to the appointment of a tempo-rary receiver or receivers in the interest of bond and stockholders and ap-plication for reorganization will be subnitted at an early date for their approval.

The moving reason for this course is that the company is and has been since its organization, hampered by lack of working capital, and it is con-fidently expected that the proposed re-organization will furnish the necessary funds for the proper conduct of i.s business. The company is perfectly solvent and undoubtedly has an assured future.
