

FLLOATING FRAGMENTS.

There are several cases of diphtheria in the city.

The Ogden rally of the People's Party was a "rouser."

The party of missionaries that left here last Tuesday, arrived at New York yesterday.

A company of immigrants from the Northwestern States Mission arrived on Saturday evening.

The 17th Ward Sunday evening meeting will commence at six o'clock instead of at heretofore at 6:30.

Mr. J. W. Lowell announces in another column that the business he has conducted will be continued by the J. W. Lowell Wagon Company.

Mrs. Proctor, a widow is supporting her family by conducting a meat market in the Tenth Ward, near the meeting house. She should be encouraged.

A man whose name we did not learn, who is a professional hunter, and employed to supply wild meat to the residents of the city, was shot by Mr. S. W. Smith's wood choppers, in the timber on Bear River, a short time ago brought into camp three elk and a big cinnamon bear as the proceeds of one trip.—Evening Chief.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Reached New York.—By telegram from Elder Geo. C. Lambert we learn that he and party of fifty missionaries arrived safely at New York yesterday morning.

Home Mission.—The regular meeting of the Home Missionaries of this State will be held in the Council Room on Wednesday evening, the 28th inst., at 7 o'clock.

WILLIAM W. TAYLOR, Clerk of the State.

A Disgusting Case.—There was a most disgusting case of disturbance of the peace, lewdness and immorality, on First East Street, the parties to whom were arrested, between Saturday and yesterday. The details are unfit for publication in our columns.

Missionaries Going.—The following missionaries for the Northwestern States will leave for that part of the country this week: C. M. Squires and Ephraim Jensen, of Brigham City, Box Elder County; Enos L. Stookey, of Clover Creek, Tooele County; Elias Nebeker, of Richfield, Sevier County; P. L. Sherman, of Ogden. Some of the party will start to-morrow, and the balance on Thursday. A number of others destined for the same field will depart later.

Accident on the Utah & Northern.—Last Friday, near McCammon Station, two freight trains, Nos. 10 and 5 on the Utah & Northern R. R., made an attempt to pass each other on the same track. As a consequence it was unsuccessful, and resulted in the demoralization of the two engines, and the complete wrecking of four coal cars.

The incident feature of the accident was the killing of the head brakeman on No. 5, C. M. Brannon, who was thus suddenly deprived of life in his youth. The engineers and firemen jumped in time and escaped. Brannon was told to jump too, but whether he made the attempt or not is not known, as he was found lying among the wreckage dead, with but few bruises on his body.

A Sensible Decision.—The habeas corpus case, the object of which was to compel the city police authorities to relinquish to the U. S. Marshal the custody of Jessie Walton, accused of the murder of Nellie T. Wilder, was argued before Chief Justice Hunter this morning. His honor stated that the City Marshal's papers were all regular. The affidavit was filed and the warrant issued before the writ of habeas corpus was applied for. It also appeared that Miller who obtained the warrant from Commissioner McKay, and applied to the City Marshal for the custody of Jessie Walton was not a deputy United States Marshal, but a marshal's clerk. If he were a Marshal there was nothing on the face of the papers to show that this was the case, and the Commissioner had no authority to make such an officer of him. There was nothing on the papers to show that Commissioner McKay had authorized Miller to serve them. The prisoner was remanded back to the custody of the City Marshal.

Northwestern States Mission.—This morning we were gratified at receiving a visit from Elder William M. Palmer, President of the Northwestern States' Mission, who arrived here from his field of labor on Saturday evening. Elder George O. Noble and Carlotta Wallentine arrived at the same time. Accompanying these brethren were forty-nine immigrants from the mission. A number of the company went to Logan to locate, a few remained in Ogden and the balance came down to this city.

Elder Palmer left here to return to his field of labor on the 2nd of May, since which time sixty-seven members have been added to the Church by baptism and twenty-five besides the party which arrived on Saturday, have emigrated to Utah. Prejudice in the Northwestern States, in the hearts of the people, has generally of late transformed to intense hatred to the cause of truth as advocated by the Elders. The present crusade against the Saints has, however, caused many thoughtful people to examine into what is known as the "Mormon Question," and decide that it is a religious persecution. In some portions of the field many people are inquiring into the principles of the Gospel, and doubtless their investigations will result in a considerable number of additions to the Church.

Elder Palmer is released for the winter, but will return in the spring to resume active missionary operations in the field over which he presides.

THE WALTON-WILDER MURDER CASE.

FURTHER INVESTIGATION FAILS TO UNRAVEL THE MYSTERY.

The mystery connected with the shooting of Nellie T. Wilder still continues, and although some additional light has been obtained, up to date most of the evidence before the coroner's jury is strictly circumstantial, and the finding of the large ball in the brain of the deceased has only served to render the statement of one of the witnesses more doubtful. It is in evidence by several witnesses that the small pistol belonged to Jessie, and she declares that she shot Nellie. Now the question arises where the pistol with which it was done? It evidently was not the small weapon which belonged to her, as the ball found in the brain was several times too large for that pistol, and no other weapon has yet been discovered. Did she use a large weapon and then throw it away where it could not be found, or was the deed done by some one else? The black girl testifies positively that she was gone not to exceed nine or ten minutes. During this brief time a tragedy was enacted which so far seems to have baffled the efforts of the officers and the jury. It is true that there are many strong points in the evidence; but some of them conflict and the refusal of Jessie, at the investigation of her attorneys, to testify tends still further to complicate the case.

The coroner's inquest was continued at 10 a.m. when the girl Jennie Porter was cross-examined and the man who drove the party to Park City and was present when the diamonds were lost, as well as Miss Abbie Cross, who resides next door north of the premises and who heard several of the shots, but nothing of great importance was elicited. Dr. Disbrow and one or two other witnesses were examined at 3 p.m. but too late for a report this evening.

This afternoon the prisoner Jessie Walton was taken before Justice Spiers, but examination was continued till 2 p.m. to-morrow, as it was expected the inquest would be concluded by that time.

Beaver County Mandamus Cases.—J. W. Christian and J. R. Williams, appointed for the positions of Probate Judge and County Clerk, respectively, having previously demanded possession of the offices in question and been refused, filed their application in open court for the necessary writ of mandamus. His Honor, Judge Twiss, granted the preliminary alternative writs, making them returnable on October 28th.

Wednesday, Messrs. D. L. McDougall and John R. Murdoch, Jr., the bondsmen of the prospective Probate Judge, notified that gentleman of their withdrawal. Mr. Christian promptly replying that they had better notify the Governor, since he had accepted the bonds and issued a commission thereon. It is understood that the well-known Salt Lake attorney, Arthur Brown Esq., and Colonel Merrill will appear on behalf of the defendants, and Messrs. Dixon and Marshall for the plaintiffs.

One peculiar feature that is not in the cases in the northern counties, is that in the applications for writs that is granted, the claimants assert that the defendants have been, since the passage of the act of 1862, and are yet polygamists, and therefore ineligible to hold office, etc.—Utahian.

SPECIAL BUSINESS NOTICES.

CARD.

To the Public and Whomsoever it may Concern:

I have this day sold to the John W. Lowell Wagon Company, of which I am President and principal stockholder, my good will and stock in trade and buildings.

I take this occasion to tender my sincere thanks to the public at large for their generous patronage for the eleven years I have been in business here, and especially to those warm friends who have taken such an interest in my welfare. But few days have elapsed for years without some new customer saying to me: "I was recommended to come by Mr. [name], a friend of yours." Kind friends, your friendship, sympathy and assistance will never be forgotten.

Messrs. Justin E. Morse, John Farmer, Martin O. Johnson and Carlin D. Joelyn, who are the other directors and own the balance of the stock of the new company are all friends, your friendship, sympathy and assistance will never be forgotten.

Yours, very respectfully,
JOHN W. LOWELL.
